A big bowl of ZOOM with milk or cream is a short-order breakfast that's hard to beat—in nutrition as well as in taste appeal. Because it is 100 per cent whole wheat, ZOOM supplies protein, phosphorus, carbohydrates—and the B vitamins and iron in which wartime diets are frequently lacking.

ZOOM is a husky breakfast for those who have a big morning's work lined up... no delay in the time scheduled—and ZOOM is wholesome and satisfying.

Look for the word ZOOM in skywriting on the blue and yellow package.

It's Quick—and Hot!
When homemakers know about ZOOM, they can give their families a hot, healthy breakfast without racing against time. ZOOM, the new flaked whole wheat cereal, cooks instantly.

Simply stir ZOOM into boiling water and let it thicken to taste. It won't lump, won't stick to the pan, and never mushes up—because it is flaked. Instant-cooking preserves vitamins, seals in flavor, saves fuel.

It's Nutritious
Milled from top quality, hard, red wheat, ZOOM is higher in protein content than most cereals. And ZOOM, the instant-cooking cereal contains all the nutritive value of whole wheat, which helps supplement rationed foods in protein vitamins, and minerals.

It Appeals to Children
Children eat ZOOM without waiting to be coaxed—because they like its appetizing whole wheat flavor. Air-minded youngsters can easily learn to identify Allied and enemy planes from authentic silhouettes of P-38's, Zero, Messerschmitts, and other models pictured on each ZOOM Handsack.
