

Cloverdale Workers Get Instructions

CLOVERDALE—The Red Cross drive for this district is to start the first of next week with Bernice Wipper and Betty Drager in charge of the canvassing. A meeting was held Tuesday night at the home of Herman Peets, chairman, at which workers were given instruction and necessary materials. All families are urged to do their utmost this year to make the drive a big success.

Mr. and Mrs. Bud Petersen have moved into the Mitchell house in this community. Young Petersen was released from the shipyards in Portland to help his father do his farm work.

Clarence Claus, who has been in the infantry at Fort Lewis, visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Schifferer Sunday. He is over the age limit so has received an honorable discharge from the army and is leaving for his home in Peoria, Ill., where he will return to his job in the caterpillar factory. Additional guests for the Sunday dinner were Emma, Willie and Frieda Schifferer, all cousins of Mr. Claus.

A cousin of Lydia Schifferer, Sophia Leechler, from Los Angeles, Calif., is visiting with her this week. She also visited other relatives in Portland and Vancouver, Wash., before coming here. She plans to return to her home next week.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Johnson have moved into Mrs. Nellie Hamilton's house. Johnson drives a logging truck and formerly was living in town.

Fred McCauley Dies in Woodburn

WOODBURN — Fred Andrew McCauley, 67, died in his sleep some time between Monday night and Tuesday morning. He was found dead in bed at his home in the Sleepy Hollow region.

He had arranged to take his sister, Mrs. Nick Krebs of Broadacres, to town Tuesday morning and when he failed to appear, Mrs. Krebs sent her son, Lawrence, to find out if anything was wrong. Lawrence Krebs found the door locked and finally broke it in to find his uncle had passed away during the night.

He was born in Yanktown, S.D., February 14, 1876. He had lived in Oregon three years, coming here from Nebraska, and had lived in the Sleepy Hollow district six months.

He is survived by his sons, Paul of Stockton, Calif., and John of St. Paul, Minn., and his sister, Mrs. Krebs.

Funeral services will be held Saturday morning at St. Luke's catholic church at 9 o'clock. Burial will be in St. Luke's cemetery. Recitation of the Rosary will be held at 8 p.m. Friday at the Ringo chapel.

Grangers News

WOODBURN — The Woodburn grange will hold its regular meeting March 6 at 10:30 a.m. The grange has announced that all members should be present for the ceremony of burning the note clearing indebtedness. A covered dish dinner will be served at noon, followed by a literary program. Any outside grangers are invited.

Bethel Union Takes Member

BETHEL — W. B. Frink was received into the membership of Bethel local of the Farmers Union at the meeting on Monday night. Gus Schlicker, president, gave the obligations. M. D. Vinyard's name was proposed for membership and was accepted. George E. Bahnsen served as conductor. Rev. S. Hamrick was songleader with Mrs. James H. Thompson at the piano. Theodore G. Nelson discussed legislative matters.

Reports on the state convention were given by Mrs. J. R. Carruthers, Rev. S. Hamrick, W. R. Baker, Gus Schlicker, Mrs. Ralph A. Wilson reported on the junior Farmers Union convention and banquet.

A substantial sum of money was voted from the treasury to be used in furthering a project of the national organization. Arrangements were made for Amos Bierly, 4H club leader for Marion county, to speak and show educational slides at the April meeting.

Plans were made for attendance at the Marion County Farmers' Union convention April 3. Mrs. A. C. Spranger and Mrs. W. L. Creech were in charge of serving refreshments.

Miss Bochsler Visits

MT. ANGEL — Miss Mary Ann Bochsler, nurse's aide in Providence hospital, Portland, spent the weekend at the country home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Bochsler. While here she entertained at dinner for Miss Leona Boedigheimer.
