Miss Aiken Married At Home

The bride wore a white satin wedding gown, made princess style with sweetheart neckline and leg o' mutton sleeves. The yoke of the gown was lace, matching that on the sleeves. There was a long train. Drying Vegetables Found Practical For Preserving for Winter Use

Calls for bean harvesters seen daily in the news department of the paper, reminds us that soon we'll be putting down some beans for winter use, providing we are among those thrifty housekeepers who look ahead into the coming winter and see little or no commercially canned foods on our shelves. Many cooks will go back to the old fashioned way of putting down vegetables for the winter. Many will recall the joys of home-dried corn or beans, as they were in grandmother's time.

Corn is blanched on the cob for 3 minutes, that it, it's put into boiling water for 3 minutes, and is then dried, either in the sun or in the oven. Store until ready for use, then freshen in water for several hours and cook as for fresh corn.

Peas may be prepared in the same way, but must be young and tender when dried. Unless sterilized well, the peas are liable to be attacked by weevils.

10 minutes in boiling water to insure tenderness during drying. Spread on trays in the sun, allow to dry a half day in the bright sun, then stack trays one above the other or put in the shade to complete the drying process. This will prevent bleaching. After dried, dip in boiling water for 1/2 to 1 minute, then dry; this kills any insect eggs which may be present. Dry in the sun a few hours and pack in insect proof packages. If you prefer, sterilize the vegetables by putting in the oven long enough to heat through.

Today's Menu

Barbecued pot roast will be the interesting main dish for today. Jellied peach and nut salad. Barbecued pot roast. Whipped potatoes. Buttered new beans. Deep dish apple pie.

BARBECUED POT ROAST OF BEEF

1 pound pot roast of beef
2 medium size onions
2 tablespoons vinegar
2 tablespoons Worcestershire sauce
1 teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon paprika
1/4 teaspoon chili powder
3/4 cup catsup
3/4 cup water

Slice onions very thin. Place in a heavy skillet with all ingredients except pot roast of beef. Cover tightly and simmer slowly about one hour. Add slices of pot roast of beef. Heat 10 minutes longer. This becomes like shredded beef in a sauce. Serve over hot rice or on potatoes. For barbecued beef sandwiches, add only one cup of sauce to the meat. This makes a thick filling for a sandwich.

Furnishing a few hundred dozen cookies sounds easy, when there are lots and lots of women in town who might offer their sweets for parties being given by the USO for soldiers. But even wars can't change human nature, so as usual it has fallen to the lot of a relatively small group of women to furnish cookies for the soldiers. And even a dozen cookies, given every week over a period of time, grinds down the family supply, and soon the fathers of those families will find that even a good hard stirring doesn't bring enough sugar up from the bottom of the coffee cup to count.

Cookies wouldn't be cookies unless they were sweet, so it falls to ingenious homemakers to make flavor, whether their sugar supply says "no" or not. Let's look to a few recipes then, some that will use forms of sweetness other than straight sugar. Watch your corn syrup supply, you prospective cookie makers, pounce down on the grocer when he puts a can on the shelf. This isn't a suggestion for hoarding, merely an idea for getting a can when your supply is gone and soldier cookie making is in the offing.

Peanut cookies are favorites in most families, but peanut cookie recipes usually take a cup of brown sugar and—zing!—another half ration stamp gone. Here's a new version to try.

REFRIGERATOR PEANUT COOKIES

1/4 cup peanut butter
3/4 cup butter
2 cups dark corn syrup
1 egg
4-5 cups flour
1 teaspoon cream of tartar
1 teaspoon soda
1 cup chopped peanuts

Cream butter and syrup and peanut butter, add beaten egg. Sift flour, soda and cream of tartar, and add to butter mixture. Add chopped peanuts. Place in refrigerator until dough is chilled. Shape into rolls 1 1/2 inches in diameter and return to refrigerator. When rolls are firm, slice and bake 10 to 15 minutes at 400 degrees.

Here's another with another substitute for sugar.

MOLASSES BRAN MUFFINS

2 cups bran cereal
1/2 cup molasses
1 1/2 cups milk
1 egg
1 cup flour
1/2 teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon soda

Add bran cereal to molasses and milk and allow to soak for 15 minutes. Beat egg and add to first mixture. Sift flour, salt and soda together and combine with bran cereal mixture. Fill greased muffin pans 2/3 full and bake in a moderately hot oven (400 degrees) about 20 minutes. 1 dozen muffins.

Navy Okehs Oregon Use In Training

PORTLAND, Aug. 3.—(AP)—The navy has approved use of the old battleship Oregon as a training center for marine engine machinists, Ralph E. Dugdale, city school superintendent, said Monday.

Dugdale said the navy's authorization was in response to a request made by Governor Sprague. Approval by the Battleship Oregon commission now will be sought, he said.

Lightning Storm Ties Up Traffic In Portland Area

PORTLAND, Aug. 3.—(AP)—Facilities were restored Monday night after a lightning storm hit the Portland area early Monday, interrupting power service, curtailing transportation and starting nine minor fires.

Striking lightning burned out the motors of 16 street cars and trolley buses and put traffic signals out of commission. Street car service over the Morrison and Steel bridges was halted after bolts struck the spans.

Lightning struck the tower of the Rose City Presbyterian church peeling off some bricks and scattering them across a street. Commercial radio stations were off the air for a short time. Major industrial plants were affected only slightly.

Traffic on the east side, hardest hit section of the city, was tied up early this morning and police cars flagged down motorists, requesting them to pick up workers who were waiting for streetcars and buses.
