Salmon Idea Utilizes Biscuit

Chopped parsley is gay accessory to the biscuit topping for fish dishes. The added flavor is excellent with seafoods, and the tiny sprigs of green give a pleasing color effect. Add one tablespoon of chopped parsley for each cup of flour in a standard biscuit recipe. It's the latest style in biscuit toppings, and in biscuits served "solo" with fall meals.

Make a salmon pie by combining flaked salmon, peas, and a thick white sauce. Season well, and top with drop biscuits. Bake in moderately hot oven (400 degrees F.) until the biscuits are browned.

Individual casseroles of scalloped fish go high hat when served with fancy shaped biscuits. The cutters from a bridge cookie set gives the biscuits their shape.

Flaked tuna fish combined with white sauce and served on crisp brown toast or flaky biscuits makes good fall eating. Mincing green pepper, chopped hard-cooked egg and cut-up pimiento are delightful flavor-colored additions to the a la king.

Meatless meals call for salmon squares. Combine 1/4 cup chopped celery, 1/4 cup peas, 1 cup flaked drained salmon, and 2 chopped hard-cooked eggs. Roll out biscuit dough 1/4 inch thick and cut into 4-inch squares. Place spoonful of salmon mixture in each square, bring corners together, and seal. Bake on ungreased baking sheet in moderately hot oven (425 degrees) about 15 minutes. They are delicious served with egg sauce.

Fondue Makes Main Dish

Cheese serves a dual purpose when it goes into fondue, for it makes a meat substitute and uses up leftover bread.

CHEESE FONDUE

Mix together 1 cup bread cubes, 3/4 cup grated cheese, 1 cup hot milk, 3 beaten eggs, 2 tablespoons melted butter, 1/2 cup chopped salted peanuts, 1/4 teaspoon salt and 1/4 teaspoon paprika. Pour into buttered baking dish and bake 35 minutes in moderately slow oven (325).

Today's Menu

Friday, and we'll have a meat substitute today.

- Sliced tomatoes and Crab salad
- Neapolitan macaroni
- Buttered green beans
- Fried sponge cake
- Peach sauce

NEAPOLITAN MACARONI:

Add 2/3 cup sliced or grated cheese to 2 cups well seasoned white sauce. Add 3 cups cooked macaroni, 2 sliced hard-cooked eggs and 1 tablespoon chopped parsley. Pour into a buttered, shallow baking dish and bake 35 minutes in a moderate oven. Enough to serve 5.
