15,000 to See UO-OSC Clash At Corvallis

NEW YORK, Nov. 20 — (AP) — There'll be no argument about Saturday's biggest football crowd. It'll be at Columbus, Ohio, where 80,000 fans, the largest single gathering of the year, are expected to watch Michigan and Ohio State battle it out for at least a share of the western conference title.

The only crowd to anywhere near approach that figure is the one of 60,000 slated to sit in on the Stanford-California proceedings at Berkeley.

Pacific coast: Washington-UCLA, 40,000, Washington State-Seattle, 10,000.

Conn to Resume Wars After War

NEW CUMBERLAND, Pa., Nov. 20 — (AP) — Corporal Billy Conn thinks the war will be over in plenty of time for him to take up his ring career again.

"I'm young and in great shape," Pittsburgh's 25-year-old contender for Joe Louis' heavyweight crown said Friday, "and I'll still be young when this war's over."

Handsome Billy hopes the Brown Bomber feels the same way because "I'd just love to meet him again."

Conn is teaching his army reception center's boxing team how to do it the Johnny Ray way — and he's enthusiastic about his job.

Mickey Mouse Club Notes

Hi, Ho, Mice!

Well, Mice, we sure had the fun last week, two grand shows and a stage show. The show was delayed quite a while, but it was out of our control.

M.M.C.

For last week's stage show we had back with us seven-year-old Eddie Eimes, who sang the Marine's hymn. Maurice Hutzenroder also sang for us. For this week's show we have a lot of fun all cooked up.

M.M.C.

Our screen attraction will be "Eagle Squadron" with Robert Stack, Diana Barrymore, Jon Hall and Eddie Albert, with companion feature "A Close Call for Elerly Queen," a mystery thriller, with William Gargan and Margaret Lindsay. There will also be another chapter of the serial, also community singing and swell contests, so come to Mickey Mouse and bring your friends. The opening time is at one o'clock, so we'll be seeing you then.
