I WAS FINED FOUR CENTS AT THE PUBLIC LIBRARY FOR BRINGING A BOOK BACK TWO DAYS

Deadline for Copy Given

Club and church groups are beginning their winter meetings, and it is necessary that announcements of these events be in the Statesman office in plenty of time to be written up for the Sunday paper. Publicity committees must telephone or write their calendar notices and stories of coming meetings so that they are in the office by Friday noon. Otherwise the material will be held over for the Tuesday paper. Many chairmen write their calendar notices on postcards and see that they are in the mail by Thursday night, which proves an additional assistance to the woman's editor who appreciates them in this legible form, ready to hand to the typesetters.

Students Tell Marriages

Several Willamette university students who have returned to Salem following vacations announced their engagements and weddings in their home towns during the summer. In most cases the women have married into the armed forces and return to finish school, but one student, Mr. Kenneth Jacobsen of Vancouver, will bring his wife with him. She is the former Velda Fettis of Vancouver. They were married at a candle light ceremony at the home of her parents on September 11 in Vancouver. Mrs. Jacobsen's attendant was Miss Bernadine Indike and Richard Jacobsen acted as his brother's best man. The couple will be at home in Salem after October 1. Mr. Jacobsen is a quarterback on the Willamette football team.

sity nurse, became the bride of Mr. Lester McCullough, US army, this summer, Mrs. McCullough was formerly of Twisp, Wash,, and met her husband at a Lausanne hall dance for soldiers last year. His home is Laramie, Wyo., but he is now at Fort Riley, Kan., in officers' candidate school. The ceremony was read in the Episcopal church in Twisp with Miss Madge Leslie as her sister's attendant and Mr. Frank Gumpata as best man. From Vancouver, Miss Isabel Rawson returns as Mrs. Hugh Gilbertson Holte, following her marriage there June 6. Rev. Paul Kunzman performed the ceremony. Mr. Holte is stationed at San Diego as a third class petty officer in the navy.
