

Sinkwich & Co., Second Air Force, Eastern Stars, Tennessee, Alabama, Texas Turn in Triumphs in Nation's Bowl Battles

Eastern Stars Finally Whip West, 13 to 12

Conversion Failures Costly in Wide-Open Shrine Engagement

By DICK CUSHING
SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 1—(AP)—A smooth-operating band of college all-stars brought the East its first football triumph over the West in five years Friday, edging out the westerners 13 to 12 in a spine-tingling charity game before a near capacity crowd of 58,000 in Kezar stadium.

The two teams, evenly matched, played a brand of football as wide open as a church door, and it was anybody's ball game until the final gun. The West had power aplenty on the hoof and the East had the edge in fleetness afoot, but both outfits took to the air early in this 18th annual Shrine classic and yardage was reeled off in spectacular fashion.

Two great opposing passers, Columbia's Paul Governall for the East, and Washington State's Bob Kennedy for the West, turned in handsome jobs. Governall tossed one touchdown pass and paved the way for the East's second score on another aerial thrust. Kennedy, passing fiercely all afternoon, scored on a lateral and passed a long one later to set up his team's second tally.

It was a matter of failures at the try for point after touchdown that gave the East its first win over the West since 1937 when Princeton's Ken Sandbeck kicked a field goal for a 3-0 victory.

Speed and aerial trickery were supposedly the East's main stock in trade, as against the West's bulk, but the way the not-so-famous westerners tossed the ball around and cut fancy capers from their strategic T-formation had the easterners back on their heels much of the game and forced them to fight to the last minute to preserve their narrow edge.

This is the way the touchdown — a period scoring went:

First quarter—Midway in the period Steve Filipowicz, Fordham's Mr. Five by Five fullback cut through the line for 14 yards to the west 34. Governall then unleashed a beautiful long pass to end Dave Schreiner of Wisconsin, who pulled the ball out of the sky over the goal line with Westerners swarming about him. Al Klug, substitute tackle from Marquette, booted the important place kick to make it 7-0.

Second quarter—The West, finding the Eastern line a little tough began to shoot passes; California's Jim Jurkovich and Kennedy doing the tossing. This aerial offensive carried the West virtually from its own goal line, where Jurkovich intercepted a pass, to the Eastern seven. Here Tom Robin, sub fullback from Oregon, lateraled to Kennedy, who skipped around his left end to score. The place kick try by Willie Zapalac, Texas A and M quarterback, hit the crossbar and bounced back. The East still led, 7-0.

Third quarter—The West tossed a dazzling array of passes, one from Kennedy to end Nick Susoeff, of Washington State, connecting for a touchdown. Susoeff nabbed the ball on the ten yard line and stepped over with no opposition. Zapalac again failed to convert. This time his place kick was blocked. The West led 13-7.

Fourth quarter—In the fading seconds of the previous period, Governall had lateraled to Max Kielbasa, sub right half from Duquesne, who tore 37 yards along his right sideline before he was tagged by Bill Remington, Washington State center, on the West two. Governall went through the line for two yards and Filipowicz bore through center for the score. Klug's place kick was blocked, and the West was ahead 13-12.

That was the end of the scoring, but the East had to stand off a stern challenge before the show was over.

Kennedy, on his own 37, passed to Susoeff for 17 yards, shot one to Robin for eight, then Robin lateraled to Don Reese, sub quarterback, who carried to the East's 22. Two passes by Kennedy failed as touchdowns strikes by the scariest of margins before Kielbasa intercepted to end the threat.

Team work was amazingly smooth in view of the bare two weeks practice afforded the squads, and individual performances drew ovations from the crowd.

Especially noteworthy were the ball-carrying antics of the East's Governall, who lived up to advance notices as a cracker-jack passer. Filipowicz, Les Horvath, Ohio State's great halfback, and Kielbasa, whose long (Continued on page 9)

96th Division All-Stars Challenge Bearcats on College Court Tonight

Meets Soldier Five Here Tonight

GENE SCHMIDT, Willamette university freshman center from Pendleton will be in the starting 'Cat five tonight on the college floor when the 96th Division All-Stars of Camp Adair tangle with the Methodists starting at eight o'clock.

