Rails Attract Main Interest

Hesitant; Average Climbs .1 Point Leaders Irregular,

NEW YORK, Sept. 14 .- (AP)-The stock market remained a highly selective affair Monday with rails and scattered specialties attracting mild buying while many leaders shifted over a narrowly irregular

Commodities out on a modest rally when an anti-inflation measure was introduced in the senate giving the president wide control over general prices and wages but stipulating in effect floors under farm staples.

Hesitantcy ruled the stock division from the start. Dealings, on the whole, were sluggish although activity in several low-quoted issued helped put the day's turn-over at 312,510 shares against 376,460 in the previous 5 - hour session. The Associated Press average of 60 stocks was up .1 of a point at 36.7.

International Telephone Common was the liveliest stock performer, coming out in one block of 14,000 shares. It finished up 1/4 at 3%, best mark since 1941. US Distributing Preferred resumed its climb with gain of 11/2 points at an 11-year top. Third Avenue railway also edged into the new high Produce Exchange column with a plus sign of % at

In front were Santa Fe, NY Central, Southern Pacific, Union Pacific, Chesapeake & Ohio, Baltimore & Ohio, Pepsi-Cola, Loew's, Pitsburgh Coal, Eastman Kodak US Steel, Bethlehem, Western Union, Kennecott and American Can.
