At 8:30 the ladies entertained their husbands and families at a no-host dinner on the lawn. Sixty guests were present. The Sterling and Amica guild girls presented a play and led the devotions. Miss Jean Barham sang.

Musicians to Be Heard

Mary Schultz Duncan, Salem violinist and Maude Ross Sardan, Portland pianist, are scheduled to present a 15 minute program today on KOIN at 5:30 o'clock.

This is one of the Portland School of Music's (formerly Elison White) regular radio programs. Both Mrs. Duncan and Mrs. Sardan are on the school faculty.

Party Plans For Week

A swimming party at Olinger playground pool at 8 o'clock Monday night and another dance at the fairgrounds Wednesday night are on the week's calendar for Junior Hostesses and army men stationed in the Salem area.

Members of the hostess group planning to attend the Monday night swim are to register at USO-Hostess league headquarters so that party arrangements may be made accordingly.

Miss Beth Siewert and Miss Frances Kells are spending the weekend on the University of Washington campus in Seattle, as the guests of Miss Mary Elizabeth Kells. Saturday night they attended the Showboat theatre and saw their hostess play the part of the Fairy Princess in "Midsummer Night's Dream."

Mrs. Alvin Stewart will be hostess on Tuesday at her home, 200 Culver street, to members of the Missouri Ladies auxiliary. A covered dds luncheon will be served at 1 o'clock.

The American War Mothers are planning a covered dish luncheon at the home of Mrs. Ben Taylor at 2096 State street at 12:30 on Tuesday.

MONMOUTH—Mrs. Forrest DeLapp entertained at luncheon Thursday complimenting her aunt, Mrs. Mae Prescott of Redmond. Covers were placed for Mrs. Prescott, Mrs. Henry Marsden of Beaverton, Mrs. Marsden DeLapp, Salem; Mrs. A. H. Craven and the hostess of Monmouth.

Perry Burton Arant of Whittier, Cal., is the guest of his brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Emerson, Mr. Arant, a native of Monmouth, is a music teacher and composer. He expects to spend this year in Oregon.

Don't Look Now..

but . . . boys can't be fooled on cookies, even soldier boys. It's rumored that some store variety found their way into the cookie jar, a new fixture at the USO-Hostess league office, and patronage fell off. Can't blame the hostesses, there's a limit to every woman's culinary endurance, but more women should bring cookies to the office at the Senator hotel. It's not too big a service to offer.

History repeats . . . The minister, Rev. W. S. Gordon of Portland, who married Jeanette Landon and Ensign Thomas Bruce Blair on August 2, also married the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Landon that many years ago, her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Varley, and her cousins, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. DePew. Her wedding only missed her cousin's fifth anniversary by a day.

But a marryin' person . . . is Robert Hutchinson for sure. Look how he has been spending his spare time this weekend.

Like Salem . . . A couple on their way home from Portland picked up some soldiers last weekend en route from Ft. Lewis, "home." Upon inquiry the couple found that the soldiers had been stationed here and came back weekends because it seemed like home. They were complimentary to Salem, they like it and the people, and that's pretty good for our town, which some people say is snobbish.

Waiting at the church . . . life is topsy turvy. It used to be the bride who waited for the groom. The other night the train that was to take Nadine Orcutt to Columbus, Ga., to marry Anthony Nunn, was late and bride kept groom, minister and guests waiting until after midnight. A bright full moon furnished light for the late wedding when the bride finally arrived and the parsonage garden proved a delightful setting.

After the bowl . . . Society and sports are in close proximity in a newspaper office, although far removed—shall we say—esthetically. Between bridal write-ups all week we've seen the tide rise and ebb in the sports department. All week it's been, "convict will pitch . . . huge crowds . . . benefit games . . . thousands of dollars . . . rah rah . . . bigger crowds . . . national excitement"—then, "lifer can't pitch . . . judge says no . . . busted bubble . . . small crowds." Cheer up little baseball fans, settle back and see your nightly games before Gen. DeWitt's curfew rings and remember that your sports editor at least was king for a day . . . Maxine Buren.

Church Women To Meet

Daughters to Have Session

The Catholic Daughters of America will hold their August meeting at the home of Mrs. Joe McCormick at 2185 Myrtle avenue on August 12 at 7 o'clock with a no-host picnic. Members are asked to bring their own table service.

The Deaconess Hospital auxiliary will hold a no-host luncheon at Olinger field at 1 o'clock Monday afternoon. The regular business session will begin at 2 o'clock. The picnic is held to celebrate the completion of the payments on a dishwashing machine purchased for the hospital. In charge of the picnic will be Mesdames Nettie Roberts, J. J. Nunn, Milton Stewart, and Herman Lafky. Mrs. E. F. Wiens will give the devotions. August 13 is the next sewing day for the hospital.
