

DeMille Film Is On at Elsinore

"Reap the Wild Wind" Is Rowdy, Gusty Film

Cecil B. DeMille has done it again! His rowdy, gusty film "Reap the Wild Wind" which opened Saturday at the Elsinore theatre in technicolor is in the DeMille tradition and it immediately established itself as a hit. While acting honors go to the trio of stars, Ray Milland, Paulette Goddard and John Wayne, the main credit must go to DeMille himself. It bears his unmistakable "touch," weech only the old master himself is able to impart to a picture.

"Reap the Wild Wind" is a tale told of America's fight to rid the Florida Keys of piratical wreckers who preyed on the lifeline of windjammer merchant marine in the 1840's. DeMille's 66th picture under the Paramount banner, the present truly great film need make no obeisance to any of its predecessors. It outstrips them all for conception, photography and story. It's drama any way you look at it.

In the supporting cast, Raymond Massey plays the heavy villain, King Cutler, chief of the wreckers. Lynne Overman portrays his mortal enemy, Robert Preston, Susan Hayward, Charles Bickford, Martha O'Driscoll, Walter Hampden, Janet Beecher and Louise Beavers do magnificently by their appointed roles.

Childish Plot Causes Mischief

Weaving its delightful story around the efforts of a newspaperman to write the great American novel and at the same time carry the torch for a beautiful secretary, "Obliging Young Lady" features little Joan Carroll, Edmond O'Brien and Ruth Warrick.

Bristling with gasty and breezy dialogue, the amusing story unfolds principally at a picturesque mountain hotel where the pretty secretary of a prominent attorney is staying with the 8-year-old daughter of wealthy parents who are battling over her custody in the courts. Also to the hotel comes Red Reddy, an ace reporter who has quit his job to write a novel.

"Obliging Young Lady" starting today at the Hollywood theatre was produced for RKO Radio, with a supporting cast consisting of Eve Arden, Robert Smith, and Franklin Pangborn.

Officers to Have Discarded Homes

SUVER—A my officers have inspected all the houses in the Valley View community and some in other communities near and state that all are to be lived in by army officers. Several farmers who tried to buy their houses were denied the privilege.

Several of the farmers, including Mr. and Mrs. B. R. Douglas have been told that they do not have to move until September 1, although a few must be out by Aug. 15. Carl Linegar received formal notice to move on or before October 1.

Club Votes Donation

MONMOUTH—Sunbeam Circle, Neighbors of Woodcraft, No. 570, Monmouth, voted a $10 cash contribution to the recreation center at their August meeting.

"SPECTACULAR" AND "EPIC" are much overworked words but they apply to "Reap the Wild Wind" produced by Cecil B. DeMille, now showing at the Elsinore theatre. Paulette Goddard is the heroine.

Storm Gives Many Scares

PARKERSVILLE—Last Monday's lightning storm came near being serious in this community. C. M. VanZugen who was separating milk in their milk house when lightning came through the open door striking the separator and running along it into VanZugen's foot which was burned slightly. Four other people were in the room at the time, none of them being injured.

During the same storm Ray Miller, who was leading against the combine in the field when it was struck by lightning, was knocked down and was unconscious for several minutes but uninjured.

Lumber is being delivered for Joseph Zellner to rebuild a barn which was destroyed by fire earlier this spring.

Miss Bertha Miller who is employed at Dallas hospital is at her home here on vacation.

Red Cross Work Kept Underway

PERRYDALE — The Bethel Women's club met at the home of Mrs. Robert Mitchell on Thursday afternoon. The members did not discontinue summer meetings because they wanted to keep the Red Cross work under way. Each member returned a finished garment.

No business meeting was held as none of the officers were present. Others present were Mrs. August Rhode, Mrs. Glen Martin, Mrs. Glen Stevenson, Mrs. George Shields and Mrs. Fred Jennings. Mrs. Ralph Kester was a guest of Mrs. Mitchell.

Mrs. William Byerle entertained a group of children in honor of her small daughter, Loretta's, sixth birthday Wednesday afternoon. Those present were Mrs. Harold Stapleton and children, Luella Zumwalt and the nine children who are spending the summer at the home of Mrs. Mamie Yoackum. Mrs. Roger McKinney assisted Mrs. Byerle serve the group.

DR. PAINLESS PARKER SAYS: "Next to the common cold, tooth infection exacts the heaviest toll. Save man-hours in war plants by seeing to it that costly layoffs are avoided. Visit a dentist and have your teeth put in sound state of repair."

Accepted credit to serve family requirements

Use your credit to take care of the dental needs of your wife and children. They need not wait until your work is finished, but can start visits right away. Just continue the payments in the same weekly or monthly amounts after your own contract is fulfilled.

TRANSPARENT DENTAL PLATES

New lightweight, time-tested plates that harmonize with individual features. Natural-colored gums and clear palate that reflect tissues of mouth. Made with the improved TRANSPARENT material all dentists recommend for its accurate reproduction.

SELECT TEETH WITH COLOR GUIDE TO MATCH YOUR OWN

Translucent teeth for dental plates are the latest discovery of porcelain chemistry. They have the soft diffused color and lustre of fine natural teeth, and can be obtained in the hue and irregular contours of your present teeth. Because these artificial teeth have a capacity to absorb and reflect light as human teeth, they add a more realistic appearance to dental plates, make them difficult to detect.
