

Interest in Orchestra Shown

Almost a hundred students at the Salem high school have signed up for the band and orchestra, according to Vernon A. Wiscarson, instrumental director of the Salem public schools. Twelve majorettes have made application, from which nine will be chosen by tryouts to be announced next week.

Many students, new to Salem, will play with the band this winter, including: Don Blasbee, Glenn Johnson, Alva Johnson, Paul Gilmer, and Duane Hadley, all of Burns; Franklin Combs, French horn, from Hammond, Indiana; Dale Smith, baritone, from Utah; Carola Hays, bassoonist, from Medford; Buster Roper, cornet, from Kansas; Winona Walker, trombone, from Tillamook. About 20 new student players are from Leslie and Parrish junior high schools.

Newly elected band officers for this school year are: President, Courtney Jones; vice-president, Janice Lemmon; point secretary, Horace Beldin; recording secretary-treasurer, Betty Zo Allen, and librarian, Richard Taw. Tryouts were held and first chair players were selected this week, including: flute, Horace Beldin; oboe, Dean Allport; clarinet, Wayne Struble; cornet, Richard Taw; baritone, Robert Robins; trombone, Courtney Jones; French horn, Winsor Acton, and bassoon, Rosemary Gaiser.

Three assistant directors will be chosen by tryouts in the near future. Several students have already signed up for tryouts. Because of the dimout rules this year there will be no night football games and the band plans to play for all athletic games during the year and for assemblies and pep rallies. "Pops" concerts for the students will be given and the group will play for parades on the downtown streets and other patriotic events during the school year. The first concert will be December 15 with both band and orchestra featured on the program.

During the summer many instruments have been repaired and the following new ones added: two Scotch bass drums, a tuba, bass, string bass, cello, clarinet, oboe, two tambourines, two triangles and a French horn. Forty six have signed up for the full symphony orchestra but more cellos, violas, and string basses are needed. Classes will be organized to start more students on these instruments.

Much new band and orchestra music was purchased during the summer for this year. Featured on the first band and orchestra program will be the "Rhapsody in Blue" by Gershwin and the "Nutcracker Suite" by Tschalkowsky. The soloist in the Rhapsody will be announced later.

Mrs. Fred Smith of Los Angeles arrived Friday for a two weeks' visit at the home of her sister, Mrs. Abner K. Kline, on North Fifth street. Mr. Smith will join Mrs. Smith later and together they will return south.
