Coast Guard Takes the Offensive

Abandoning their traditional role of rescuers, coast guard recruits in training at the newly established station near Battle Creek, Mich., are taught to take the offensive in "commando" style. Above, a landing party, practicing on the shores of a small lake, charges "enemy" positions ashore. The guardsmen are being trained at three camps in the Battle Creek area, the first such camps ever established inland. (Associated Press Telegrams).

Young Folk In Charge

Presbyterian Church Sunday Program Has Youth Night Feature
Youth night will feature the Sunday evening church service at First Presbyterian. The young people who will take part are Glennis Allen, invocation; Jean Driggs, prayer; Ellen Kerns, scripture reading; Cameron McDonald, announcements; and Joan Lockhead, the benediction.

A young people's sextette composed of Glennis Allen, Lois Barwick, Myrtle Melers, Elizabeth McGee, Barbara Williams and Patricia Wolcott is to sing, Virginia Ward Elliott will sing "Teach Me to Pray" by Jewitt.

The pastor will speak on the theme "A Little Member That Boasteth Great Things." Immediately following the young people will adjourn to the social hall for the monthly mixer and closing fellowship.

At the 11 o'clock morning worship hour, the pastor, Rev. W. Irvin Williams, will officiate and speak on the sermon subject, "We Preach... Christ Jesus as Lord." The lesson will deal with the subject of the statement, and the modern Christian's attitude and understanding of it. Virginia Ward Elliott will sing, "God is a Spirit" by Scott.

The usual custom of registering soldier guests will be continued, and every man registering will have a letter mailed to his home residence acknowledging his participation in the service.

County Asks Few Draft Deferments

The Marion county court is not considering asking for deferment of a large number of county employees from draft induction, Judge Grant Murphy indicated Friday.

"The court itself has asked for only one deferment—for the county clerk," Judge Murphy said. "It's up to the other county officers as to what they want to do in their departments."

Judge Murphy said the county government as far as he knew had not been handicapped by calls to military or industrial service.

Final 12 Essential Industry Classifications Given, Draft

Of the 24 industrial employment classifications listed as "essential" as to the war effort by selective service and war manpower officials, 12 appeared in Friday's Statesman. The remaining 12, with their various subdivisions, are given below:
