Guard Unit's Roster Open To Recruits

Company K, Salem infantry unit of the Oregon State guard, needs men to fill vacancies in its ranks created by members joining federal services or going into war work elsewhere, Capt. Earl A. Unruh, commander, reported Saturday.

Capt. Unruh outlined requirements for enlistment and duties of members as follows:

"If you are a man under 60 years of age and in fair physical condition you are needed. You are not required to take a physical examination. This is a voluntary organization. However, you will be paid if you are called into active duty in case of emergency. Your knowledge of the surrounding territory, with what military training you would receive, would be of vital importance to military forces in this locality. Our military instructions follow the regular army regulations under able officers and non-commissioned officers. It also includes training films. We are supplied with limited equipment and there is no financing required.

"You sign up for the duration and you will have a much better understanding of military operations. Class and drills are held each Monday from 8 to 10 p. m. For further particulars call at the Salem armory and contact the commander of Company K infantry, any drill night."

Public Gathering Policy to Continue

The general policy under which public gatherings were controlled in this area last year will continue in effect, Gov. Earl Snell announced Saturday, following receipt of a letter from Maj. Gen. Robert H. Lewis, commanding northwest sector, western defense command.

Persons wishing to hold events that will attract large assemblies must submit plans for such gatherings for approval not later than 30 days prior to the date of such gatherings. Leo Spitzbart, state fair manager, will continue to serve as state defense council's representative in handling applications.

War Gas Expert

Maj. John S. Hyatt, chemical warfare officer for the Oregon state guard, who is scheduled to address guardsmen at the Salem armory at 7:30 p. m. Monday of this week. All guard personnel from Willamette valley points have been ordered to attend, and an invitation extended to Red Cross units, aircraft observers, civil air patrol members and civilian defense workers.

Garden Class Schedules Advanced

Instructors of the 10 Victory gardening classes organized in and near Salem last week plan to point their programs each week toward problems the gardener will face during the coming week, Neal Craig, director of vocational agriculture for the city school system, said Saturday. Class attention at this week's sessions, accordingly, probably will be directed toward how much of each type of vegetable should be planted in a garden of a particular size, with emphasis on peas, carrots and beets, he said.

Meeting nights of the classes, which began last Wednesday and will run for nine more weeks, were changed, those in Salem and West Salem to Monday nights at 8 o'clock and that at the Salem Heights community hall to the same hour on Tuesday nights. Enrollment is open to all persons interested.

The Salem classes will be held at Richmand, Highland, Englewood and McKinley grade schools, Leslie junior high, the old high school building, the senior high vocational building and the Pringle Park community house. The West Salem class will meet at the city hall.

Adair Man Given Soldier's Medal As Flood Hero

CAMP ADAIR, Ore., March 20—An official notice released here recently stated that Sgt. Clinton L. Franklin, of the camp military police detachment has been awarded the soldier's medal. The citation is for the sergeant's heroic action last New Year's day, in rescuing a drowning man from the Willamette river during a flood.

This camp, although less than a year old, has produced its third hero medal. Thus Sgt. Franklin takes his place along with the Timber Wolf division's Brig. Gen. Bryant E. Moore, winner of the Silver Star for gallantry in action on Guadalcanal, and Sgt. Clarence Leach also of the Timber Wolf division, who was awarded the soldier's medal last fall for bravery shown when a truck accidentally caught fire.

Sgt. Franklin enlisted in the service at Big Pine, Calif., in August 1942. Two months ago he was transferred from Camp Adair to a post in Georgia.

Preston Hamilton Dies, North Bend

Preston A. Hamilton, 63, brother of Mrs. O. L. Scott of Salem, died early Saturday morning at North Bend. Hamilton lived in Salem for some time, working as a plumber here. Funeral services and burial will be held soon in the Miller cemetery east of Silverton.

Hamilton was born in Prineville, Ore., on March 10, 1880. His father, George W. Hamilton, died in 1900. Hamilton's mother, Mrs. Cynthia Elviery Pugh Hamilton, died in 1917. Preston Hamilton married Lena G. Scott on September 11, 1911. She survives.

Diverting Highway Revenues To Cities Okehed by Snell

Governor Earl Snell Saturday signed a house bill of the recent legislative session providing for allocation of part of the state highway commission revenues to the cities.

The measure provides that when the highway department revenues reach $11,000,000 or more, 5 per cent of the total shall go to the cities for the construction and maintenance of streets.

Based on the income of the highway department for 1943, the approximate amount that will be allocated to the cities in 1944 was estimated at $589,000.

Another bill signed by Governor Snell appropriates $20,000 to develop the possibility of coal deposits in Coos county but the money will not be available until the Coos county court by resolution shall provide a similar amount.

Other bills signed included one allowing the Willamette Basin commission $3000 with which to maintain its office and one providing for expenses of investigations and experiments.

Pumpkin Fruit To Mr. OPA

PORTLAND, March 20—(AP) Pumpkin is a fruit—at least currently—the district OPA said Saturday.

The new vegetable-fruit controversy arose when a consumer, who found the dictionary defined pumpkin as "fruit of the vine," asserted a No. 2 can of pumpkin should cost but 15 ration points instead of the 21 required under its vegetable listing.

The OPA said pumpkins could be considered a fruit until a contrary ruling was received from its legal department in Washington.

PENNEY'S 41ST ANNIVERSARY ★ PENNEY'S 41ST ANNIVERSARY

FOR YOU! AT PENNEY'S
In Tune With The Times . . . Practical Gaymode Hose

Lovely full-fashioned lisle and rayon hosiery that smart, well-dressed women want today!

Not only are they right on the fashion line, but they strain no wartime budget! Here you have another proof of Penney's alertness to the needs of changing times: the simple, practical things that have always been found first, and best, at Penney stores. And, hand-in-hand, there has always been the same emphasis on value as on style.

We've preached economy, and we've practiced it . . . we've helped our customers to save on what they need. And these facts go straight back to the first Penney store, opened 41 years ago this month.

These Gaymode rayons meet every demand of this wartime year of 1943. They're good to look at . . . but that isn't all. They fit well. But that isn't all, either. Their price is less than most women have been paying for their stockings for a long time!

As surely as it's been "Penney's for Hosiery" for 41 years . . . these stockings will continue to bring women into Penney stores for their hose.
