Father Alcuin Talks Mexico

Business Club Hears Of Trip, Red Cross Drive, Cooperation

MT. ANGEL — Father Alcuin gave a few terse, sound admonitions to the Business Men's club at the Mt. Angel hotel Tuesday noon in what had been expected to be a farewell talk from the pastor of Mt. Angel before his departure for Mexico. He said he would reserve his parting message for the time, about a month hence, when he leaves to take up permanent residence in Mexico. His present trip down there, which he expects to take in a few days, is merely to select a location for his proposed school. He will then return to Mt. Angel to make final preparations.

He touched briefly on his book on the history of the Mexican peasant, now being published, and said that no permanent peace or prosperity could come to Mexico until its rural difficulties were solved, for 70% of the Mexican people live off and on the land.

In referring to the Red Cross drive completed last week with the edifying results of $1111 for this district, he said that from March 24 on he would no longer be chairman but asked the people to continue their fine support.
