SOCIETY MUSIC The HOME

Give Grease To Girls

The Camp Fire girls of Salem will open their monthly grease collecting activities on Saturday, the only official drive in Salem. It was decided at a meeting of the Camp Fire Guardians association held Tuesday night at the First Presbyterian church. The city has been divided into seven school districts, each under the supervision of certain camp fire groups. The work of collecting grease is to be done by the girls one Saturday each month, but will be under the supervision of the guardians.

Girls will call on homes today and Saturday, explaining their plans and making arrangements for later collections. Mrs. Sidney King, and Mrs. Paul Morse, co-chairmen stated.

Girls from Sacred Heart Academy, Leslie and Parrish junior high schools will collect from the grade school districts in which they live.

Mrs. Dunbar at Dallas Club

DALLAS—The Dallas Women's club had as its guest speaker for the January meeting on Tuesday, Mrs. Sadie Orr Dunbar who talked on "Woman's Part in the War Effort," an interesting discussion of woman's responsibility in winning victory.

Mrs. R. S. Kreson gave a resume of the work of the "Ladies in Gray" at Camp Adair.

Music was given by the Dallas high school sextet, accompanied by their instructor, Mary Hope Martin.

Hostesses for the day were Mrs. John Meeker, Mrs. Aramel Shreve, Mrs. William C. Reizer, Mrs. Joe Vine, Mrs. William Blackley, and Mrs. Mark Blodgett.

Mrs. Dunbar was honored at a covered dish luncheon given by the club's executive board preceding the meeting.

Hi-Y Mothers Make Curtains

The Hi-Y Mothers club met on Tuesday at the home of the president, Mrs. Floyd Utter for the regular monthly business session. The committee, appointed to cooperate with the YMCA in furnishing a room at Camp Adair, reported that furnishings have been sent and that a group of the Hi-Y mothers bought material and made 12 pair of curtains under the supervision of Mrs. C. A. Kells.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. F. A. Smith on February 2.

New Legislators Plan for Action

WASHINGTON, DC, Jan. 7-(P) Harris Ellsworth and Lowell Stockman, new Oregon representatives, who took their seats in congress for the first time Thursday, said they will concentrate on vigorous prosecution of the war and elimination of unnecessary non-war spending.

Ellsworth said he also would bid for federal development of Oregon's mineral and forest resources in the interests of the war effort and post-war reconstruction.

Stockman said he was particularly interested in farm policies and that he favored curtailment of federal bureaucracy which he contended is retarding the war program.

Today's Menu

Oysters will make up the day's main dish, which will go extra well with a tart fruit salad. Grapefruit-pineapple salad
Oyster shortcake
Hot biscuits
Buttered broccoli
Apple cobbler

OYSTER SHORTCAKE

1 cup flour
2 teaspoons baking powder
1/4 teaspoon salt
3 tablespoons shortening
1/2 cup milk
Mix together flour, baking powder and salt. Cut in shortening and slowly add the milk. When a soft dough forms, divide in halves and shape each into a cake about 1/2 inch thick. Bake 10 or 12 minutes—until brown—in a moderate oven, on an ungreased pan. Split and add the filling. Replace top and cover with rest of filling.

OYSTER FILLING

2 tablespoons butter
3 tablespoons flour
1/4 teaspoon salt
1/4 teaspoon paprika
1/4 teaspoon chopped parsley
Speck celery seed
1 cup milk
1/2 cup small oysters
Melt butter and add flour and seasonings. When blended pour in milk and cook slowly until creamy sauce forms. Stir constantly. Add oysters and simmer five minutes. Stir several times.

San Diegans Scan Skies, Miss Gold

SAN DIEGO, Calif., Jan. 7-(P) Possibly San Diegans are watching the skies too intently. Police reported Thursday that 27 bars of gold, stolen from a dentist's office, were found on a downtown street where they had lain undetected for three days. Detective Mort Geer said the gold was stolen by a gang of youths who tossed the bars from an automobile, unaware of their value, estimated by police at $300.

Bids on Notes Called

WASHINGTON, Jan. 7-(P) The treasury asked bids Thursday on $600,000,000 of 91-day treasury notes to mature April 14, 1943. Bids will be received at federal reserve banks and branches up to 2 p. m., Eastern War Time, January 11.

Mines Laboratory Site Sought Here

Search is being made by the Salem chamber of commerce for a building which could be used by the bureau of mines of the interior department for an electric laboratory, according to announcement Thursday by the chamber's manager, Clay C. Cochran. Sen. Rufus C. Holman has wired

Cochran, asking if such a building could be found in Salem. Tuesday the senator will discuss with the bureau of mines the possibility of locating a proposed laboratory in this state. Because Sen. Holman believes that scarcity of materials will cause the availability of a laboratory site to become a major issue in location of this agency, he asked if the Salem armory or some other large structure could be used for this purpose.
