Lets in Winning Run; Only Two Tilts Left

By GAYLE TALBOT BROOKLYN, Sept. 25-(A) Those unpredictable Dodgers came clawing up out of the valley of the Shadow again Friday to win another extra-inning victory and carry the National league flag race right down to

Pushing over a run in the 11th inning on a glaring overthrow of home plate by Sibi Sisti — the second fatal error by the Boston Braves' second baseman in as many days—the still fighting flock scored its sixth straight triumph, 6 to 5, and retained its chance of tying the St. Louis Cardinals,

Sisti also let in what proved the winning Brooklyn run yesterday by unloosing a peg over Lombardi's head on which Camilli scored. It was becoming a habit.

Trailing the Cards by only two games Friday night, they prepared to open their final two-game series at Philadelphia Saturday, while St. Louis opposed the Chicago Cubs in their closing pair out west. Two Dodger victories and two Cardinal defeats would tie it up tighter than a drum and force a playoff next week.
