

Annual Herb Tea Success

Garden Officials From Over State Attend Librarian Speaks

LEBANON — Nearly 100 garden enthusiasts came to Lebanon to attend the annual herb tea given by the Lebanon club in the garden of the Clair Ford home on East Grant street. Garden clubs of Albany, Scio, Salem, Portland, Eugene, Springfield, Corvallis, Clackamas, Sweet Home and Klamath Falls were represented among the guests as well as a few from California.

A number of state and district officers came and Miss Elinor Stevens, state librarian, was the principal speaker. She brought with her a number of books on herbs and magazine articles on the same subject. Copies of "Bouquets and Bitters," a list of the herbs growing in this state, were given out when Miss Stevens talked.

Mrs. W. E. Wilhelm of Portland, who has contributed articles on this subject to the Oregon Journal, told about the Badianus manuscript, the old Aztec herbal, and showed her copy which was given to her by the member of the garden club in Portland of which she was president.

Mrs. Wilhelm is past president of the Little Garden club of Portland and is now vice president of the Columbia district. Miss Arlie Seaman of the Portland Herb club, which is to be called the Oregon Herb club, was also on the program. She brought herbs from her garden and books from her extensive library on herbs.

Mrs. E. D. Lamb of Klamath Falls, president of the Oregon Federation of Garden clubs, was also introduced. Among the other garden club officers present were: Mrs. A. E. Thomas of Corvallis; Mrs. Broders and Mrs. R. E. Mosher of Eugene; Mrs. D. N. Shreve, Albany; Mrs. Myrtle Aronson and Mrs. G. H. Ostrander of Portland. From Salem were: Miss Edith Schryver, Miss Elizabeth Lord, Mrs. Helen Shaw, Mrs. Katherine Zielinski, Mrs. A. D. Binigar, Mrs. C. A. Ratcliffe and Miss Stevens.

Punch and sandwiches and snaps all using herbs were served and tussie mussies, symbolic bouquets and herb recipe books compiled by Mrs. Nina Woods, Mrs. Katherine Marquess and Mrs. Doris Gunderson were sold.