Bombers Come From Behind for Victory

Ex-Minnesotans Van Avery and Spadaccini Pace 13-7 Sun Win

EL PASO, Texas, Jan. 1—(AP)—Outplayed during the first half and trailing for more than three quarters of the game, the red-white-and-blue clad Bombers of the second air force came from behind in the Sun Bowl Friday to score a battering 13-7 victory over the wily border conference champions of Hardin-Simmons university.

Three Hoop 5s Big 'Y' Titles

Holiday hoop play was concluded at the Salem YMCA Friday afternoon with the decision of three championships in as many leagues.

In the class C circuit, a scrappy Blitz outfit romped to a 32-24 win over the Yankees. A smooth-working combination led the Panthers to a 43-29 runaway win over the much-larger Husky aggregation.

In the top-flight, class A championship match, the firey Knight quintet came from behind to outscore the favored Zoot five, 42-36. The Zoots failed to follow up the efforts of Stu Compton and Andrew Zahare, ace forwards who scored 17 and 12 points respectively.

Jack Slater led the victors with 11 pointers while Howard McCaulley sunk 10 tallies.

Panthers (43)	(23) Quakles
Allison (7)	(2) Keppinger
Chamberlain (12)	(15) Alberts
Saxon (11)	(8) Boucher
Schwartz (8)	(2) Blume
Henricie (4)	(2) Blume
Knights (42)	(36) Zoots
Baflow (4)	(2) Burns
Bales (4)	(2) Jones
Slater (11)	(12) Compton
Barlow (4)	(12) Zahare
McCaulley (10)	(2) Langan

Subs for Knights: Lowe (9).

Landis Summons Club Headmen

CHEGAGO, Jan. 1—(AP)—Kenesaw Mountain Landis, commissioner of baseball, Friday summoned the 18 club owners of the major leagues to a special joint session to settle all rail transportation problems of their spring training.

The meeting will be held next Tuesday in Chicago. The parley will be at the Palmer house, scene of the major and minor league meetings earlier this month.

Too Much Flood—No Basketball

PORTLAND, Ore., Jan. 1—(AP)—The Willamette valley flood Friday night prevented the Portland Boilermakers from reaching Eugene and their scheduled basketball game with the University of Oregon was cancelled.

Hockey Scores

Boston Bruins 2, Detroit Red Wings 2 (tie).
Chicago 6, New York 5.
Royal Canadian Flyers 9, Seattle All-Stars 3.

Back to the basketball wars for Willamette university's Bearcats tonight on the college floor—this time against the 96th Division All-Stars of Camp Adair, a service team reputedly as potent as the

Due to flood waters which have severed some highway arteries, it may be impossible for the 96th Division All-star basketball team to Salem tonight for the basketball game with Willamette university. However, the team will try to get through it at all possible.

104th Timber Wolves, which succumbed to the 'Cats, 46-43, in a real thriller here on December 15. The 96th Stars, made up of college men only—no officers—are coached by First Lt. J. C. Van Vulpin, the division athletic officer. Van Vulpin once played for the University of Tennessee and then with the renowned New York World Celtics.

Van Vulpin claims the Stars a very capable and fast team, and consisting of all ex-college and professional players. He will pick a starting lineup from the following, former schools in parentheses:

Sgt. E. E. Thompson, (Compton JC, California); Sgt. Jess Horner, (University of Missouri); Pvt. Ed Arterburn, (Park City college, Ky.); Pvt. Hill Walton, (Durant college, Okla.); Pvt. M. J. Juric, (Loyola U, Calif.); Sgt. Les Fussellman, (Illinois professional player); Staff Sgt. Maurice Fried, (former Detroit pro player); Sgt. J. W. Spiller, (Illinois).

