

The Bridal Procession Saturday Is Chosen by Three Couples as Wedding Day

White gladioluses decorated the attractive fireplace room of the First Presbyterian church on Saturday afternoon when Rev. W. Irvin Williams officiated at the marriage of Miss Dorothy Greenwood and Mr. Glen Flavel, jr. The ceremony took place at 3 o'clock.

The bride was dressed in a light weight wool model of gold, with which were worn navy blue accessories. Her flowers were white orchids.

Miss Dorothy Moore of Portland was attired in a light green sheer wool dress and brown accessories and wore a corsage of rosebuds. She was the bride's only attendant.

Mr. Flavel asked Mr. Charles Pilette of Madras to be best man and Mr. Jack Walker of McMinnville and Mr. Dean Trumbo of Portland to usher.

Mrs. Frances M. Greenwood, now of Springfield but formerly of Salem, attended her daughter's wedding in a silk jersey print worn with black accessories and a gardenia corsage. Mrs. Glen Edward Flavel, sr., of Portland, the groom's mother, was in blue, and wore gardenias.

Music during the ceremony was furnished by Miss Margaret Siegmund, who sang "O Promise Me" and Miss Betty Sackett at the piano.

Mrs. Flavel graduated from Willamette university this year. She is a member of Beta Chi.

Mr. Flavel attended Willamette university and is a member of Alpha Psi Delta. For some time he has been flight instructor for the Portland Flying school at Madras. After a honeymoon to the mountains, the newly married couple will live in Madras.

Williams-Schneider Vows
A beautiful wedding ceremony performed on Saturday night was that of Miss Elsie Schneider and Mr. Thomas Albin Williams.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jacques Schneider of Blodgett, and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Williams. Rev. Robert A. Hutchinson performed the ceremony at 8:30 o'clock at the home of the groom's parents.

The bride wore a casual suit of white, a powder blue hat with matching veil and blue accessories. She wore a corsage of orchids.

The matron of honor, Mrs. Robert Siewert, was dressed in blue crepe with which she wore begonias and bouvardia.

Mrs. Jean Rich played the organ and Miss Dolores Brennan sang "Because." Mr. Vernon Wis Carson was best man.

The bride's mother was gowned in navy blue and the groom's mother wore black with white accessories. Both wore corsages of gardenias.

Mrs. Williams attended Philomath schools and has been living in Salem for several years. Mr. Williams is a graduate of Salem high school and attended George Washington university in Washington, DC.

After the wedding, the couple left for a short honeymoon along the coast and upon their return will remain in Salem until Mr. Williams leaves for the army on August 11.

Sporleder-Long Wedding
Miss Laura Long, daughter of Mrs. Helen Long and Mr. M. M.

DELEGATE—Mrs. Louise Arneson, who is an Oregon delegate to the national convention of Sons of Norway in Chicago August 6 to 9. Mr. Emil Slovorp, vice-consul from Norway, is the only other Oregon delegate. Mrs. Arneson is local president of the Sons of Norway. (Jeslen-Miller.)

Miss Dickson Is Engaged

The engagement of Miss Darlene Dickson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. Dickson, to Mr. Wade Bettis, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Bettis of Gresham, was told at a meeting of the Delta Phi sorority members held at the home of Miss Betty Ann Swanson on Thursday night.

Miss Dickson and her fiance are juniors at Willamette university. Both have been active in the speech department. She is a member of Tau Kappa Alpha, national honorary in speech. He is a member of Sigma Tau and was freshman class president. He will leave soon for San Diego for training in the marines.

Hostesses Plan Swim Party

Mrs. Charles Fowler and Mrs. Frank Morgan are arranging a supper and swim for a group of young girls at Leslie pool on Monday night. The party is being given to honor Miss Mildred Rotz, here with her mother from Pottstown, Pennsylvania as the guest of her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Abner Kline.

Girls who will dine at 6:30 and later enjoy an evening of swimming, are the Misses Jean Rowland, Georgia and Helen Mae Cook, Patricia Riches, Jean Driggs, Rene Caplan, Jo Love Lehmer, Helen Boiges, Mavis Wagner, Lois Barrick, Audrey Vaughan, Jean Fowler, and Mildred Rotz.

Reunion to Be At Albany

The 13th annual Bilyeu reunion will be held on August 9 in Bryant Park at Albany. The clan elected Mr. John A. Sumpster of Tangent as president, Mr. L. L. Bilyeu of Albany; vice president, Mrs. Lyall Keith, Walton, secretary-treasurer.

The Bilyeu family settled in the Willamette valley in 1852 and many descendants of the original family remain residents. As many as 300 have attended the previous reunions. A basket dinner will be served as usual.

