

Boilermakers Nip Silvertown For Ball Title

SILVERTOWN (Special)—George "Duke" Windsor and his Portland Boilermakers were too much for Big John Day and his Silvertown Red Sox in the title game of the Oregon State Semi-pro baseball tournament here Sunday night, the Makers grabbing off the crown by a 3 to 1 score. Windsor was touched for seven blows by the Silver Sox while Day held the winners to four, but threw in seven bases on balls to help his own downfall.

The new champs scored twice in the first inning with the aid of but one hit. Day's wildness and one of two Silvertown boots figuring in for the tallies. Silvertown got her first tally in the third on two hits, one by Day himself, another by Dean and Johnny Kolb's ground out.

The Makers scored again in the seventh on one hit, an error, a force play and Cliff Barker's fly. Silvertown got two men on in the eighth with base hits but couldn't bring them around. The tournament titlists would have had to play the Silver Sox again had the Sox won Sunday's game of the double elimination tournament. The Boilermakers, undefeated up to game time, would have been tied with the Sox, already beaten once before game time, necessitating a two out of three game series for the title.

But Windsor had his curve ball working to perfection, fanning an even dozen Sox and passing home. Day sent 11 down swinging but his seven passes, three of which put all the Boilermaker runs on the sacks, cost him the ball game.

Annual "first" awards were made Sunday night and are as follows: Best hitter — Bill Tait of Silvertown. Outstanding pitcher — Windsor of Boilermakers.

- Outstanding catcher — Arnold Riesgo of Silvertown.
- Outstanding infielder — Don Kirach of Marine Electric.
- Outstanding outfielder — John Bubalo of Marine Electric.
- Sportsmanship — Gale Smith, Marine Electric.
- Best dressed team — Williamette Iron & Steel.

Lombardi Gaining on Reiser in National Loop Batting Race

NEW YORK, July 20 (AP)—Pounding the ball at a clip that recalled his fence busting days with the Cincinnati Reds, Ernie Lombardi of the Boston Braves closed in on Brooklyn's Pete Reiser during the last week in the battle for the National League batting crown.

While Reiser was a losing ground for the second straight week, the big Boston catcher continued his advance until at the end of Sunday's play he trailed Pistol Pete by only five points. The Brooklyn outfielder, dropping six percentage points, ended the week with a 350 percentage. Lombardi, adding 12 points to his gain of 18 the week before, boosted his average to .345.

Lombardi's drive displaced Joe Medwick of the Dodgers as the runner-up. In fact, Medwick lost 12 points and saw his average drop to .331 and threatened by the rise of Stan Musial of St. Louis, who tacked on 17 points to send his average soaring to .325.

After a week out of the "big ten" Chicago's Bill Nicholson returned and Bob Elliott, Pittsburgh's third baseman, forged his way in. They replaced Mickey Owen of Brooklyn and Ray Lammanno of Cincinnati.

Behind the four leaders trailed: Elbie Fletcher, Pittsburgh, .312; Walker Cooper, St. Louis, .307; Lou Novikoff, Chicago, .301; Nicholson, .299; Johnny Mize, New York, .298, and Elliott, .296.

'Frisco Pair Wins Doubles Championship

TACOMA, July 20 (AP)—Men's doubles titles went to Harry Buttimer and Jim Livingston, both of San Francisco, as play ended here Monday afternoon in the 52nd annual Pacific northwest tennis tournament. Scoring over two fellow San Franciscans, Harry Roche and Clarence Swenson, the winning duo chalked up tallies of 6-2, 8-6 in the finals.

They previously put down Nick Carter, men's singles champion, and Paul Dibble 9-11, 6-4, 6-3 in semi-finals. Carter and Dibble also are from San Francisco.

Coaches Cast Ballots for Star Gridders

By ARCH WARD (Sports Editor, Chicago Tribune)

CHICAGO, Ill., July 20—Football coaches of the far west displayed an sectional favoritism today as they cast their ballots in the nation-wide poll to select the starting College All-American eleven to oppose the Chicago Bears, National Football League champions, in the ninth annual All-Star game in Chicago on the night of August 28.

Four coaches—A. L. (Lon) Stiner of Oregon State; O. E. (Babe) Hollingbery of Washington State; L. T. (Duck) Shaw of Santa Clara, and L. B. (Stub) Allison of California, agreed unanimously on Bob Westfall, Michigan's powerful fullback, and Ray Frankowski, Washington's 230-pound guard, who prep'd at nearby Hammond, Ind., high school.

Stiner, whose Pacific Coast conference championship eleven whipped Duke, 20 to 16, in the Rose Bowl game at Durham, NC, last January 1, chose four midwesterners, on his All-Star team, three southerners, three from the far west and one from the east. In addition to Westfall the middle west players were Halfback Bruce Smith of Minnesota; Tackle Alf Bauman of Northwestern and Center Darold Jenkins of Missouri.

Hollingbery, who represented the Pacific coast on the All-Star coaching staff last year, named two midwestern linemen and two ball carriers. They were End Charles Ringer of Minnesota and Bauman and Quarterback Al Coupee of Iowa and Westfall. Hollingbery also selected Halfback Bob Robertson of Southern California and Billy Sewell of Washington State.

Bill Dudley, Virginia's 20 year old fullback, who led the nation in individual scoring last fall, was placed at quarterback by Shaw. Other backfield men listed were Smith, Westfall and Kenny Casagne, Santa Clara halfback. The backfield on the ballot submitted by Allison included Smith, Albert, Westfall and Robertson.

The poll, which opened last Sunday, will continue until midnight, July 26. More than 200 newspapers and radio stations in 38 states and the District of Columbia are associated with The Tribune in conducting the balloting.

Swingin' With the SOFTBALLERS

By DAN MORLEY

| SOFTBALL STANDINGS | W | L | Pct. |

| PM Office | 2 | 3 | .400 |
| Ramages | 2 | 4 | .333 |
| PM Machine | 0 | 4 | .000 |

Harold Smith and Percy Crofoot pitched three and four hit ball, respectively, to lead Golden Pheasant and the Papermakers to wins over co-cellar dwellers PM Machine and Ramage last night, the Pheasants downing the Machinists 5 to 0 and the Makers defeating Ramages 8 to 1.

Ramages gave the undefeated, league-leading Papermakers a bad time of it until the last inning, when three hits and two errors brought five runs across the plate. Up until that time the Makers had only a slim three run margin, gained through a single run in the first frame and two more in the third. Ramages scored their lone tally in the fourth on a double by McMorris and a fielder's choice. "Pinwheel" Percy was having trouble keeping the ball out of reach of the hard swinging "Bottlers," who were hitting the ball sharply but right at the fielders.

The Pheasants had an easier time with the weak-hitting PM Machine outfit, Smith coasting to an easy victory after the "Brass Ducks" scored two runs in the second inning, one in the third, and another pair in the fourth.

Fireworks should be in order Wednesday night when the slugging Soldiers go after the offerings of Crofoot, the Army boys meeting the top place Papermakers at 7 o'clock. Second place Keith Brown will take on the powerful but unlucky Paper Mill Office team in the 8 o'clock nightcap, a game that should have everything, including a probable pitchers' duel between Bob Knight of the Office and Bob Freeman of the "Brownies." This game might settle the dispute that rages over which of the rapid Roberts is really the town's top topper.
