

Local News Briefs

Wage, Hour Agent Moves—Roy Ferris, inspector of the wage, hour and public contracts division of the department of labor, will be in Salem, according to Charles H. Elroy, director for Oregon. This will be Ferris' second visit to Salem since the plan was started a week ago. He is qualified to answer questions relative to problems of employers in completing forms necessary for wage adjustments and to make determinations as to whether or not proposed wage increases need be referred to the war labor board. Under a temporary arrangement a desk has been provided for Ferris in the Salem office of the United States employment service, 710 Ferry street.

Wanted—Your poultry and eggs. Top prices for quality. 245 D betw. Front, Com'l. Marion Creamery.

Examinations Open—The board of examiners for the state unemployment compensation commission has just announced open competitive examinations for the position of field auditor or assistant accountant at a starting salary of $160 per month and for accounting clerks at a starting salary of $125 per month. Applications for these positions must be postmarked not later than midnight of March 12 and application forms may be procured at the Salem office of the United States employment service at 710 Ferry street.

For home loans—see Salem Federal, 130 South Liberty.

Lions Dinner Tonight—Ladies night for the Salem Lions club will include a dinner at the Cherry City bakery auditorium at 6:30 o'clock tonight. All Lions and wives, including legislators from out of town, are invited to attend the dinner party, which will replace the regular luncheon meeting. Rep. William M. McAllister, speaker of the house, will be a speaker at the meeting. Lutz florist. Ph. 9592. 1276 N. Lib.

New Agent Named—Edna McKay of St. Paul, widely known in Salem where she has recently resided in the home of her uncle, Commissioner Jim E. Smith, has been named new agent for the State Farm Mutual insurance companies here, succeeding the late John D. Caughell, E. A. Guenther, district manager, announced Wednesday.

The Spa will close every Wednesday until further notice.

First Aid Given—City first aid men were called Wednesday to 675 South 12th street to dress a forehead wound suffered by Jack Cassida. Mrs. Gary Croddy, 2209 North Front street, called the crew when she caught her arm in a wringer. Mrs. Andy Dawson, 340 Liberty road, was given first aid and taken to Salem Deaconess hospital when she fell and fractured her right leg.

Men wanted, hop yard work, 65c hr., 4 mi. west of Salem. Williams & Thacker. Ph. 6759 or 21331.

Wooden Shoes Unrationed—The Marion county rationing board learned Wednesday from the office of price administration that shoes not containing rubber or leather are not yet rationed. This group includes some wooden shoes and rope-soled shoes of some kinds.

Middle-aged man for hotel work. Box 2481, Statesman.

Sale Recorded—Contract of sale for lots 3 and 4, block 4, Woodburn packing company addition to Woodburn, has been signed by the county court. The county received $1250 for the land.

Dance. Every Saturday night. Armory. Everyone invited.

Rowboat Taken—Walter L. Hain, Salem Boat house, reported to city police a 15-foot rowboat was taken from his moorings at the foot of Chemeketa street within the past three or four days. The boat's value was $40.

Rummage, Fri., Sat., 265 N. High.

Eagles Club Entered—A glass door in the Eagles club, 371 North High street, was broken and the building entered early Wednesday morning, city police were told.

Obituary

Dearing
Max Dearing, late resident of route four, at a local hospital, Tuesday, February 23, at the age of 55 years. Son of Mrs. L. J. Dearing of Ellensburg, Wash., and father of Mrs. J. D. Higgenbotham, on Ione, Wash. Announcement of services will be made later by Clough-Barrick company.

Seagrove
Henry Byron Seagrove, late resident of 1690 South Church street, at a local hospital Sunday, February 21, at the age of 75 years. Survived by wife, Mrs. Margaret Seagrove of Salem; daughter, Mrs. Jennie Holder of Alaska; two sons, J. A. Seagrove of Texas and Claude Seagrove of Seattle. Announcement of services to be made later by Clough-Barrick company.

Miles
A. C. Miles at the residence on route three, February 22. Survived by a niece, Mrs. Jessie Miles Williams of Rosedale. Services will be held in the Clough-Barrick chapel, Friday, February 26, at 10:30 a. m. Interment in City View cemetery, Rev. Williams officiating.

Tuesday maximum temperature 65, minimum 39. Wednesday river 14 feet. Weather data restricted by army request.

Applications Ready—The merit system council of the state public welfare commission has forwarded to the Salem office of the United States employment service application forms to be used by applicants in filing for the positions listed for examination March 10. Positions for which examinations will be held will include case worker III, starting at $115 per month, and case worker II, starting at $140 per month. Detailed information relative to the qualifications may be obtained at the employment office, 710 Ferry street.

Registrations are being made this week for those wishing to take beginners shorthand and typing at the Capital Business college, Liberty and Chemeketa streets. Enrollment may be made at any time for other Commercial subjects.

Arrow rummage sale, Friday, Saturday, 477 Court. Best bargains.

