Charles Sempke, Seattle, was elected vice-president; the Rev. F. R. Witmer, Yakima, pastor counselor, and the Rev. Lyle H. Willard, Seattle, reelected secretary of the church conference.

Maxine Underhill, Salem, was chosen secretary of the young people's union, and Mary Phyllis Plowman, Mapleton, executive advisor.

Portland Schools May Overflow

PORTLAND, Aug. 13.—(P)—Probability that classrooms in some Portland schools will be "impossibly overcrowded" because of the new industrial worker population was seen Thursday by school officials.

Supt. Ralph E. Dugdale said that at least 2800 new pupils will be enrolled this fall, most of them in concentrated areas near shipyards.

As a result, the school board is seeking federal aid to provide additional housing and teachers.

A DIFFERENT DESK EVERY DAY!

There are no armchair reporters in Wide World News, AP's great associate service.

Wide World writers travel thousands of miles every week to get their news at the source for this and 1400 other Associated Press newspapers. Take current assignments of just five Wide World writers pictured here on the job.

Don Whitehead: flying 5,000 miles to gather firsthand the story of Canada's war effort... Sigrid Arne: only woman reporter to travel over Alaska's new military highway, touring western mines doing war work... Gladwin Hill: roving the west and southwest for unusual and colorful features... Bill Boni, Wide World military editor, visiting dozens of army camps, airfields, war plants describing America's growing war might... Science Editor Howard W. Blakeslee: constantly on the go covering the science front.

And there are many more out to get the facts, the stories behind the news, for Wide World: John Ferris, Mark Barron, George Zielke, Ted Gill, Stephen J. McDonough, Frank I. Weller, James Marlow, David J. Wilkie, Trudi McCullough, Wide World war columnists, Kirke L. Simpson and DeWitt Mackenzie, to mention a few.
