Market Month Biggest in 15

Steels, Rails Lead Extension of .2 On Day Average

NEW YORK, Oct. 31-(A)-The stock market Saturday emerged from its biggest recovery month since July, 1941, with steels, rails and specialties leading an extension of the advance.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks was up .2 of a point at 40, but for the week showed a net decline of .1. For October the composite was up 2.2 points, transfers totaled 850,210 shares against 290,180 a week ago. The month's volume of 15,932,598 shares was the largest since last December.

Touching new highs for the year were Crucible common and preferred, Pennsylvania Railroad, Northern Pacific, Consolidated Edison, and Phillips Petroleum. In front were US Steel, Bethlehem, Santa Fe, NY Central, American Telephone, North American, Anaconda, Sears Roebuck, Eastman Kodak, Westinghouse, Standard Oil of NJ, Pullman, Eastern Air Lines and American Airlines.

Negro Who Towed Raft Identified

HOLLYWOOD, Oct. 31-(AP)-A Negro mess attendant who swam Produce Exchange through shark-infested waters for six hours, towing a raft load of wounded seamen from a US destroyer sunk by the Japanese off the Solomons, was identified Friday night as Charles Jackson French of Foreman, Ark.

Ensign Robert N. Adrian of Ontario, Ore., told of the incident last week in an NBC radio broadcast. The NBC announced it had learned French's identity from the navy bureau of personnel in Washington.
