Honored at Dinner

Mr. Vass was honored on his birthday Sunday by Mrs. Vass at their home on South Commercial street.

The dinner table was covered with a white damask cloth and centered with an arrangement of Mexican orange and red roses in a crystal bowl. Red tapers in crystal holders flanked the centerpiece.

The traditional birthday cake had an arrangement of pink and green miniature rose candle holders with pink lighted candles, in a large V.

About the rooms were hanging baskets of ivy and potted ferns.

Covers were placed for Mr. and Mrs. Amos Vass, Mrs. Roxie Trank and Mr. Gates Cochran of Lyons.

Announcement of the birth of a daughter, Carol Ann, to Mr. and Mrs. Moody Benner is being made today. The child, born January 19, is the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Benner of Salem and Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Hartley of Jefferson.

Fund to Honor Miss Eness

Members of Willamette university's chapter of Mu Phi Epsilon, national music honorary for women, are to establish a Clara Eness student scholarship loan fund in memory of the late piano instructor and founder of the local chapter, according to an announcement by Miss Jean Jackson, president.

Plans for the fund were made at a meeting Monday night, when it was also decided to dedicate to Miss Eness a memorial plaque to be placed in the Mu Phi room of the university music hall. Maintenance of the fund will be made possible by proceeds from concerts sponsored by the organization and through contributions from alumnae and friends.

Mrs. Douglas Chambers and her six-weeks-old son, David, left Wednesday by train for To-mah, Wisconsin, where they will join Lt. Chambers, no stationed at Camp McCoy. Mrs. Chambers has been in Salem as guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Phil Aspinwall, and Lt. Chambers' parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. F. Chambers.