Commission Files Resolution—A resolution of the state highway commission proposes that the commission claim two strips of road, totaling .26 of a mile, in Marion county as secondary highway. One piece stretches .17 of a mile from Mehama to the North Santiam river. The other is .09 of a mile, reaching from the North Santiam highway to the Linn county line in Mill City. Resolution was filed in Marion county court.

Dance. Every Saturday night. Armory. Everyone invited.

Partnership Dropped—Certificate of retirement from the Senator Hotel Barber shop was filed Wednesday by A. B. Pratt and H. E. Dahlberg simultaneously with a certificate of assumed business name for the same establishment in the name of Dahlberg alone.

Hours Changed—Rationing registration hours at Hayesville school for today and Friday are to be 3 to 6 p. m., it was announced there Wednesday night. Interest in night-hour registration was not sufficient to warrant offering the service later it was said.

Grocer Class Tonight—Grocers, grocery clerks and checkers are invited to attend a class on point-ratting checking methods at the chamber of commerce in Salem at 8 o'clock tonight.

Boy Missing—Mrs. Harry Ullrich, 1105 North Liberty street, reported to Salem police that her son, Harry Ullrich, Jr., 12, has been missing from their home since 2 p. m. Tuesday.

Apply for License—Among couples who applied for marriage licenses Wednesday in Seattle were Robert F. Groth, marine corps, and Grace Moore, Lafayette.

Pension Proponents Meet—Townsend club 16 will meet at the home of Mrs. Arnold, 2256 Ford street, tonight.

Assumed Name Filed—Certificate of assumed business name has been filed for the J. G. Marr grocery by J. G. Marr.

Court Affirms For Plaintiff

Decree awarding judgment to Mrs. Beatrice Clemens in her damage case against Dr. B. F. Smith of Burns, alleging malpractice, was affirmed in the state supreme court Wednesday in an opinion by Justice Harry Belt. Dr. Smith was accused of having caused an infection due to the use of unsterile equipment when he removed a cyst from Mrs. Clemens' wrist. Judge Fred Wilson had presided at the circuit court trial.

Other decisions Wednesday: In the matter of the estate of H. A. Dedman, deceased; Blanche J. Dedman, appellant, vs. Paul R. Biggs, administrator of the estate. Appeal from Clackamas county. Suit to determine fee to be paid to administrator. Opinion by Justice Kelly. Judge Earl C. Latourrette affirmed.

I. Gordan vs. Industrial Chrome Plating company, and others, appellants. Appeal from Multnomah county. Suit over title to property. Opinion by Justice Hay. Judge pro-tem Walter L. Toozee affirmed.

Protecting the Home Front

Home Keeper Plan
Insurance Protection Tailored to the Growing Family
(Example with $10,000 policy)

1. Pays $2,000 and up to clean up family debts.
2. Pays $100 a month while children are dependent.
3. Pays $10,000 after children are grown.
4. "Fills Out" Social Security benefits.

OREGON MUTUAL LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY
C. S. McELHINNY
Breyman Building

Parrish Selects Officers

Pete Hoar was elected to head the Parrish junior high school student body during the second semester, it was announced Wednesday.

Hoar defeated Peggy Sears for the position. He had earlier defeated Alton Chamberlain in the primaries.

Chosen vice president was Janet Miller; secretary, Jean Hatfield; treasurer, Cathy Moran; sergeant-at-arms, Jim Loder; Periscope editor, Joan Lochead; publication manager, Beverly Kenney; yell king, Dick Jones; song leader, Doris Dixon; eighth grade representative, Betty Jo Beardsley; seventh grade representative, Ted Covalit.

Outgoing officials include Allan Bellinger, president; Joan Randall, vice president; Mary Reiman, secretary; Betty Lou Edwards, treasurer; Jerry Clay, sergeant-at-arms; Margaret Simpson, Periscope editor; publication manager, Joe Brazie; Bob Hagedorn, yell king; Delores Hamilton, song leader.

Forest Fire Crew Training Started

Training classes for teen aged boys who contemplate enrolling in the state forestry department emergency fire crews during the coming fire season, have already started throughout the state, State Forester Nels Rogers reported Wednesday.

The minimum salary to be paid is $100 per month and board. Boys entering the work must be 16 years old in order to receive a permit.

Skyline Is Backdrop for Richelieu

Against a backdrop of New York City's skyline, the 25,000 ton French battleship Richelieu was conveyed by tugs down the East river to a drydock for repairs. In the background is Brooklyn Bridge.—Associated Press Telegram.

Firemen Called To Many Blazes

Fire in the Linden brothers' sawmill on Cherry avenue Wednesday morning caused considerable damage in the planer shed, city firemen said. The blaze started from a spark from a welding torch.

Firemen were also called Wednesday to put out a fire in the garage roof at 744 North Capitol street and a fire at 111 Chemeketa street. A rubbish and grass fire at 900 Electric street also was extinguished.

Public Records

CIRCUIT COURT

State vs. Elmer Ellsworth Zimmerman; plea of innocence entered; tentatively set for trial April 14.

