SILVERTON—The golden jubilee of Immanuel Lutheran church will be observed at the Sunday morning services with the Rt. Rev. H. L. Foss of Seattle preaching the anniversary service. Rev. Foss, a former Silverton pastor, also preached the 50th anniversary sermon for Trinity congregation in June.

Sigurd Nilssen, who gave his first public Silverton concert at Immanuel church a number of years ago, and now director of vocal music at the University of Oregon, will be soloist. He will sing "The Lord Is My Light" by Speaks, and "Den Store Hvite Flok."

The anniversary hymn, "My Church, My Church," will be sung at the service. Mrs. Elser Aarhus will be organist and Rev. M. J. K. Fuhr, acting pastor, will give the rituals.

A basket lunch will be served at noon, after which an informal program with greetings from visiting pastors will be presented. Jensen, who was pastor from 1927 until he died last June.

Saturday night a confirmants' reunion and homecoming will be held. The first class in 1894 included Hilda J. Olsen, now teaching in southern Oregon, and Olaf Johnson and Sigurd Nelson.

A year later Ole Opsund was the only member of his class. The entire list of confirmants since 1894 numbers over 400.

C. W. Stacey was appointed chairman of the show which will be held about the middle of December. It is hoped to have Michael Dederer of the Seattle Fur exchange to act as judge.

Pelting is in full swing on the fur farms in this area. Due to war conditions affecting the fur market, also the feed and labor problem on the ranches more animals will be pelted this season.

The price on the raw furs is lower than in past years, but it has been an unusually good year for fur. Pelts are good quality and clear.

On the C. W. Stacey ranch 800 foxes and 600 minks will be pelted. Only enough stock will be held over to make a good start again after the war. His first lot of new pelts have already been sold in Seattle.