The soldiers have been working out regularly and embark on a strenuous schedule with the game tonight.

Coach "Spec" Keene's 'Cats have also been practicing hard in an effort to regain the form which brought them their win over the Timber Wolves. The 'Cats started off the new year Friday with a two-hour workout in an effort to polish up for tonight's clash.

Keene listed two decks of players for tonight—a starting five consisting of Dave Kelly and Wes Saxton, forwards; Gene Schmidt, center, and Don Barnick and Pat White, guards, and a second five made up of Bob Douglas and Duane Ragdale, forwards; Jack Vaughn, center, and Irv Miller and Ron Runyan, guards.

Initial tossup is slated for 8 o'clock with a preliminary listed between Les Sparks' Frosh and possibly the Chemawa Indians.

Vaunted Vols Trip Up Tulsa By 14-7 Score

By ELLIOTT CHAZE

NEW ORLEANS, Jan. 1—(AP)—Tennessee overpowered Tulsa 14-7 here Friday before an estimated 50,000 crowd of 70,000 but the Oklahomaans got off to a fast start and staged a blazing finish that might have tied the ball game except for a last-minute pass interception by Tennessee's End Jim Powell.

In the dying seconds of the game, trailing by seven points, Tulsa's N. A. Kethley hit his ends with a pair of 17-yard passes to open a drive that carried from his own 40 to Tennessee's 29 and kept pitching them until he reached the 12 where Powell stopped the circus.

Friday's game was a case of too much Tennessee drive as the Vols came from behind to score a touchdown in the second and a safety in the third and came again for six points in the final period.

Big Bobby Cifers, fullback and Walter Slater, his alternate, were the Tennessee standouts. Cifers taking the fire out of Tulsa's punting with his own brilliant kicking and battering runbacks of Tulsa kicks. He averaged about 15 yards on his returns.

The statistics gave Tulsa minus 39 yards running to Tennessee's 208. On the other hand the Tulsa Hurricane netted 108 yards in the air to Tennessee's 88.

This startling aerial strength exploded against Tennessee for the game's opening touchdown.

All-American Glenn Dobbs whipped six consecutive passes, four of them to Saxton, his end, without a miss. The barrage gained 57 yards and Clyde LeForce, Dobbs' substitute at tailback, hit Wingman Cal Pardin for the score. LeForce kicked point.

Sports

AL LIGHTNER
Statesman Sports Editor

Salem, Oregon, Saturday Morning, January 2, 1943

Bantam King Ortiz Retains Title With Nod Over Lindsay

Kahut, Peterson Turn in Kayo Wins, but Wagner Knocked Out

PORTLAND, Ore., Jan. 1—(AP)—Hard-punching Manuel Ortiz retained the NBA bantamweight championship here Friday night by outpointing Kenny Lindsay, Vancouver, BC, challenger, in ten rounds.

Longhorn Line Too Tough for Georgia Tech

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF

DALLAS, Jan. 1—(AP)—Texas' massive line beat Georgia Tech into the Cotton Bowl turf for three quarters Friday and the Yellow Jackets' rally in the final minutes paid off with only one touchdown as the southeastern conference team lost to the Longhorns 14-7.

It was a thrilling story of long runs and many passes but the real story was in the play of Texas' forward wall that battered the Techs from goal line to goal line while the Longhorns' halfbacks ripped and tore their way to touchdowns in the first and third periods.

Texas stepped Clint Castleberry, Tech freshman star, practically sold and the speedy Longhorn backs rolled up 201 yards from scrimmage.

Texas scored on a 52-yard drive in the first period. Joe Schwarting, brilliant Longhorn wingman, recovered Pat McHugh's fumble to set up the score. McKay pitched two passes to Wally Scott to send the ball to the Tech 29. Jackie Field, Roy McKay and Max Minor alternated in smashing the line down to the Georgians' four. McKay tried guard for one, then passed over the goal line where Castleberry bunted the ball into Minor's hands for a touchdown. Field kicked the point.

