Suicide Attempted—An elderly man, who declared that with the death of his wife several months ago his interest in living had departed, was taken to a Salem hospital from the county courthouse Thursday afternoon when his second attempt at suicide within a few hours had failed. After he had tried to asphyxiate himself with gas at the home of his son during the morning, the man was taken to the courthouse, where Circuit Judge E. M. Page and the son discussed with him the suggestion that he voluntarily enter the state hospital for care. Wandering around in the judge's chambers, the patient stepped behind the high bookshelves, pulled out his pocketknife and slashed his throat. Waiting in the courtroom to see Judge Page was Don Madison, trained first aid man who rendered emergency care. The city first aid car was called to take the man to a hospital. He had not cut his jugular vein, first aid men said.

Road Vacation Advised—In a report prepared by County Engineer and Roadmaster N. C. Hubbs for this morning's road meeting of the county court, vacation of the almost unused deadend of the Burch road north of Silvertown is advised. The matter had come before the court on petition of Lillie M. Burch and others and was turned over to Hubbs for investigation. The road is little used and not needed, Hubbs' report declares, and is not worth the county's upkeep of it.

German Youth Said Won by 'Religion'
Adolf Hitler created a political religion in Germany that resulted in his youthful legions going to battle with all the fervor of the Moslem world in its conflicts with the Christian world, Otto M. Knab, one-time German newspaperman who is now with the Benedictine Press at Mt. Angel, told the Salem Lions club here Thursday noon.
Because of the instilling of this political religion, centering around "der fuehrer," into Germany's younger generations, Knab declared, "the United Nations may crush nazism as a machine, but nazism as a way of life can be destroyed by no one but the people of Germany itself."
Knab, as editor of a Catholic daily newspaper in Bavaria, saw at first hand the rise of Hitler to power, and escaped probable internment in a Nazi concentration camp by fleeing to Switzerland.
Hitler played on the hero worship of youth by posing as a savior from "public enemies" created for the purpose, from the Jews at various times, from other elements in the German states and outside them, at others, Knab said.

"There is still an honest, intelligent segment of people in Germany, and it is up to us whether ideas of political religion survive or go down to defeat in Germany," Knab concluded.

OSTA Drops Meet
