Jobless Fund At New High, 22 Million

Peak collections in excess of $3,000,000 in the past 30 days, contrasting with July benefits of $43,871, lowest monthly payments yet issued, have increased the trust fund of the state unemployment compensation commission to $22,850,000, a gain of nearly $9,000,000 or 64 per cent in the last year, officials reported Wednesday.

Contributions during 1942 have exceeded the $8,000,000 mark. Taxes paid during 1941 were $8,797,855.

Emergency labor demands have reduced unemployment claims to about 700 a week. For the year payments are $1,575,915, a decrease of $366,343 from the same period of 1941. July benefits dropped 75 per cent from last year's $171,602.

Officials said that while the trust fund has gone well above earlier estimates of a safe reserve, increased employment has nearly doubled the liability for benefits in case of a post-war slump or a temporary production let down.
