Samuel Stoner Dies Thursday in Aurora

AURORA — Samuel Henry Stoner, 81, died Thursday morning at an Oregon City hospital. He had been in ill health for two months and was taken to a hospital 13 days ago. He was born at New London, Minn., April 7, 1861, and married Augusta Johnson in North Dakota. In 1910 they moved to Scotts Mills where they had a hog farm. Later they moved to Woodburn, going into the implement business and in 1917 to Aurora where they operated a farm.

Survivors include the widow, Augusta; two daughters, Mrs. Ida Atkins of Oak Grove and Mrs. Florence Lettenaier of Milwaukie; sons, Roy, Ben, Ed and Orville, all of Aurora; six grandchildren and three great grandchildren.

Funeral services will be held Saturday at 2 p.m. at the Ransom Miller Funeral home. Burial will be in the Aurora cemetery.

Hospital Cases Are Improved

UNIONVALE — Mrs. Arthur Yungen is a guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Kidd. She came early Sunday morning from the McMinnville hospital where she had been since February 17. Her husband, who is employed by the Buckler-Chapman builders at Portland, visited her Sunday.

Mrs. D. E. Fletcher returned home Sunday night after receiving treatment at a Portland hospital for a week.

Garden making is among the many home duties responsible for members of the Unionvale Ladies Aid absences. Only six members attended Tuesday. Farmers are running tractors every minute possible during the day and a few run them all night.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Lehman and family, who live near Amity, were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Ruschman and family. Mr. Lehman is a brother of Mrs. Ruschman.

The Unionvale Missionary society will meet Tuesday afternoon at the school.

Eugene Wilson is sowing a large acreage of field peas at his Wheatland farm.

Mrs. Louis Magee is recovering at her home after being a patient six days at the McMinnville hospital.
