

Local Girl Tells Date She'll Wed

On Thursday afternoon at the family home on Court street, Miss Harriet Crawford entertained a group of 35 friends at an informal party.

During the afternoon Miss Crawford told of her engagement to Mr. Alan A. Siewert, and revealed the date of their wedding as August 15.

Miss Crawford, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry R. Crawford, attended Salem high school, and St. Helen's Hall. She later attended Willamette university for a year and was a member of Beta Chi, she then continued studies at University of Oregon, where she was a member of Delta Delta Delta.

Mr. Siewert, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Siewert, is a graduate of Salem high school and of University of Oregon. He is now in the army air corps reserve and is taking training at Klamath Falls. He is a member of Delta Tau Delta.

The wedding will be performed at the First Methodist church in Klamath Falls and will be attended by the parents of the bridal couple and Mr. and Mrs. Lee Crawford and family.

Basket Social Clever Party

A clever dinner party was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Norval Edwards on Tuesday night, when guests arrived with basket lunches to auction off in "box social" style. Beans were the legal tender, but served to give interest to choosing dinner partners.

Attending the party were Mr. and Mrs. Paul Heath, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Follis, Mr. and Mrs. William McClary, Mr. and Mrs. Emmett Kleinke, Mr. and Mrs. William DePew, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Mapes, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Earnest, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm Mitchell, Miss Arlene Stanton, Mr. Bob Houser, Mr. and Mrs. Edwards.

Mr. and Mrs. B. E. Edwards, Mrs. Roy Harlan, Mrs. E. W. Harlan, Marilyn and Carol Harlan went on Wednesday to their summer place on the Metolius river. On Sunday they will be joined by their husbands and additional guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Young (Marjorie Metzger) are the parents of a daughter, born on Thursday morning in Eugene. She is the granddaughter of Mrs. A. W. Metzger of Salem.

The Eleri class of the First Baptist church will have a ravioli dinner at the church at 7 o'clock tonight. A business meeting and program will follow.

Mrs. Raymond Bonesteel and Mrs. James Humphreys spent Thursday in Portland visiting several former Salem residents now living in Portland.

Miss Frances Milotte arrived from San Francisco and will be the guest of her sister, Mrs. H. G. Smith for several weeks.

SMITHFIELD—Of interest to this community is the marriage last Thursday evening of Edna McCrow now of Portland, and Wilford Hinnam, now of Vancouver, Wash. Miss McCrow received her schooling here and resided on the Smith ranch for years. Now she owns a Beauty salon in Portland. Mr. Hinnam received his schooling here and at Dallas. He lived on the Paul Damewood place or what is now known as the H. W. Wall place. He is now employed at the Vancouver shipyards.

Their marriage took place at the Vancouver First Christian church with Rev. Dan Slicke of Portland officiating.

The bride wore pale blue lace with white orchid corsage and blue and white accessories. Her sister, Virginia McCrow of Tillamook, was her only attendant and wore a pink dress with matching corsage and accessories.

Mr. Hinnam chose as best man, his brother-in-law, Albert Fern of Dallas.

They will reside at Portland.

She's Officer's Bride . . .

Another popular Salem girl to join the ranks of army wives, is Frances Nadine Orcutt, who becomes Mrs. Jess Anthony Nunn on July 31 in Columbus, Georgia. The wedding was performed in the parsonage garden of the First Baptist church at midnight by Rev. John L. Waldrop. The bride was attended by Miss Elizabeth Howe of Washington, DC and Lieutenant Nunn's best man was Lieutenant Gustave Witt of Tacoma. The bride was attired in a beige tulle with brown accessories, and wore a gardenia corsage. A reception at the Ralston hotel followed the ceremony, and later the couple went to Fayetteville, North Carolina where they will live.

Both the young people were popular Willamette university students. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Orcutt and the groom is the son of Mrs. J. M. Coburn. While a student at Willamette university, Lieutenant Nunn was a member of Alpha Psi Delta. Mrs. Nunn was active in the art department and was vice-president of the Delta Phi sorority during her senior year and was also secretary of the class her last year. The groom recently graduated from officers' training at Ft. Benning.

STAYTON—A surprise going-away handkerchief shower was given Miss Madeline Morgan Tuesday night at the home of Miss Rosella Bell, Miss Dorothy Tate being co-hostess.

Guests included Misses Lorraine Albus, Stayton; Velma Yeoman, Independence; Betty Provost, Barbara Viesto, Mary Bennett, Marjorie Bergsvik, all of Salem and Willamette collegemates of the honor guest. Miss Morgan is awaiting sailing orders, having accepted a teaching position at a girl's school near Honolulu.

FAIR VIEW—Complimenting Mrs. Paul Fruck and Mrs. Edward May of McMinnville a double shower for the sisters was held Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ross Rogers. There were 25 relatives and friends present. Mrs. Fruck was Miss Eleanor Compton and Mrs. May was Miss Myrtle Compton before their marriage. A varied program was given. Refreshments of sandwiches, cookies, coffee and punch were served.

Pattern

"I want a two-piecer that has a different look!" Here it is—in an Anne Adams Pattern, 4138. This style is neat, trim and simple, yet is subtly feminine in the shaping of the optional collar and in the scallops at the front of jacket hem. The slim skirt has an inverted pleat.

Pattern 4138 is available in misses' sizes 12, 14, 16, 18, 20. Size 16 takes 3 3/8 inch fabric.

Send 16 cents for this Anne Adams pattern. Write plainly size, name, address and style number. Be smartly patriotic—with our Summer Pattern Book. Here are fabric-saving, distinctive styles for every occasion; every age. And each design is easy enough for beginners. Send 10 cents for your copy!
