A Banquet Planned . . .

A dinner is being planned for Monday night at 6 o'clock at the chamber of commerce, when members of the woman's membership committee are hostesses to business and professional women eligible for membership in the chamber. Mrs. Ilda Bingenheimer, who heads the chamber's committee for woman members, is also general chairman of the banquet committee.

She is being assisted by Mrs. Winnie Pettyjohn, Mrs. Ora F. McIntyre, Mrs. Byron B. Herrick, Mrs. Ira Fitts, Mrs. Frank Earnest, Mrs. Luella Fruit, Mrs. Helen Webster Beelar, Mrs. Michael Flax, Mrs. Arthur Knot, Miss Eleanor Stephens, and Miss M. Langley.

Mrs. Bingenheimer will preside at the meeting and Mr. Carl Hogg, president of the chamber, and Mr. Clay Cochran will be present and discuss the work of the chamber of commerce.

The purpose of the dinner, according to Mrs. Bingenheimer, is to interest women in becoming members of the chamber. This is the first time that such a movement has been undertaken in Salem.

The dinner will be informal, and the talks will be in the form of discussions. Some 30 reservations have been made.
