He Survived Jap Raid

A survivor of the US navy auxiliary vessel Calhoun, sunk by Jap bombers early in the fighting in the Solomon Island area, is given first aid at Guadalcanal Island, after his rescue.—Associated Press Telegram.

US Troops Land in Aleutians

Fully equipped to meet any attack from land, sea or air, US troops occupied an island of the Andreanof group in the Aleutian chain to establish bases to operate against the Japanese on Kiska Island. The operation took several days but not once did the Japanese make an attack on the force, which had only the protection of naval patrol planes on the first day. Supplies are shown being brought to the beach in landing boats.—(Associated Press photo from US Army Signal Corps.)
