

Miss Moore To Wed in October

Miss Jean Moore announced her engagement and wedding date to Lt. Ollie Oville Williams at a dinner party at the Beta Chi sorority house Thursday night. Members of the sorority were guests. The news was announced to guests by means of corsages with the couple's names and the date, October 4.

Places were set for Mrs. Lear, housemother of Beta Chi sorority, Miss Lucy McIntyre, Miss Rosella Bell, Miss Miriam Jensen, Miss Jean Longley, Miss Ruth Finney, Miss Susanna Schramm, Miss Mary Jean Huston, Miss Jan Johnson, Miss Lois Phillips, Miss Pat Short, Miss Marjorie Maulding, Miss Louise Cutler, Miss Jean Wing, Miss Lois Butler, Miss Betty Andrews, Miss Joyce Harper, Miss Lois Gladden, Miss Pat Hutchinson, Miss Betty Anunson, Miss Caroline Brown, Mrs. Dean Trumbo and Mrs. Ewald Franz.

The wedding will be in the First Methodist church. Both young people attended Willamette, Miss Moore now being a senior and a member of Beta Chi. Her mother is Mrs. Jennie H. Moore. Lt. Williams is now stationed at Camp Davis, North Carolina, with the coast artillery. He is the son of Mrs. Bertha Williams of Huston, Texas. While at Willamette he played varsity football and basketball and was affiliated with Alpha Psi Delta. He will come west October 1 to be stationed at Seattle.

Mrs. Brownell Hostess

Mrs. Phil Brownell was hostess Thursday night to members of the Salem Zonta club and Miss Doris Riches now of Seattle, a former member, was assisting hostess.

Miss Genevieve Morgan was elected as delegate to the fall conference to be held in Corvallis, and Mrs. Byron B. Herrick was named alternate.

Present at the party were Miss Morgan, Miss Dorothy Pearce, Miss Helen Barrett, Miss Catherine Carthwe, Miss Lillian McDonald, Miss L. May Rauch, Miss Mabel Savage, Mrs. Rollin K. Page, Mrs. Grover Hillman, Mrs. Byron B. Herrick, Mrs. B. O. Schucking and Mrs. Margaret Rosecrans. Mrs. John Burcham was a special guest.

Engagement Told at Dinner

At a surprise announcement made on September 25, Miss Gretchen Reinhart told of her engagement and coming marriage to Mr. J. Bothwell Avilson of Portland. The news was told at a no-host dinner at the home of Dr. and Mrs. B. F. Williams. The announcement was arranged by Dr. and Mrs. Irvin Hill and made by an artist on the staff of "The Tarrytown Tattler," Oregon state hospital paper of which Miss Reinhart is directing editor. She is librarian of the hospital.

Miss Reinhart and Mr. Avilson will be married on November 7 in Pendleton.

Mrs. Croshaw Hostess

Mrs. E. T. Croshaw was hostess twice on Thursday. In the afternoon she entertained at a shower for Mrs. Norman Totton, her granddaughter. Refreshments were served to Mrs. Hattie Croshaw, Mrs. Idella Croshaw, Mrs. Edith Croshaw, Mrs. Harriet Croshaw, Mrs. Viola Langdon, Mrs. Myrtle Garrison, Mrs. Arlene Parsegian, Mrs. Louise Gogosian and Mrs. Totton.

On Thursday night, Mrs. Croshaw entertained at a family party. Honored were her grandson, Mr. Norman Totton, on his birthday, her son, Gilbert Croshaw and another grandson, Mr. Alfred Croshaw, who will soon leave in October for service. During the evening, musical numbers were given by Mrs. Lloyd Brown and David Croshaw.

A son, Thomas, was born to Mr. and Mrs. Clair Herbert of Pasadena, September 11. The child, grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Ira Herbert of Pasadena, is the first child.

If you make a fetish of fit you'll like STRYPS* UNDIES by Van Raalte

Everyone likes Stryp undies on sight anyway, for their luxurious texture and dainty designs. But it takes the woman who knows, and demands, superlative fit to fully appreciate them. Because Stryps are knitted they mold the figure with skin-like suppleness. Because they're of fine rayon, dresses and suits lie smoothly over their sleek surfaces, and the gowns mould the figure with special deftness. A wardrobe of Stryps is the fitting foundation for the simple perfection of new fall costumes.
