Eastern Stars Seat Officers

Stayton Group Installs At Candlelight Rites Tuesday Night

STAYTON-Tuesday night officers of the Eastern Star for the ensuing year were installed at an impressive ceremony for which Mrs. Walter Frey was installing officer, Dr. W. N. Pintler, assisting, Mrs. Harry Humphreys installing marshall, Mrs. Estellt Hussey, installing chaplain and Mrs. J. O. Russell of Turner, organist.

Officers seated were Maude Beauchamp, worthy matron; George Tate, worthy patron; Mabel Tate, associate matron; Virgil Tuel, associate patron; Frances Morgan, conductress Lucille Cox, associate conductress,* Kathryn Weddle, organist; Bertha Frey, treasurer; Flora Shuck, secretary; Tressa Van Nuys, marshall; Mae Spraked, Ada; Bessie Brown, Ruth; Edna Sloper, Esther; Elizabeth Clark, Martha; Hazel Lewis, Electa; Bessie Waddell, chaplain; Bea Johnson, warder; Irvin arberry, sentinel. Pages elected are Ruby Parberry, Worthy Burmester, Ruth Wood and Eva Humphreys. Officers dresses are of blue, pages in pink.

The chapter room had been beautifully decorated by Mrs. Frey and her committee in a color scheme of green and white with four tall candelabra and lighted candles. Program numbers by John Lau with violin and the girls' octet from the high school interspersed the installation ceremony. Refreshments were served in the dining hall where Mrs. Tressa Van Nuys and her committee had decorations in keeping with the Yule season.

The school of instruction for the new officers will be held Monday night, with a potluck dinner preceding.
