Two Tourneys

158 Golfers

CHICAGO, July 22-(AP)-For 14 hours Wednesday, 158 golfersplaying two tournaments-attempted to keep out of each other's way in a traffic jam on the Tam O'Shanter course.

If several of the boys haven't lost their way in the darkness, then the day's work can be considered finished, with a couple of Philadelphia pros and all the top flight amateurs but one meeting up with success. The two tournaments were all-American amateur, in which 64 players started match play, and the $15,500 Tam O'Shanter open, in which professionals began qualifying. Pocketing $200 aplece for sharing medalist honors in the 18-hole qualifying round for 94 non-exempt pros were the two Philadelphia traveling buddies, Henry Aansom and Gene Kunes. Ransom, former Texas PGA and Texas open champion, fashioned a 35-33-68 on the par 36-36-72 proving ground, and Kunes, 1935 Canadian open winner, blazed in with 33-35-68. Kunes had a 65 in a recent practice round and was rather disgusted with Wednesday's card. He was five under par on the 11th hole and appeared destined to break the course record of 65 and hit a $500 jackpot. But he took bogies on the next three holes and blew the chance.

Western Amateur champion Pat Abbott of Pasadena, an army private at Denver's Lowry field, was the only big name fun player to fall by the wayside as the field of 64 was trimmed to 16 by two rounds of match play. Abbott was sidelined—until Thursday, at least, when he and the other losers enter the open play-by Gus Novotny of Chicago, a 40-year-old Linksman who has been at the game 30 years, in the first round. Novotny was defeated in the second round by 215-pound Earl Gocke, Chicago public links player. None of the Negro contestants qualified Tuesday for the amateur meet but seven out of 10 pros made the grade Wednesday The tournament committee announced that Howard Wheeler of Los Angeles had been placed among the 60 others exempted from Wednesday's qualifying, class for officers' training, the since he is an outstanding Negro preparation for which will be for golfer, and he was given a place 10 weeks. An examination will automatically in Thursday's startthen be given and all those passing it will be commissioned 2nd armed forces, Lt. Harold Hauk and Lt. Vern Gilmore, ex-Salem high coaches, having joined previously. He is also the second staff director of the Salem

Y to enlist for duty this week.