The next Texas touchdown was the most sensational play of the game—a dodging, twisting 60-yard run by the fleet Field.

Jackie took a punt on the Texas 40 and ran straight down the field with only one Georgia Tech hand being laid on him. He crossed the goal line with five Longhorns running interference.

Grid Star DeCourcy Enrolls With OSC

CORVALLIS, Jan. 1—(AP)—Oregon State college's football stack was boosted Thursday night with the enrollment of Keith de Courcy, former fullback flash of The Dalles high school team.

De Courcy entered Dartmouth last fall and played on the varsity grid squad in several games. Under a new transfer rule he will be eligible to play at OSC next autumn.

Ute Aggies Stopped; Idaho Vandals Win

MISSOULA, Mont., Jan. 1—(AP)—Utah Aggies saw their winning streak broken at seven Friday night by a hard-working Montana squad that presented its departing basketball coach with a 48 to 44 victory.

Idaho's Vandals defeated Montana State college 52 to 44 in the second game of the doubleheader.

Jenne Commissioned

PORTLAND, Ore., Jan. 1—(AP)—Eldon I. Jenne, director of health, physical education and recreation for the Portland public school system, has been commissioned a lieutenant senior grade in the navy reserve, it was learned Friday.

Dayton Quint Wins

DAYTON, Jan. 1—(Special)—Dayton Union high school's basketball quintet defeated Lafayette, 37-19, at Lafayette Wednesday night in the third league game of the season.

Sinky, Trippi Prove Too Much For Ukes as Bulldogs Blast Out Thrilling 9-0 Victory

By FRANK FRAWLEY

PASADENA, Calif., Jan. 1—(AP)—Frankie Sinkwich, the country's outstanding athlete, wrote a blazing final chapter to his collegiate football career Friday as he teamed up with Charlie Trippi to give Georgia a 9 to 0 victory over UCLA in the Rose Bowl.

Sinkwich, limping badly with ankle injuries, was able only to contribute "spot" duty for the southeastern conference champions, going in when short passes were in order. But when the chips were down late in the fourth period and three yards were needed for a touchdown the Croatian crusher bucked right tackle and made the goal line by inches.

Frankie's clincher touchdown followed a blocked punt on the first play of the final quarter that produced a safety for the Georgians. The safety also came right on the heels of a costly fumble by Sinkwich that might have made him the goat of the contest.

Sinkwich had been sent in by Coach Wally Butts to take advantage of an open spot close up in the center of the UCLA secondary. He found it and hit the big Georgia end, Van Davis, with two short passes that put the ball on the four. But when Sinky tried to slide off tackle he fumbled. Herb Wiener, the UCLA end, charged in and fell on the ball.

Georgia was not to be denied, however. George Foschner and Red Boyd charged through on the next play and bounded into a punt that had just left Quarterback Bob Waterfield's toe. The ball skidded out of the field for an automatic safety and two mighty big points.

The capacity crowd of 93,000, expecting a sensational passing duel between Waterfield and Georgia's slinging duo, the Sophomore Trippi and the veteran Sinkwich, saw a powerful Georgia line open big holes through which the Bulldog running attack covered 212 yards.

It was Trippi's hard running on reverses that kept the UCLA line pretty close together and made possible Georgia's 12 successful passes for 161 yards.

The Bruin linemen weren't able to play the type of game that gained them the Pacific coast title. The Dixie forwards had the upper hand. They slashed open wide gaps for Trippi and he cut back for many good gains.

The sophomore speedster was the game's individual ground gainer with 115 yards in 27 tries. Sinkwich carried the oval 11 times and gained 34 yards.

On the other hand, UCLA's running game was woefully weak. The Bulldog ends, Van Davis and Foschner, alternately pushed Waterfield and the Bruin tailback, Al Solari, and waited for Vic Smith through the middle. Solari was held to a net of 21 yards, Vic Smith to 27, and altogether the Bruins gained only 97 yards on the ground.

