 Turned Back Japs

15, Dies in Action

"DON'T DO THAT! Remember you are Marines!" That shouted Sgt. Theodore Cogswell of the U. S. Marines when he saw three of his buddies giving ground during an engagement with the Japs on Guadalcanal. And then, as the Japs rushed in, Cogswell bayoneted an officer and yanked a samurai sword from the Jap's scabbard. Whirling it around his head, Cogswell led a smothered, full counter-charge, routing them.

LUBBOCK, Texas.—(P)—A flying school private saw a paper blow off his squadron bulletin board. He gave chase, finally ran it down.

It was a notice ordering him to report for kitchen police duty.
