Every military camp in the country is putting forth with a slam-bang sports program, and our own Camp Adair, despite being in its infancy, is certainly no exception. Due for completion within the next few weeks on the camp ground is a sports palace which would do justice to a large city and which will house everything from a boxing and wrestling ring to a basketball court. Adjoining the giant field house will be both a regulation sized football field and baseball diamond. The men of Camp Adair will not need for facilities in which to expand their respective sports activities.

But as in probably every other camp, there is a need for equipment-such as bats, balls, gloves, shoes, etc., things that aren't totally supplied by the army. Offsetting the need of such equipment are the various donations from all the kind-hearted souls who want to see the fighting men have their fun while in training.

$710.40 in the Hat

The "Four Builders" contracting firm out of Portland, which is doing a great deal of the camp building, and which consists of laborers and workers from Salem, Independence, Monmouth, Albany, Corvallis and the surrounding communitles, congregated approximately 600 such workers in the incompleted sports palace Wednesday afternoon and dug up a total of $710.40 by passing the hat, and turned it over to Col. George C. Ferch, second in command at the post, and Capt. Frank C. Wimer, special service officer who is in charge of the rapidly expanding sports program. The money will be used to purchase athletic equipment for the fighting men while in Wimer himself is an ex-coach of 21 years experience out of West Virginia, having mentored football at the Elkins, West Virginia, high school. He proudly relates that "one of his boys" while at the school was Marshall Goldberg, later an All-American while under Jock Sutherland at the U of Pittsburgh.

But getting back to the athletic funds and donations, Wimer and his staff are highly optimistic over the program they're gradually lining up, and would like it made clear that any and all athletic equipment not being used by civilians in these parts would certainly be heartily accepted if sent to the camp.

DAV Boxing Okehed

It was also Col. Ferch who told Cards 5. Cincy U Capt. Wimer to give all the co-Amateur Boxing Championships plan we told you about Sunday.

From this angle it now looks as if Salem fight fans will get to sit in on the swingin' servicemen battles this fall and winter. as the Colonel's nod was all Flax needed to start lining up the VFW weekly cards at the Salem Armory.

Two Gone Did It

Never was a case of just how valuable two men can be to a ball club any more stressed than right here on the Salem Solon nine. With Bill Johnson on one end of the infield and Jack Richards on the other, despite poor pitching, Salem had a ball club of the "not bad" variety. But since Johnson left and Richards was still trying to get into the Navy up to Wednesday night's game, the Senators have literally blown all to pieces, winning only one game out of

The last home series against Spokane, with Bill and Jack in the lineup, the team won six of nine. They left and so did the wins, a six lost and one wen percentage being all there was the

Richards has been due back in the lineup any day now, and perhaps with his return will come some Senator wins. As only 13 more home games remain on the Geo. E. Waters slate, it would be sort of nice for the boys to bounce back and end it all with a few wins, regardless of the late June and July plague. If they don'twell, they'll have tried anyway. Rookie Macon Slings Two-Hitter as Cubs Finally Finish Tilt

BROOKLYN, Aug. 5 -(P)-Rookie Max Macon pitched twohit shut-out ball Wednesday night as the Brooklyn Dodgers overpowered the New York Giants 4 to 0 in a twilight game before 23,232 fans at Ebbets Field. The contest was run off in 1 hour and 51 minutes, easily beating the dimout deadline which had halted the two rivals two straight nights at the Polo Grounds.

Macon, the southpaw whom the Dodgers recalled from their Montreal farm club at the start of their last western trip, held the Giants hitless until the sixth inning when Mickey Witek, buried eighth in the New York batting order, belted a double against the left field fence.

However, this did not disturb Macon and he retired the Giants order from that point until two in order from that point until two were out in the ninth when Dick Bartell dribbled a tricky grounder which shortstop Pee Wee Reese had difficulty fielding just back Kimbrough to had difficulty fielding just back of second base and which was scored as a single. Macon faced only 29 men.

It was the first complete game for the rookie, whose only previous start was at St. Louis, where he was knocked out but got credit for winning. He had appeared three times in relief.

BOSTON, Aug. 5 -(A)- The Boston Red Sox snapped out of their recent lethargy Wednesday behind Cecil "Tex" Hughson's three-hit pitching and uncorked a 14-hit barrage to shut out the Philadelphia Athletics, 7-0.

The victory was doubly welcome since it was gained at the expense of knuckleballer Roger Wolff, who holds three straight decisions over Boston. Wolff was chased to the showers after the Sox had combed him for eight hits and five runs, four of the tallies being clustered in the fourth inning.

Hughson, after a shaky first inning, was nearly invincible. Elmer Valo nicked him for a single in the first inning but no one else came close until the seventh when Dick Siebert singled with one away. Valo collected the only other hit-a single in the ninth. It was Hughson's 13th victory, against three defeats. Tex pitched

As Salem holds the mythical "state baseball championship of Oregon" since downing both the Portland Beavers and Eugene Athletics already this season, Monday night's game will probably be called a "title" game.
