

'Haven't Done Anything Yet' Sez Southworth

By OSCAR KAHAN
 ST. LOUIS, Sept. 24—(P)—A certain tie for the National league pennant meant absolutely nothing to the St. Louis Cardinals Thursday and there was no celebrating when the players filed into the clubhouse after their tie-clinching victory over the Cincinnati Reds. "Celebrate!" said Manager Billy Southworth, "What for? We haven't done anything yet. That was an understatement typical of Southworth because what the Cardinals actually have done is win 41 of their last 50 games, whipping out a 10-game Brooklyn lead in their amazing rush to first place. The Cards now have a 2½ game margin that assures them of at least a tie even if they lose their remaining two games. However, not a single Cardinal player mentioned "the pennant" in the dressing room. Apple-cheeked Morton Cooper, who pitched the 6-0 triumph over the Reds for his 22nd victory and his tenth shutout, quietly said, "Good work, fellows," and there was a responding chorus of "Good work, Mort."

Young Harry Walker, who played centerfield, shook the big pitcher's hand and grinned, "I don't see why we get you more than one run. That's all you need."

Giants, Phils Split; Adams Equals Record

NEW YORK, Sept. 24—(P)—The lowly Phils divided a doubleheader with the New York Giants Thursday by winning the second game, a battle of rookie pitchers, 3 to 2, after Bill Lohrman had shut them out 8 to 0 on four hits in the opener. Ace Adams pitched the ninth inning for the Giants, making his first relief appearance of the season and tying the modern major league record set by Clint Brown of the Chicago White Sox in 1939. Philadelphia .000 000 000-0 4 2 New York .501 100 100-8 11 1 Hughes, Laphuska (1), Hennessey (8) and Livingston, Bragan (5); Lohrman and Mancuso.

Grid Camp Grist

PORTLAND, Sept. 24—(P)—Oregon State's Beavers, Idaho-bound for their first 1942 defense of their Pacific Coast conference football crown, stopped here Thursday for a light workout.

Coach Lon Stiner said the squad would arrive at Moscow at 8:30 a. m. Friday and planned to take another light practice on the University of Idaho grid in the afternoon.

SEATTLE, Sept. 24—(P)—Spectators expect to see a bit of "T" formation stuff sprinkled into the University of Washington's prevailing Notre Dame style offense against the College of Pacific here Saturday. Coach Ralph "Pest" Welch, in his first year at the Washington helm, has been drilling the Huskies in variation of their Phelan-installed system. In early workouts, Welch said he intended to make "moderate use" of the T's best points, and the Pacific game is expected to be a testing ground.

PALO ALTO, Calif., Sept. 24—(P)—Bruno Banducci, star right tackle, may be able to play for a short while for Stanford against Washington State Saturday but Jim Cox will start the game, Coach Marchie Schwartz said Thursday. Banducci's injured instep has improved, but he is out of condition through a week of inactivity. Schwartz disagrees with the popular choice of the Indians as the favorite in the Saturday game. The injury-ridden Stanford team will be playing "one of the best in the conference," he said.

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 24—(P)—Book learning, or lack of it, cut into the Southern California football squad, readying for its game with Tulane Saturday. Otto Kilian, 192-pound sophomore tackle, was declared by the faculty to be shy some credits and will be ineligible for the season. His loss hit the Trojans in their weakest spot. He is the tenth tackle they have lost this year.

BERKELEY, Calif., Sept. 24—(P)—If there's anything about St. Mary's football team that should trouble Stab Allison's University of California Golden Bears Saturday, it's that passing whiz, Johnny Foderio from Modesto. In Thursday afternoon's practice, the 15th and last workout before Saturday's opener with St. Mary's here, Coach Allison tightened up on his varsity's passing defense.

Grover Klemmer, co-holder of the world's 440-yard race record, will not be in the backfield Saturday. He cracked his left hand in practice Wednesday. Bill Reinhard, left half, injured his right shoulder in Wednesday's practice and may be on the sidelines until the Oregon State game October 3.

One Letter, Two Notes, Four People

LEWISTON, Idaho, Sept. 24—(P)—If it happens once, it's a coincidence; if it happens twice, it's an epidemic.

Mrs. Ralph Wiley, Lewiston, last week wrote a letter to her husband, Pvt. Ralph Wiley, at Sheppard Field, Texas. There were two Ralph Wileys at the field and one had just been transferred to Las Vegas, Nev., so the letter was forwarded.

Private Wiley—the wrong one—opened the letter and read it before he discovered that it wasn't his. He penned an apologetic note and returned letter and note to Mrs. Wiley.

But it didn't get to Mrs. Wiley.

The letter was delivered to another Lewiston housewife with a similar name, who opened the letter by mistake. She also added a note to the letter, apologizing. Wednesday, Mrs. Wiley received two letters—one with two apologetic notes attached—and another from her husband wanting to know why she hadn't written.

Small Businessmen Seek Loan Moneys

WASHINGTON, Sept. 24—(P)—The conference of American small business organizations Thursday sought congressional support for a proposal to create a new federal corporation to lend up to $1,000,000,000 to small business concerns imperiled by inability to convert to war production and by shortages of materials for civilian consumption.

Kaiser Ready For Housing

PORTLAND, Sept. 24—(P)—Housing facilities for workmen recruited in New York by the Kaiser shipyards, will be available when the men reach here, Albert Bauer, assistant general manager at the Oregon shipbuilding corporation plant, said Thursday.

His statement was in answer to one by city commissioner William A. Boves that if 20,000 eastern workmen come here by the first of the year "they will be sleeping in the middle of the streets."

"It has always been our intention to take care of people brought here to work," Bauer said, "and there is no reason to believe that we will fall down on the job now." He said plans for housing were being prepared and that as workmen arrived there would be facilities for them.

Beauty Title Won Without Entry

PORTLAND, Sept. 24—(P)—Donna Jones won the title of "Miss Brooks Field" thanks to a soldier she has never met.

The 19-year-old University of Oregon sophomore won the beauty contest at the Texas air field because Corp. P. Ray Hymel of New Orleans, to whom she sent her picture, entered it in the competition.

Donna's mother said the first word of her daughter's winning came in a telegram from the mayor of San Antonio, Tex. Later a silver loving cup arrived bearing

Flores PCL's No. 1 Twirler

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 24—(P)—Jess Flores, lanky righthander who returned this season from the Chicago Cubs to dig his toe into the mound for Los Angeles Angels, Thursday was taking bows as champ pitcher of the Pacific Coast league.

Unofficial final season pitching averages released today reveal Flores No. 1 twirler with 14 victories and five losses for a .737 average.

The season-long strike-out struggle of Sacramento's young Blix Donnelly and Seattle's veteran Kewpie Dick Barrett ended with Barrett the leader, 177 as compared to 168.
