

Mothers to Entertain Today

The American War Mothers will be hostesses this afternoon at their annual tea, to be given in the Carrier room of the First Methodist church from 2 until 5 o'clock. Mothers of men now in service are especially invited to attend, and members of all patriotic orders and their friends are also bidden.

Mrs. Mary Addie Curtis, president of the War Mothers, will introduce to the line, which will include past presidents, Mrs. Mark Skiff, Mrs. Mabel Lockwood, Mrs. A. A. Lee, Mrs. Minnie Humphrey, Mrs. Sarah Peterson and Mrs. Frank Perlett. Alternating at the urns will be Mrs. A. A. Lee, Mrs. Mark Skiff, Mrs. Sarah Peterson, Mrs. Minnie Humphrey, Mrs. Mable Lockwood and Mrs. Stanley Krueger. Members of the American Legion auxiliary will serve. Autumn flowers and fruits will be used to decorate the rooms and the tea table.

The program as planned by the committee, will include vocal numbers by Mrs. Gordon McGilchrist and Mrs. M. J. Gillson, a violin number by Eunice Masee, a reading by Mrs. Leon Brown, an oboe selection by Melvin Gilson and piano numbers by Robert Rawson.

Reception for E. Hortons

The ladies of the Court street Christian church sponsored a reception on Sunday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Irene Weller, 165 North 17th street in honor of the 60th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. E. Hortons, long-time residents of this city and charter members of the Court street church.

The rooms were attractively decorated with autumn flowers. Centering the dinner-table was the anniversary cake made and presented by Mrs. Aaron Schalk. Presiding at the tea and coffee urns were Mrs. Minnie Baker, also a charter member and Mrs. Louise Priem.

Serving the guests were Mrs. Gordon Randall, Mrs. Basil Zell, Miss Doris Kruger and the Misses Mary and Martha Weller. During the afternoon musical numbers were presented by Mrs. Harold Lyman and daughter Beverly, Miss Mary Weller, Mrs. Gordon Randall, and Miss Martha Weller. More than a hundred friends called to offer their congratulations and best wishes. On behalf of the church friends Mr. Lyman, pastor, presented the couple a basket of beautiful chrysanthemums with words of appreciation for the years of fellowship and service.

Mrs. G. E. Ross, 234 East Miller will be hostess Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock to the South Salem WCTU. Mrs. Vergil Burson, delegate to the state convention of the organization at Grants Pass, will report on the convention. Committees for the new year will be appointed.

Herbs Star At DAR Tea

The sweet scent of lavender, mint and rosemary greeted guests at the herb tea, given by members of Chemeketa chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution at the R. D. Paris home on South High street, Monday afternoon.

Decorations, displays and program centered around herbs. The tea table was centered with a beautiful arrangement of bronze colored chrysanthemums, enhanced, surprisingly enough, by sprays of dill and other lacy herbs.

Music was furnished by Miss Frances Paris, who presented several numbers on the organ in the living room.

A wide variety of herbs were on display in the various rooms, they were shown in vases in the dining room, but put into jelly, pickles, vinegars, made into sachets and shown dried for culinary use in the other rooms.

Guests were presented with charts for using herbs, and were served herbs in sandwiches and cookies and tea.

Miss Eleanor Stevens talked on herbs. Members of the DAR gave informal talks on the exhibits.

Mrs. C. A. Raincliff and her committee are responsible for the unusually interesting affair, which attracted women from over the valley.

Missionary Session

The Ann Judson Missionary Society held its monthly meeting Friday night at the First Baptist church. The meeting was opened with songs led by Mrs. G. Lindstrand. A business meeting followed, presided over by Mrs. Marion Curry, president.
