Tomato crops were above expectations due to the fact this has een one of the best growing seasons for several years.

The Migratory Workers camp located here every bean season for several years has been practically removed except for the tent floors which are still piled here, it is reported. Because of the shortage of help here it has been impossible to move these. Local men helped with the unloading when the camp moved in early this summer but by fall many local men had gone to defense jobs or into the army and others have been busy with the regular fall work.

Mt. Angel to Furnish Camp Adair Day Room; Contributions Made

MT. ANGEL-Handicapped by delayed start, the Mt. Ange Camp Adair committee is making rapid progress in its plans for furnishing a day room. Three days after the committee was organized three societies had pledged their support and the girls of Mt. Angel Normal and Academy had promised to make the draperies besides receiving many individual promises.

The local committee consists of Sylvester Schmidt, chairman Mrs. Fred Gooley, vice-chairman Louis LeDoux, Joseph Wavra Diehl, Mrs. Henry Saalfeld, and Otto J. Oswald, all working with Father Alcuin OSB, on the project. All the various organizations of the city are represented

Father Alcuin issued an invitation to every person in the community, farmers, workers, Bean growers report a fairly business men, to help with the work and to donate whatever they could in the line of furnishings needed. Articles needed include one radio, one piano, four card tables with chairs, (folding chairs will do) two reading tables (almost any table will do), one ping-pong table, two magazine racks, two book cases, ash trays, chairs, about four floor lamps, games, (checkers, cards) and suitable books. The furniture need not be new but it must be