State vs. Roy S. Moore; defendant waives indictment and enters plea of guilty to charge of non support; sentenced to one year in the county jail and paroled to T. Harold Tomlinson on condition he pay $18 a week for the support of his wife and nine-months old child.

Opal Edwards vs. Harold C. Edwards; complaint for divorce charging cruel and inhuman treatment.

Cornelia A. Davis estate; annual report of Turner Memorial home, trustee, by H. R. Leep, vice president of board of trustees, shows assets of $86,535.11, liabilities in form of accounts payable, of $688.44; cash receipts of $35,117.86, disbursements of $28,677.09, including $16,772.77 paid for investments; order approving.

State vs. David McRae; motion by defendant for order dismissing his own appeal.

PROBATE COURT

Andrew J. Anderson estate; will admitted to probate and naming Olive Anderson as executrix; Percy A. Cupper, Floyd Ellis and Gene Grabenhorst named appraisers.

Nancy Wallace and Pauline Wallace guardianship; W. L. Phillips appointed guardian ad litem to represent minors in matter of sale of real property belonging to their estates; answer of minors by guardian ad litem to petition of Paul B. Wallace for order authorizing sale of described property, asks that court require proof of allegations in petition and hearing of petition.

Colonel Jay Olmsted estate; appraised by Ronald C. Glover, Ruby W. Emery and Beate M. Holson at $150.

Conrad Falk estate; order authorizing Nellie M. Falk, executrix, to accept $3000, representing one-half of a mortgage and note, plus specified interest, in full settlement of estate's share of mortgage and note.

Alois Titze estate; final order.

Oren K. Walker estate; order appointing C. C. Edwards, Andrew Stegman and Louis McAllister as appraisers.

Arthur W. Kell estate; return of sale of real property at private sale by executrix, Dorothy Kell, reports said property sold to Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Piper, subject to mortgage of $2000, brought executrix $500.

Ralph R. Ratcliff estate; final account by Amy Ratcliff, administratrix; hearing set for March 26.

Albert N. Moores estate; eighth annual account by Ralph D. Moores, executor, shows debits and credits of $85,632.34; order approving.

John D. Caughell estate; Donald H. Upjohn, Karl E. Wenger and Walter Socolofsky appointed appraisers of estate in Marion county.

Emma H. Smith estate; orders authorizing transfer of personal property on hand subject to distribution and approving final account of J. Perry Bates, executor. Mary Louise West estate; final account by Marion E. West, administrator, shows receipts of $1147.26 and disbursements of $1101.87; hearing set for March 31.

Emma Lax estate; appraised by Byron McElheney, Theodore Fisher and A. E. Schirman at $356.50; order authorizing Henry Eriksen, administrator, to sell personal property.

Magr. J. Von Behren estate; appraised by Frank Coffey, A. H. Schirman and Guy O. Smith at $11,370.00.

Josephine M. Hood estate; Sherman Bostrack, administrator, authorized to execute and deliver a deed conveying to the Mulkeys all right, title and interest of decedent to specified real property described in contract.

Ester Crites estate; order substituting name of Earle M. Dause in place of that of Homer Smith, Jr., as an appraiser.

JUSTICE COURT

Gordon S. Little; two new forgery charges filed; all four cases continued to Monday at 10 a. m. on request of defendant; committed to jail in lieu of bail totaling $5000.

Philip A. Ross; passing another moving vehicle when view ahead not clear; $5 and costs.

Charles E. Miller; no clearance lights; $2.50 and costs.

MARRIAGE APPLICATIONS

Pfc. Wayne Clabough, 22, US army, Camp Adair, and Maxine Kleiner, 18, waitress, Manhattan, Kans.

Emmit E. Griffith, 48, remedy company employe, and Amanda E. Thorp, 48, housewife, both of Stayton.

MUNICIPAL COURT

Vernon Miller; violation traffic light, $2.50 bail.

Alyen Boyle; failure to stop, $2.50 fine.

Harlan L. Wernreck; parking violation, $1 fine.

Esther Harley; no driver's license, $5 fine.

Elmer Carlisle Cooter; failure to stop, $2.50 fine.

Sylvia Harner; disorderly conduct, $50 fine and 10 days.

Your throat never feels "Smoked-Out"

when you join Johnny's—

CALL FOR PHILIP MORRIS

SCIENTIFICALLY PROVED LESS IRRITANT— FAR SAFER—FOR YOUR NOSE AND THROAT!

OF COURSE you ought to smoke PHILIP MORRIS! They're far less irritating, that's why! Note these findings. Distinguished doctors, working with actual men and women smokers, reported that:

When smokers changed to PHILIP MORRIS, every case of irritation of nose or throat, due to smoking, either cleared up completely—or definitely improved!

—Reported in America's most authoritative medical journals, to inform all doctors.

FINER PLEASURE...PLUS REAL PROTECTION
America's Finest Cigarette

NOW SAME PRICE!

We now sell PHILIP MORRIS at same price as all other leading brands In OREGON