Silver Foxes Host Chemawa

Burnett Looks for Tough Tilt Tonight

SILVERTON — Perhaps the toughest game of the season will be played here Tuesday night, December 22, when Silvertown basketball players host Chemawa, Coach "Jiggs" Burnett indicated during the weekend as he paced his Foxes through extra practice sessions.

Chemawa, according to Burnett, has the strongest team in the newly formed Duration league.

Silvertown's tossers tried out their teamwork for the first time last Friday night and succeeded in downing Mt. Angel, last year's district champs, 19 to 17, on the Mt. Angel floor. Burr was high for the Foxes with nine points in that game.

Tonight's play against Chemawa will start at 7 o'clock for the B squads and 8 for the regulars. Burnett expects to start out with Anderson at center; Zahler and Moon at forwards; and Burr and Duncan at the guard posts. In reserve will be Renwick, Dickman, Bennett, Wright and Elliott.

Baptists Bowl Over Presbyterians, 37-24

The First Baptists downed the Presbyterians, 37-24, in an A Church league makeup basketball game at the Y Monday night. F. Broer and O. Morley looked 10 points each to pace the winners, and Toombs garnered an equal amount for the Presbyterians.

Score: B-aptists (37) (24) Presbyterians Broer (10) F (2) Morgan Ott (5) F (10) Toombs Morley (10) C (1) Steed Goffrier (8) C (5) Fitzsimons Smith (2) C (4) Amussen

Subs: Baptist—E. Brandt (2). Presbyterian—Montgomery (2). Referee—B—Tom Hanauka.
