Flynn Accuser In Admission
Satterlee Girl Tells Of Operation and Age Falsifying
 LOS ANGELES, Jan. 20 (AP)—Peggy La Rue Satterlee, 16-year-old Hollywood showgirl, admitted Wednesday at Errol Flynn's trial on three counts of statutory rape that she has undergone an operation and the prosecution stipulated that the surgery was an abortion.

That was but one of several somewhat sensational bits of information which Defense Attorney Jerry Giesler drew from the girl — chief state complaining witness — during intensive cross-examination.

Among the others:

She has been given to understand that at her request no action will be taken against the man responsible for her operation.

She has been living, without expense to herself, with police-women, has been attending movies and visiting hotel cafes. She took a 10-day trip to San Francisco, which she explains was made at the personal expense of the policeman attending her.

That she has stated her age variously up to 21 years in applications for employment at night clubs and in the movies, and carries a driver's license giving her age as 18.

But she denied that:

She once told a girl friend her mother had moved to prosecute Errol Flynn on rape charges against her (Peggy's) wishes because the accusation was untrue.

That her entertainment with police-women included night clubs or drinking.

"Did you ever talk to anyone in authority with relation to any operation you have had?" Giesler asked.

"Yes, sir," she answered, and replied, to another question, that a particular man was involved.

"Did you not request the district attorney's office not to prosecute that man?" "Yes, sir."

"And did they not promise you that they would not prosecute that man if you would testify in this case?" "No, sir."

"They indicated that they would not prosecute that man?" "They told me it would not be brought up."

Miss Satterlee, who came to court on one day early in the case wearing pigtails, as a composed but intently serious witness as she admitted that she knew the operation was a criminal act, subjecting her to possible prosecution.

Giesler brought out that in August, 1941, the day after she and her mother made their first complaints to the district attorney against Flynn, they were instructed to return to juvenile hall the following day but went, instead, to Santa Barbara and later to Eugene, Ore., where Peggy went to work in a theatre. She said she believed she gave her age as 18.

"When you went to Oregon, did your mother buy you a considerable amount of new clothes?" Giesler queried.

Returning to Hollywood, she said she went to work in a night club on swank Sunset strip.

"What age did you give?" asked the attorney.

"I don't remember, I believe it was 21.

Statutory rape involves a sexual act with a girl under the age of 18. Miss Satterlee has charged Flynn with intimacies on two occasions during a cruise to Santa Catalina island aboard the actor's luxurious yacht. The third count against him was signed by Betty Hansen, 17-year-old former Lincoln, Neb., girl who worked as a waitress in Hollywood before she met Flynn.

Giesler asked her about employment at another cafe. There, she said, she told them she was 18. She said she showed the driver's license on which that age was given.

Referring to one of the night clubs, Giesler queried:

"At the bar next door, where the girls go between shows, you gave your age as 21 so you could go in there and participate in the drinking?"

"I believe so."

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP)—Finnis N. Erwin is distinguished merely because he's a private, first class, in the army.
 He's the only private assigned to the army quartermaster depot here. There's a general there and scores of lesser officers—how many the army won't reveal.

Washington 5 Tips Beavers

Warren brought the Orange to a 29-32 deficit with eight minutes to play, but a one-man scoring spree by sub guard Bird, for elected Morris, which accounted for four points sent the Huskies to a 38-29 count. Anderson made it 41-36 with four minutes left and the Huskies tried to stall.

At this point the two teams were committing fouls right and left and the game developed into a gift-loss shooting affair.

The Staters came forth with a spirited rally near the finish with Durdan on the pacing end, and his quick pair of baskets brought the Orange up to a 39-42 count after Gilmer, Leske, Ford and Taylor had made good free tosses. But in the race with the clock Leske scooped up a free ball during a mad scramble, dribbled the length of the court and poured through a lay-in to crush all Beaver hopes.

Only Durdan was mindful of the smooth machine-like Beaver squad which compiled its attractive pre-conference record. The Huskies, also considerably ragged at times, appeared nothing like the world-beaters they were bragged to be, although the play of Leske was outstanding. His smooth ball handling calmed down Hec Edmundson's crew on numerous occasions.

Cougars Slate Ski Opening
 PULLMAN, Jan. 20 (AP)—Two star skiers of last year will be on hand to bolster the Washington State ski team when it opens its 1943 schedule February 6 with a two-day meet with the University of Washington on Mount Spokane, J. Fred Bohler, skiing instructor, said Wednesday.

Capt. Gordon LaVigne and Red Mackintosh are the two expected to give the university trouble in the meet which will feature four events—cross country, slalom, downhill and jumping.

Don Kerns, another member of last year's team, will be in the competition, as well as several newcomers—Norman LaVigne, a brother of Gordon, from Chewelah; Bob Bergdahl, former member of the Selkirk Ski club; Wade Shackleton, Ione; Dick Johnson, Langley, and Friend Dickinson, Seattle.

Oddities . . . in the News
SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP)—The chief warden and 90 per cent of his personnel failed to turn out for an air raid practice alert. Nobody notified them.

Chief Warden Walter Wolf said he understood each of the three persons at the air raid control center thought the other had called him.

Because Wolf wasn't notified the district wardens weren't called. The district wardens in turn failed to call their assistants.

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—Even the federal district court had to defer here to the ODT order restricting the use of motor vehicles.

During condemnation proceedings on land near Fort Lauderdale which the government seeks to buy, the court directed that a bus be chartered to take the jury to the scene.

The Miami Transit company said sorry, but chartering of special buses was out, except for troop movement.

Now attorneys are trying to make arrangements with the navy to furnish the jury's transportation.

Indiana Host to Six
 LAFAYETTE, Ind., Jan. 20 (AP)—Indiana became the spring home for a sixth major league baseball team Wednesday night with the announcement by Guy Mackey, athletic director of Purdue university, that the Cleveland Indians would train at Purdue for "three weeks or more" in March and April.
