

Betrothal Is Told Today

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Rahn are announcing the engagement of their daughter, Miss Eileen Maurilla Rahn to Mr. Rex Lawson, son of Rev. and Mrs. G. W. Lawson of Aberdeen, Wash.

Miss Rahn told the news some time ago, to fellow students at Northwest Christian college, where she and Mr. Lawson are students. They also take work at the University of Oregon. Mr. Lawson is a minister in the Christian church in Trent, Oregon.

Miss Rahn revealed September 6 as the date for the wedding, which will be read in the First Christian church in Salem. An old family friend, Rev. W. O. Livingstone of Vernonia will officiate, and will be assisted by the groom's father.

Barretts Hosts During Week

Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Barrett have been hosts to members of their family and friends the past week. Their son, Phil, left on Saturday for Sacramento, after spending a week at the family home. He is assistant pastor of the Westminster Presbyterian church and came to Oregon to attend Synod in Eugene.

Mrs. Amos Jann (their daughter Margaret) arrived from Oakland on Saturday night, where she has been with Mr. Jann for the past two weeks. He is with the coast guard.

On Sunday the Barretts were dinner hosts to Mrs. Helen Babcock and daughter Edith and Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Millard of Portland. Mr. and Mrs. Barrett and Mrs. Jahn will leave for Seattle on Friday for the weekend and will celebrate their 25th wedding anniversary at the home of Mr. Barrett's people in Tacoma.

Auxiliary Has Meeting

Hal Hibbard auxiliary USWV held its regular meeting at the VFW hall Monday with Willow Evans, president in charge. Reports were given of the recent convention at Astoria where three members of the local organization, Mesdames Elsie McClung, Lulu Humphrey and Jessie Bush Mickelson were elected to department offices.

Mrs. James Parker reported that the local group doing Red Cross sewing each Tuesday had completed more than one hundred garments. Money was provided for five more army kits.

The annual picnic may be a little unusual this year with some members working in the bean fields while others prepare the picnic dinner.

Hal Hibbard auxiliary will meet on the third Monday only of August and September.

Pattern

"Sew something simple"—sew this slimming Anne Adams Pattern, 4109. The front and back bodice are each cut in one piece. Softness is released by waist darts and yoke-effect slashes below the shoulders.

Visitors Feted Here

Mrs. Homer Carpenter was hostess on Wednesday afternoon at an informal afternoon tea given for Mrs. Estella Rotz, a sister-in-law of Mrs. Abner, with whom she and her daughter, Mildred are staying. Mrs. Rotz and daughter are here from Pottstown, Pennsylvania, and will remain through August and September.

On Friday, Mrs. Kline will give a luncheon for a group of the Salem girls Mildred's age. After luncheon, they will make up a theatre party.

Invited to the luncheon are: Arah Kuhns, Florence Lewis, Georgia Hull, Audrey Vaughn, Anne Conley, Jean Fowler, Betty Van Osdol and Mildred Rotz. Mr. and Mrs. Kline plan to take the visitors to the beach for a week during their stay here.

Mrs. Eugene Meng (Bobbie Hendrickson) and two children, Nancy Jean and Richard, who arrived in Salem four weeks ago to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Hendrickson, is leaving Friday for her home in Milwaukee, Wis. Enroute home they will stop at Vancouver, BC, to visit her sister and family, the former Helen Hendrickson.

Plans Completed for USO Party to Be Given at Legion Hall Friday

The USO, with the cooperation of the Salem Hostess league, will give another dance for soldiers at the American Legion hall on Friday night, beginning at 7:15 o'clock.

As usual the girls will be checked in by members of the committee, with Mrs. Lowell Kern and Mrs. Karl Becke in charge. Junior hostess members only will be at the party and will be checked in by card and by registration. Members of the committee are urging all girls who have been accepted as junior hostesses to have photos taken within a week of acceptance. Entrance to the parties will soon be made by card only and photos must be taken for the membership cards.

Mrs. Waldo Zeller, chairman of the hostess committee for the dance Wednesday, announced the following hostesses for the Friday night party: Mrs. Kenneth Bailey, Mrs. E. H. Guenther, Mrs. Paul Hendricks, Mrs. P. D. Quisenberry, Mrs. C. H. Ostrin, Mrs. Lyman McDonald, Mrs. Elmer V. Wooten and Mrs. J. D. White. Mrs. Walter Spaulding will assist in the rooms. Committee members at the Hostess league headquarters in the Senator hotel are asking for donations or the loan of card tables to use when entertaining soldiers. The committee may be contacted by telephoning the office at 6441.

Stevens Clan Has Reunion

Family Group Gathers At Guy Mount Home Near Oregon City

NORTH HOWELL—The annual Stevens family reunion was held Sunday at the country home of Dr. and Mrs. Guy Mount near Oregon City. It is the custom in this large and now widely scattered family of descendants of Isaac and Lavina Stevens, early pioneers of this community, for each family unit to take turns entertaining the large group.

This year, the Mount family originally of Silverton, were hosts and Dr. Guy Mount of Oregon City was president. Mrs. Thomas Bump of North Howell is secretary and among her family guests for the occasion were Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Howard of Portland and Mr. and Mrs. Scott Clevenger and son Tommy of Eugene.

Others from this district who assist in keeping the family custom are Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Stevens, Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Stevens and children Leta and Gordon; Mr. and Mrs. Ward Manning, Mary Jane and Ellis Manning, Mrs. Mary Stevens and Ted Stevens.
