Churches Unite in Solemn Observance of Christmas Season

Christmas will have a special meaning this year as men and women in Salem and surrunding communities join in the services dedicated to a simple faith in God and in "our country, right or wrong-"

With so many men in the service, civic clubs and women's organizations have been engaged in a pre-Christmas round of activities designed to cheer the soldier through the holidays. The same thought is uppermost as the churches prepare special services - caroling, dramatization of the Christmas story, programs for the children, com-

Whatever faith or creed, all churches have extended a welcome to all comers. The moment of peace, hope and prayer which comes to everyone at Christmas is walting this yearat church.
