

Dallas Plans Service Club

DALLAS—Mayor Lief S. Finseth announced at the last city council meeting in Dallas that appointment of an executive committee on recreation for men in the armed services had been made. The committee members are Hollis S. Smith, chairman, L. J. Smith, V. O. Williams, George Woerth, Fred Stinnett, Mrs. J. C. Tracy, Mrs. Eric Fulgham, Mrs. Roy Donahue, Mrs. Romeny Robinson, Mrs. Cecil F. Dunn and Mrs. Oscar Hayter.

The committee was appointed in connection with the opening of a service men's recreation center in the army. Army regulations provide that such civic efforts be conducted by official city committees.

The first official act of the new committee was to authorize the cleanup and redecoration of the their home. They also visited their son, Richard Krenz at the forest service camp; near Silver Creek falls. Richard is recovering from an accident suffered Tuesday in which he hurt his hand.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Doerfler of Powell Butte were looking after their farm property here Sunday. The former returned to central Oregon, Monday and Mrs. Doerfler and daughter, Mary Linda are remaining here for the week. Mrs. M. M. Gilmour accompanied her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. George Lovett of Silverton to McMinnville, Sunday, where they visited another daughter, Mrs. Argus Pearson, who is convalescing following a major surgery.

Klamath Family Visits

JEFFERSON—Mr. and Mrs. James Blackwell and two children of Klamath Falls spent the weekend visiting at the home of his mother, Mrs. Maud Epley.

Assess Costs Of Street Work

WOODBURN—The city of Woodburn is now preparing to assess the costs of Hardcastle and Gatch street improvements against the property owners along those two streets.

The Hardcastle bills so far total $3109.34. A bill from the county is yet to come in for hauling gravel, 222 yards, from Monitor. For Gatch street job bills total $814.09. The Gatch street improvement involves approximately 2840 front feet and the improved part of Hardcastle is about 3100 front feet.

Property owners pay for materials, cost of hauling materials, and engineering costs up to five per cent. The city has had to pay for all grading not done by the WPA.

