No Banana Priority for Her

Suffering from celiac, a rare nutritional disease which calls for a banana diet, Helen Gottlieb, 15 months, is shown in the arms of Patrolman Andrew Radtke after the policeman had brought her a bunch of bananas, hard to get in these days of war. The United Fruit company of New York has announced it would make every effort to see that celiac patients were well supplied. The child's mother, who put in the emergency call for bananas, is at left.