Entertaining Informal Now

Although few really large parties have been planned for Salem during the summer months, each week brings a number of informal parties, highly satisfactory to hostesses and guests.

On Friday afternoon Miss Olive M. Dahl and Miss Helen MacHirron entertained for Miss Margaret Purvine of Berkeley. The afternoon was spent at the Dahl home on North 4th street. Mrs. Dan Schreiber of Independence, Mrs. Robert Ramp of Yakima, Miss Jeannette Scott of Los Angeles and Miss Purvine and Mrs. Ralph Purvine were invited by the hostesses.

Miss Purvine has been spending a week with her mother, Dr. Mary Purvine, and will leave this weekend with Mrs. George Abbott by car for the south. Mrs. Abbott, the former Erma Oehler, is going south to be with her husband who is stationed with the navy at St. Mary's college in California.

Another Friday affair was the tea given by Miss Elizabeth Lord for Miss Orytha Gatton and Mrs. Asabel Bush, both visitors here. The former is at the home of Miss Sally Bush and the latter at the A. H. Bush home.

Another visitor to Salem is Mrs. George A. White of Clackamas, who is spending the weekend at the country home of Mr. and Mrs. Homer Goulet, sr. Mrs. Goulet and Mrs. Ivan B. Rhodes arranged a no-host luncheon at the Marion hotel on Friday for Mrs. White, and Mrs. John Lauterman. After luncheon the group went to the Lauterman home for bridge.

At the party were Mrs. White, Mrs. Lauterman, Mrs. Goulet, Mrs. Rhodes, Mrs. E. L. Scellars, Mrs. C. K. Logan, Mrs. C. B. McCullough, Mrs. Charles Gray, Mrs. T. O. Russell and Mrs. Homer V. Carpenter.

On Friday, the Goulets invited Mr. and Mrs. T. O. Russell out to dine with Mrs. White, Mrs. Homer Goulet, jr., and themselves.

Mrs. Homer Goulet, jr., arrived last weekend, having driven with her children, Phillip and Garrett, from Louisiana where she has been with Captain Goulet. On the way home she stopped in Ann Arbor with her brother.

On Tuesday afternoon Miss Margaret Wagner and Mrs. Robert Needham will entertain with a salad luncheon for Mrs. Goulet at the Needham home.

Soldiers Men Invited
Soldiers have figured in the week's entertainment. On Friday night Miss Civilla Reeber entertained at an outdoor dinner at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Reeber, before the USO dance. At the party were Miss Elizabeth Anne Herrick, Miss Phyllis Gray, Miss Jeanette Hulst, Miss Cornelia Hulst, Miss Reeber, Corp. Larry Fhede, Corp. Sherwood Quigley, Corp. Leon Shear, Pvt. Charles Nelson and Pvt. Ray Karcy.

Mr. and Mrs. Jerrold Owens are entertaining a group of young people this weekend at Nesko-winn. Spending the weekend at Nesko-winn are the Misses Alice Ann Wirtz, Nancy Stricklin, Marianne Owen, Sally McLellan, Shirley Huntington, Lt. Ray Rush, Lt. Bill Richards, Lt. Jack Wagstaff, Lt. B. Bell and Lt. Howard Vange.

Judge and Mrs. James T. Brand and son Tom will vacation on the Rogue River this week. Father and son plan several fishing trips.

Don't Look Now..

but... anyone who says Salem is slow should eat his words, especially when soldier wives' entertainment is concerned. We have all the offers of hospitality in the world and only a few wives to use it on. No more than 20 women have registered with the committee, which has all sorts of entertainment up its sleeve.

Incidentally... Mrs. James Brand, chairman of the committee to take care of wives of both enlisted men and officers, is enthusiastic in praise of Mrs. Little and the YWCA by way of complete cooperation.

Up 'n coming... these sports minded merchants. On the window of one of our most patronized spots in Salem is a cheery little sign "Welcome Salem Hi Hoopsters."

To be or not... brides this last week thought when they planned garden weddings in August, they could count on sunshine. Maybe the weather man has been having trouble with his sunshine makers going over into defense industry.

Teatime notes... Two outstanding things appeared at the Rossman-AAUW tea last Tuesday. First was that usual tea conversation—bridge clubs, clothes and babies—was replaced by how many cherries this one picked and how many beans that one intended to save for the growers. Second thing was that women were clever about picking flowers from their own gardens. Mrs. Marvin Lewis wore a hollyhock at her wrist, Mrs. Ellsworth Ricketts sported tuberous begonias that outshone any orchid, and Mrs. Paul Barden matched her dress with nasturtiums worn in her hair.

Forgive us... we are sorely tempted to make a pun about a coincidence of names of our brides on page one. It's hard not to mention gamble and green in the same sentence... Maxine Buren.