Fellowship Dinner Is Held Sunday afternoon

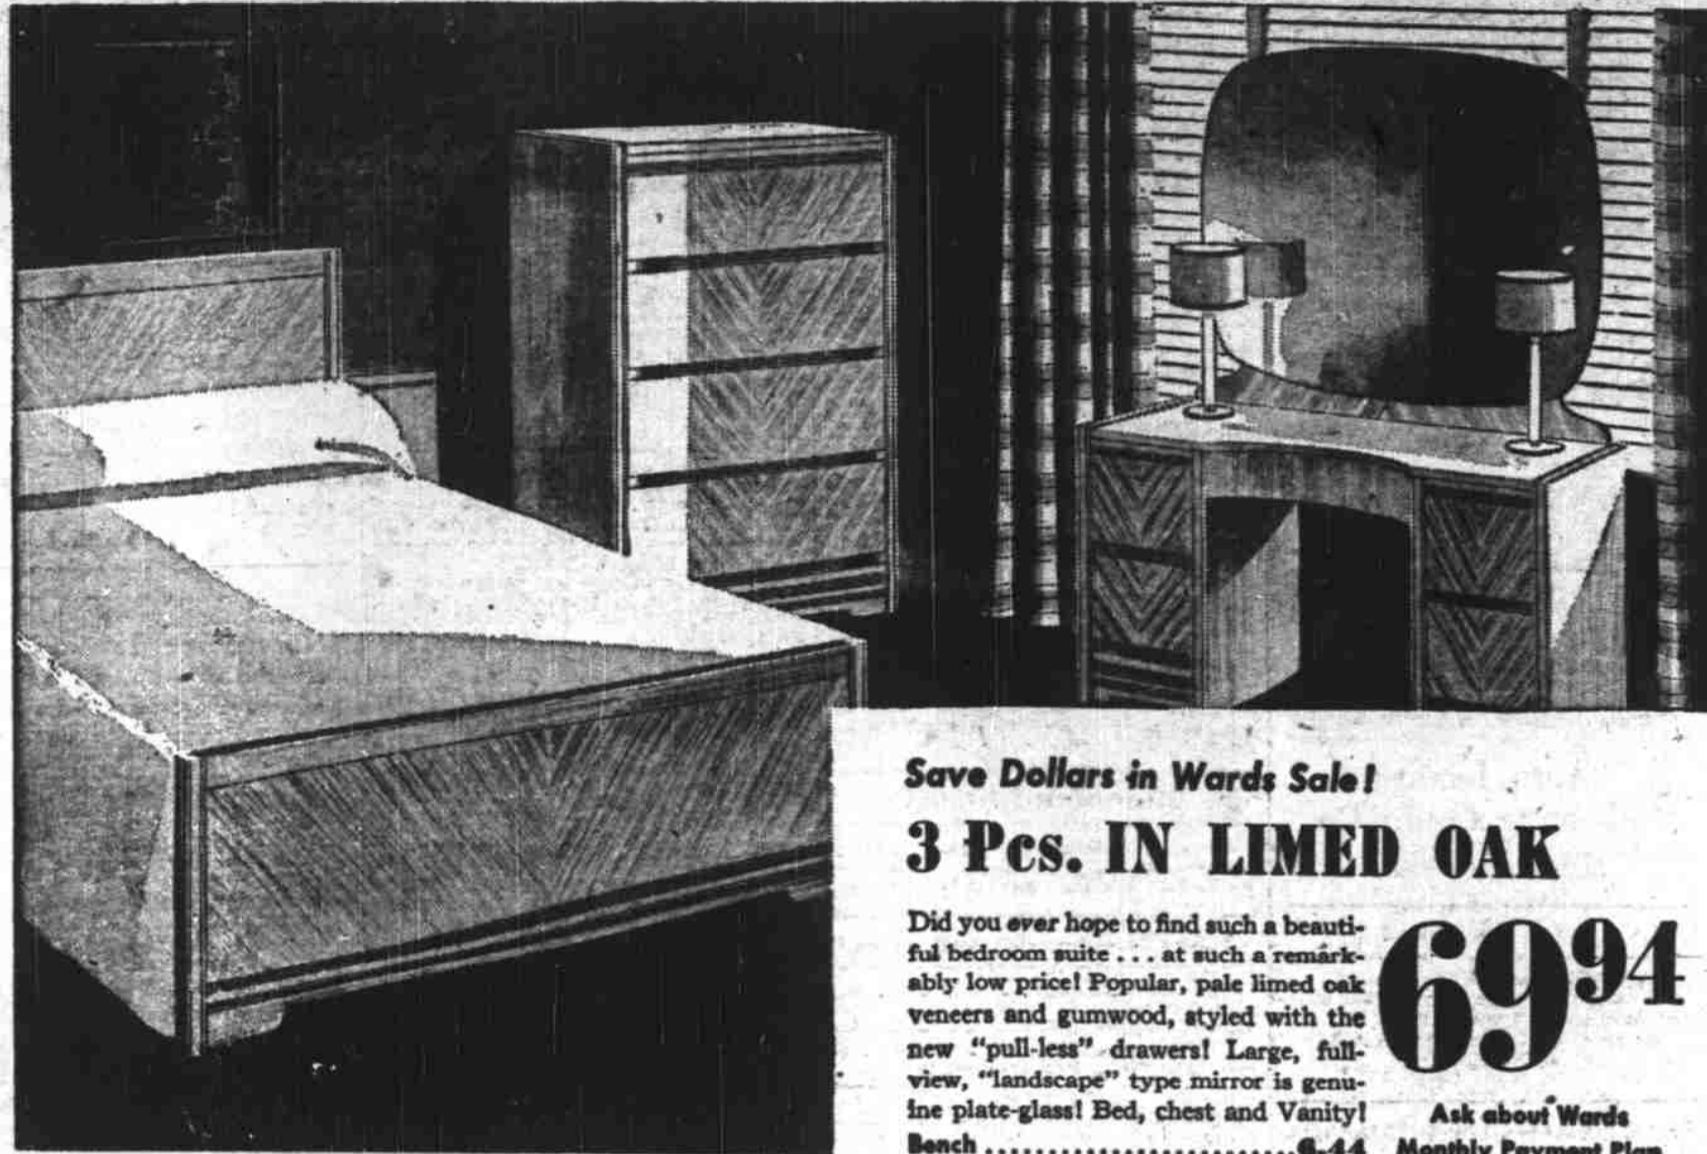

JEFFERSON—Forty members and friends of the Evangelical church enjoyed a fellowship dinner Sunday, following the morning worship services. Tables were placed under the shade trees on the school grounds for the occasion. The dinner was given honoring Rev. and Mrs. William Elmer, who left Monday for their new pastorate at Corvallis.
