

Service Men

Promoted

Maj. Clarence E. Greig (above), whose promotion from the rank of captain in the US army was announced this week, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Greig of route seven and has two brothers in the service. Leonard Greig, first sergeant, is at Grays Harbor, while Vernon Greig, technical sergeant, is attending officers' candidate school at Camp Davis, NC. Major Greig is with the coast artillery at Fort Stevens, Ore. He is widely known here, having attended Salem schools. He was employed by the First National bank in Salem prior to his induction in September, 1940. Mrs. Greig and their children, Sally Jo and William, are residing at Seaside.

Word has been received from Terry B. Strake by his mother, Mrs. Mona Strake, 17 Park avenue, that he is with the chemical warfare division on an island in the southwest Pacific. Strake went overseas in May.

Pvt. William H. Van Natta, former news editor of The Statesman and more recently assistant news editor of the Oregon Journal, has been assigned to Camp Roberts, Calif. Mrs. Van Natta (Maxine Fleet) is in Montana visiting her father.

Burch Judson has enlisted in the US navy and left from Portland Saturday night for Norfolk, Va., where he will be in the construction battalion. He is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Judson, 945 McGilchrist avenue, and has been for five years bookkeeper and office manager for Skewis & Judson.

Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Marr received word that their son Robert is confined to the naval hospital at San Diego, undergoing plastic surgery.

PORTLAND, Oct. 10 (AP)—Navy enlistments announced here Saturday included: Orlando F. West, Jr., Glen H. Hardman, William F. West, Phillip H. Ferris, James H. Christensen, Rex O. Alsmann, Glenn W. Alsmann, Salem.

Mr. and Mrs. Milo Matthews have received word that their son, Lt. M. C. Matthews, has arrived safely in England. Before entering the service in July, Lt. Matthews was practicing dentistry in Lebanon.

A former Salem attorney, J. Ray Rhoten, now a second lieutenant, recently visited here briefly on his way from Fort Warren, Ia., to Fort Sam Houston, Texas.

Ralph Denham, a signalman in the US navy, has recently visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. Denham of West Salem. He also visited with his brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Ramage of Salem, and his brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Denham of Silverton. Denham enlisted in January.

Donald Largent has finished his six weeks training at the coast guard training school at Bonneville and is now stationed at Portland. Mrs. Largent is also in Portland. Largent is the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Largent of Salem.

SILVERTON HILLS—Five sons in the US military service is the record of Mr. and Mrs. John Zetterberg. Their eldest son, Victor, left this week for Camp Lewis to be inducted in the army.

His four brothers in the army are Glen at Camp Carson, Gus at Camp White, Medford; Elmer at Santa Monica; and Sidney in overseas service. Roy is the sixth and youngest son, still at home and too young to enlist.

Where They Are What They're Doing

"Where do you get your news for The Statesman's Service Men column?" is a question frequently put to this newspaper's news department by parents and friends of men in service. The answer is: This is the service men's own column. A large proportion of the news items it contains are contributed by parents, friends and the men, themselves. Others come from the various army, navy and marine posts and training stations. All are welcome.

SALEM HEIGHTS—Merrill G. Van Cleave, grandson of Mrs. Beatrice Merrill, will spend some time with her here while on furlough. His home was formerly here but the family moved to Stayton.

Corp. Westly McWain, now in Hollywood, recently spent a few days with his sister, Mrs. Carl Trick, Santa Ana, Calif. Capt. Trick is stationed in southern California.

SILVERTON—Harlan Moe, instructor in the naval air corps at Corpus Christi, Tex., is at home on a furlough. He is a son of Mr. and Mrs. John Moe at Silverton. Merl Larson, son of W. C. Larson and brother of Mrs. Alvin Legard and Harson Larson of Silverton, enlisted this week in the army air corps at Portland and will be inducted Wednesday.

William J. Lentzsch was advanced to aviation machinist's mate second class at the US naval air station at Corpus Christi, Tex., according to information received by his parents, the Matt Lentzsches.

Edwin Burton, son of City Manager and Mrs. E. K. Burton, has been transferred from Utah to another post, he has written his parents.

Nelson Black, aviation cadet at Mather field, Sacramento, has been a guest of his parents, the J. R. Blacks.

Robert Morrison, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Morrison, formerly of Silverton but now of Aumsville, has been promoted to corporal. He is stationed at Camp Pickett, Va. His wife, the former Leonora Heater, daughter of the Walter Heaters, will join him soon.

Richard Scharback, US navy, has been transferred to combat duty, his parents learned this week. One son, Bernard, is now with the army in Hawaii and Raymond is on submarine duty.

Odin Hollin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Hollin, is now with the navy and is stationed at San Diego.

CENTRAL HOWELL—Leonard Roth has enlisted in the US navy and has been assigned to the radio department. He will have two months preliminary training at Portland night school.

Darrell Stevens, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Stevens, has been home for several weeks after six months training in the US army, heavy artillery division. He was given an indefinite leave to assist with farm work.

JEFFERSON—Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hague are visiting their son, William, at Fort Worth, Tex. He is stationed at Fort Benning, Ga., but will meet his parents at Fort Worth.

INDEPENDENCE—Mr. and Mrs. Edward Becken have been notified that their son, Bill, has been made a master sergeant. He is now to attend officers' training school after spending a short furlough with his wife and sons at Shreveport, La. Sgt. Becken is now stationed at McMill field, Tampa, Fla.

Pvt. C. E. Edwards visited

Monday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Westerman. He is in the US marine corps and has been visiting his parents at Casper, Wyo., and visited his grandfather, E. J. Edwards at Tillamook.

Pierce to Visit Before Election

Reports received at the capitol Saturday indicated that Walter M. Pierce, La Grande, democratic nominee for representative in congress from the second congressional district, may spend a few days in Oregon prior to the November election.

Pierce is opposed by Lowell Stockman, Pendleton wheat-grower and former member of the state liquor control commission. Stockman already has launched an aggressive campaign.

Mrs. Pierce was expected to accompany her husband to Oregon.

Stewart to Speak To Salem Chamber

Salem chamber of commerce will hear Dr. William Blair Stewart, office of price administration, at its weekly luncheon meeting Monday. Miss Helen Fletcher, president of the Business and Professional Women's club, will introduce the speaker.

Dr. Stewart is on leave of absence from Reed college, where he has been professor of economics. He has studied at Reed, University of Illinois and Stanford university. He has served on the staff of food research institute at Stanford, with the social science research council, and as economist with the grain futures administration, department of agriculture.
