

WOMEN'S

Society * Clubs * Music

The Oregon Statesman

SECTION

Campus Preview . . .

Willamette university, opening on September 21, will attract many Salem high school graduates to its doors this year. Pictured on this page are a few of the Salem girls who will register as freshmen.

In the upper left picture, a group of girls sip cokes on a pleasant spot on the campus. Left to right are Laura Jean Bates, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Arthur Bates, Virginia Case, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Case, and Margaret Hughlett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Hughlett.

In the circle, Roberta Jean Yocom, daughter of the Roy A. Yocom and Anita Jarman, granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Jarman, sit on the newly dedicated granite boulder presented by the Salem Geographical society.

In the center photo, three fashion minded co-eds look at a favorite magazine. Left to right are Marianne Low, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Low; Patricia Lamb, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wilmer Lamb, and Marjorie Hill, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Hill.

The girl in the lower lefthand picture who is trying out the library steps, is Betty Randall, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe H. Randall.

In the lower righthand picture, Janice Patterson, daughter of Frank E. Patterson, and Maxine Wagner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Wagner, admire the pillars, which play an important part in Willamette's traditional May day festivities. (All photos by Ralph Schlesinger).

Reception Planned . . .

Members of the First Methodist church are going to officially welcome Dr. and Mrs. George Herbert Smith to Salem and to the church next Friday night when they are hosts at a reception from 8 to 10 o'clock in the church.

The reception will be to honor Dr. and Mrs. J. C. Harrison, as well as the new university president and his wife. Dr. Harrison will serve again as pastor of the church.

Mrs. Ted Ullakko will introduce to the line. Besides Dr. and Mrs. Smith and Dr. and Mrs. Harrison the following will be in the receiving line, Dr. and Mrs. Herbert Rahe, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Winslow and Dr. and Mrs. Robert Moulton Gaithe.

Mrs. Melvin Geist is arranging a program of music which will include several numbers sung by Dean Geist and several other music groups. Mrs. Henry Carl is in charge of the decorations and Mrs. E. O. Welling of refreshments.

Dr. and Mrs. M. C. Findley, Mr. and Mrs. Brown Sisson and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bennett will assist about the rooms. Dr. Herbert Rahe will give the address of welcome.

A Welcome . . .

Mrs. George Herbert Smith, wife of the new president of Willamette university, will be honored at an informal reception at the Alpha Phi Alpha chapter house, 965 Court street on Wednesday night.

Active members of the chapter will be hostesses to their mothers, wives of faculty members, freshmen girls and their mothers, alumnae, members of the mothers club and patronesses of Alpha Phi Alpha. Hours are from 8 to 9:30 o'clock.

Miss Betty Provost will greet guests at the door, and Miss Donna Savage will introduce to the line. With Mrs. Smith in the receiving line will be Miss Olivia Olson, president of the chapter, Mrs. W. E. Kirk, house mother, and Mrs. Bruce Carlin, president of the Salem Alumnae association.

Among those assisting about the rooms will be Miss Mary Bennett, Miss Janet Blake, Miss Barbara Viesko, Miss Dorothy Tate, Miss Jean Carlin and Miss Virginia Loop.

The committee in charge of the affair includes Miss Betty Provost, Miss Mary Bennett and Miss Donna Savage.

A Tea Today . . .

This afternoon a tea will open the rushing season for Beta Chi sorority on the Willamette university campus. The tea is scheduled for this afternoon from 4 to 6 o'clock and will be at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Douglas McKay on Jerris avenue.

Girls who plan to enter Willamette university this term, and their mothers, are invited to attend.

The party will also serve as an introduction of Mrs. George Herbert Smith, wife of the university's new president, to the members of Beta Chi and to the new students and their mothers.

Miss Jane Cameron and Miss Aileen Hutchinson will greet guests at the door. Miss Shirley McKay will introduce to the line, which will include Mrs. George Herbert Smith, Miss Eleanor Trindle, Beta Chi alumnae president, Mrs. Dwight Lear, house mother, and Miss Suzanne Schram, house manager.

Pouring will be Mrs. Charles A. Sprague, Miss Beryl Holt, Miss Lelia Johnson and Mrs. Melvin Geist. Active members of the chapter will assist about the rooms.