Where They Are—What They Are Doing

Lt. William S. Parker has been ordered to report to Fort Lewis on April 6, to begin army service in the dental corps. He recently completed his dental course at North Pacific College of Dentistry, Portland, and has been practicing here awaiting his army call. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Parker, 305 Rose street.

Homer C. Smothers, formerly of Salem, is now a staff officer with American Red Cross and is accepting early assignment to overseas duty. He was teaching in Muscatine, Iowa, high school, and his wife took over his work there when he went with the Red Cross.

Cpl. Lloyd J. Claggett, stationed at Camp Lee, Va., is home on 15-day furlough from his duties as clerk in the personnel division of the quartermaster corps replacement center. He is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Patton, 492 South High street.

PORTLAND, March 24.—(AP)—Douglas B. Armstrong, Jr., Salem; Harold E. Harden, Lebanon; Edwin C. Apperson, McMinnville, and Ronald W. Mohning, Aurora, were among 28 Oregon high school seniors enlisted as apprentice seamen, V-5, and slated for naval aviation training under the navy's new cadet program. It was announced here Wednesday.

Bob McNeil, naval pre-flight student at the University of Washington, has written his mother, Mrs. J. McNeil, saying that by today he expects to have been released from the Seattle navy marine hospital, where he was placed after he slipped in a swimming pool and broke his right arm.

Cpl. David N. Smith, US marine who has been serving in the battle areas of Guadalcanal and Tulagi in the Solomon islands, has written his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Smith, of his transfer from that region. In a V-mail letter, the first information to reach Salem from Cpl. Smith in the last two months, the corporal said he had received clippings of the Willamette river flood early this year in addition to gifts sent from the continent.

Cpl. Smith, a former state highway department employe, enlisted in the marine corps on December 10, 1941. He attended Salem grade schools and graduated from the Melba high school in Idaho.

LINCOLN—Mrs. Roy W. Hammer received word from her nephew, Gordon Johnson, who is stationed at Fort Snelling, St. Paul, Minn., that he made 136 points out of a possible 163, in a mathematics test, qualifying him for a three-months specialized training in some college. He has been accepted and his name has been sent to Omaha for approval. Johnson spent his summer vacation here last year before enlisting.

James Mickey, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. L. I. Mickey, is stationed at Fort Lewis. His second son, Robert Mickey, is in the construction unit of the navy. He now is with the Atlantic fleet. Mrs. Robert Mickey, the former Eileen Tarpley, was with him at Davisville, R.I. when he was on a nine-day furlough just before he left. They visited many interesting places in New York. After he left with the fleet, Mrs. Mickey came back to Portland, where she is employed by Western Union.

HOPWELL—Billie Loop, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Loop, who is training at Camp Carson, Colo., has returned to camp after making a trip to Omaha, Neb., to receive a small truck to be used at an army base, according to a letter he wrote his parents.

VICTOR POINT—Marvin and James Darby, sons of Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Darby, now are in Rhode Island. After enlisting in the navy last fall, they spent several months in Idaho, then were sent to Illinois, and now to Rhode Island. Both have received excellent grades in their exams and are second class seamen.

McALPIN—Gunnery Sgt. Charles J. Peterson writes friends here that he likes his duty while stationed in the depot of supply, USMC. He says he is fine but "would surely like to get back to good old Salem, Oregon."

Lt. Matthieu Forrette, son of Mrs. A. L. Eddy, who has been stationed in Arkansas, arrived home Monday morning on furlough.

RIVERDALE—Word has been received by Mrs. Alfred Klein that her brother, Hurstel Tolten, is somewhere in north

Back to Duty

Ray J. Ziellinski (above), gunner's mate third class, US navy, has returned to a port of embarkation to receive further assignment to duty, after visiting his mother, Mrs. Helen Mayfield, route two, Salem, while on a ten-day furlough. Ziellinski enlisted in the navy in December, 1941, and took basic training at Fort Angeles, Wash. He has just completed a year of duty in a naval base in Alaska. Since the Japanese attack on Dutch Harbor last June, Ziellinski has seen much action in the Aleutian islands. Included in his souvenirs of Alaskan service are some pieces of Japanese shrapnel. A graduate of Buena Crest grade school and Salem high school, he was a high school football letterman. He hopes to remain in the navy for at least 30 years.

Africa. He was formerly stationed at Camp Pickett, Va.

Ernest Rogers, who is in the navy, spent a week visiting with his mother, Mrs. Nellie Rogers, and his sisters. He left for San Diego, Calif., Thursday.

WEST SALEM—Phil Hathaway just received a long distance telephone call from his brother, Westly Hathaway, who is serving in the US navy, and has been at sea for some time. He reports that he is well. The call was made from San Pedro, Calif.

MONMOUTH—Friends here have heard recently from Sgt. Forrest F. Morris, formerly a student at OCE, who is somewhere in the South Pacific with the army medical corps. He was a member of the Oregon national guard, Lebanon hospital unit, for five years before the guardsmen were mobilized at Camp Murray in September, 1940. In 1941 he was assigned to the Letterman hospital, Presidio, San Francisco, for a special course in medical training, and more than a year ago went overseas. His parents are Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Morris of Sweet Home.

AURORA—George Kraus, second son of Mr. and Mrs. John Kraus, left March 14, for induction into the service.

Charles Morgan, after spending a 14-day furlough with his wife, Mrs. Pearl Morgan, left this week for his post with the army at Bremerton, Wash.

LIBERTY—Cpl. Isaac T. Schmidt, in the army air corps at Westover Field, Chicopee Falls, Mass., arrived Saturday in Salem to visit his mother, Mrs. Katherine Schmidt. He received basic training at Jefferson Barracks, Mo., and was graduated from the air force technical school at Buckley Field, Colo., where he won highest honors in sheet shooting.

TALBOT—Second Lt. James K. Anderson arrived from New York to visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. James W. Anderson. He will return to Miami, Fla. Mrs. Anderson the former Margaret Taylor, is remaining in New York and becoming an airplane instrument repair technician for the Sperry Gyroscope company. The Anderson's other son, Bill, has been advanced to aviation ordnance mate third class. He recently was graduated from NATTC at Norman, Okla.

Donald Turnidge left Saturday night for Santa Ana, Calif., where he will become an aviation cadet. He is a graduate of Jefferson high school and has attended John Brown's Military academy at San Diego, Calif. His parents, Rev. and Mrs. Henry Turnidge, are Talbot residents.

Mrs. Mickey Resigns
LINCOLN—The Lincoln school board composed of Roy Hammer, Tracy Walling and Kasper Neiger, with Ivan Merrick, clerk, offered Mrs. L. I. Mickey, present incumbent, the contract to teach next year at a raise in salary of $10 but Mrs. Mickey resigned. The school year ends here in May.