UCLA tried 15 passes and made four good for 62 yards. Four were intercepted. Clyde Ehrhardt, sub Georgia center, swiped two of them.

Lamar Davis threw a scare into UCLA on the kickoff that opened the game. From the end zone he got loose on a 44 yard jaunt. Davis, Trippi and McPhee then alternated on reverses to the Bruin 27.

Sinkwich entered the game here, tried two passes that failed and the Bulldog wound up by losing the ball on downs back on the 31.

The Bruins then foxed the Georgia line on a fake pas, fullback Ken Snelling smashing center and cutting back for 36 yards later Waterfield passed to Milt Smith on the 24. Georgia stiffened and the Bruins lost the ball on downs on the 16.

Georgia was on the march with Sinkwich passing when Solari stole one of the fireball's tosses on UCLA 18 and ran 52 yards to Georgia's 30. The Californians barely missed a first down on the 19 as Vic Smith was dumped after gaining nine yards on a fake pass.

Waterfield broke up two of Georgia's passes in the second quarter, stalling promising drives, but Trippi finally hit Lamar Davis with a 13 yard toss and the (Continued on page 9)

Bowl Scores

Rose Bowl—Georgia 9, UCLA 0.
Orange Bowl—Boston 21, Alabama 37.
Cotton Bowl—Georgia Tech 7, Texas 14.
Sugar Bowl—Tulsa 7, Tennessee 14.
Sun Bowl—Second Air Force 13, Hardin-Simmons 7.
At San Francisco—East 13, West 12.

Basketball Scores

Idaho 52, Montana State 44.
Fort Lewis Warriors 36, Harlem Globetrotters 26.
Harvard 31, Michigan State 28.
Georgetown 56, St. Bonaventure 41.
Iowa State 34, Iowa State Teachers 33.
Montana 48, Utah State 44.
Wyoming 68, Rochester 46.
Toledo 41, Purdue 37.
Bradley Tech 42, Oregon State 41 (overtime).
Washington State 60, Canisius 43.
Kansas 60, St. Louis university 25.

'Bama's Crimson Tide Rolls To Orange Thriller, 31-27

By ROMNEY WHEELER

MIAMI, Fla., Jan. 1—(AP)—Sarasota is winter quarters of Ringling Brothers' circus—but the greatest show on earth was right here in the Orange Bowl Friday as Alabama's Crimson tide rolled back from apparent defeat to overwhelm Boston college 37-21 before 30,000 football fans.

'Bama's crimson-shirted power house, playing for the first time in this tropical bowl classic, spotted Boston 14 points in the first quarter before it got rolling. But when it did—when Russ Craft, Dave Brown, Johnny August and little Russ Mosley started digging up the turf—the best that Boston college could throw in its way wasn't enough to stop the Tide.

The Tide scored three in the second quarter to once for the Eagles and with three minutes to play in the half, BC was leading, 21-19. But now the 'Bama was gambling.

Craft, on the ancient Statue-of-Liberty play, scooted 11 yards around left end for first-down on BC's 15. Russ Mosley pegged two short passes to Ends Samp Sharp and Babs Roberts to reach the eight, then missed an attempted pitch to Roberts for the touchdown.

With 30 seconds left to play, and one shot left in the locker, 'Bama dropped back to the 15 for a field goal. George Hecht, guard, sent the ball spinning from placement directly through the uprights, and (Continued on page 9)

Coal - Burner Oils
SHRYDER
TRUCK and TRANSFER
Phone 4566

Try use of Chinese remedies. Amazing SUCCESS for 3500 years in CHINA. No matter what ailment you are afflicted with—stomach ailments, heart, liver, kidney, rheumatism, sciatica, constipation, ulcers, diabetes, fever, etc., female complaints—
Charlie Chan
Chinese Herb Co.
Office Hours Only
Tues. and Sat., 10 a.m. to 5 p.m.
Sun. and Wed., 10 a.m. to 12:30 p.m.
123 N. COM'L St., Salem, Ore.