

Couple to Celebrate Sunday

Mr. and Mrs. William G. Wolfe of Monitor, who have been married half a century, will celebrate their Golden Wedding anniversary with a family dinner and a reception on Sunday afternoon at their farm home. They are inviting friends through the press to attend the reception which will be held from 2 until 5 o'clock.

A large wedding cake will be on the serving table, and pictures of the couple now, and at the time of their wedding will be arranged beside it. Daffodils and golden colored tapers will be used as decorations.

The daughters, Mrs. Fred Willig, Mrs. Frank Rembert and Mrs. Sam Waggoner will greet the guests. The daughters-in-law, Mrs. George Wolfe and Mrs. Ralph Wolfe, will serve. Two granddaughters, Miss June Waggoner and Miss Viola Kreiger, will assist.

William G. Wolfe was born in Maryland in December, 1865, and Augusta A. Lenhardt was born in Germany in April, 1874, and came to the country at the age of 13. The couple were married at Waukesha, Wisconsin, on March 26, 1893, and came to Fairfield, Oregon, in 1895. There they lived for three years, moved to Polk county for the next seven years and in 1905 bought a tract of 40 acres of partially cleared land bordering on Butte creek in Marion county. Mr. Wolfe cleared the land, put up buildings and ran the farm until five years ago, when his son Ralph rented the land. The couple still live in the home.

Mr. Wolfe has raised every crop the Willamette valley can produce, much of prize quality. When they moved to the community, the Monitor flour mill was the main industry in the town and each time the miller made a new experiment with a product, he had Mrs. Wolfe test it in her kitchen. The Wolfes played an important part in the construction of the Willamette Valley Southern railway, which ran through their property.

Mr. and Mrs. Wolfe are members of the local Congregational church.

Children of the couple are Mrs. Edna Willig, Monitor, Mrs. Helen Rick Rembert, Weiser, Idaho, Mrs. Loretta Waggoner, Salem, George Wolfe, Portland and Monitor, and Ralph Wolfe, Monitor. Another son, Lester, died in 1937.

Grandchildren are Mrs. Gwendolyn Dent, Terrabonne, Ore., Sgt. Veryl Vich, army air corps, Tinker Field, Oklahoma, Mrs. Betty Swift, New York, Viola and Ernest Krieger, Monitor, June, Larry and George Waggoner, Salem.

Great grandchildren are Richard and Iva June Dent, Barbara Ann Swift.

Dinner Party For Visitor

Mrs. H. W. deRoche was honored guest at a dinner given on Tuesday night by Dr. Helen Pearce and Miss Dorothy Pearce at their North Winter street home. Mrs. deRoche, visiting her sisters, Miss Lillian and Miss Jess McDonald, is from Nelson, BC.

Invited were: Mrs. deRoche, Miss Lillian and Miss Jess McDonald, Miss Helen Yockey, Mrs. Margaret Rosecrans, Dr. Helen Pearce and Miss Dorothy Pearce.

BRUSH COLLEGE—All seats were filled and standing room was at a premium when the annual Dance Revue was presented by the pupils of the Brush College school under the direction of the teachers, Miss Muriel Kaster and Miss Trula Grant on March 19.

This was conceded to be the largest crowd ever to have attended a program there.

The "Hansel and Gretel" idea was carried out in dancing numbers. Patsy Moriarity was Gretel, Jimmy Benson, Hansel, Mildred Nelson the witch. Eugene Andrews was master of ceremonies and announced these numbers: Acrobats and drums by Dicky Moriarity, the witches cat, by Josephine Singer, Glenda McAllister and Elva Lough; toe dance by boy and girl bunnies with Donna Kron and Glenda McAllister taking the parts; sailor tap dance by Josephine Singer and Eugene Andrews; tap lineup by Eugene Andrews, Jimmy Benson, Jerry Benson, Amacy McCarty, Bill Patrick and Jerry Payne; military tap by Joan Olson, Leroy Banover, Nadine Olson, Patsy Moriarity, Donny Meyer and Katherine Singer; Easter parade song and soft shoe tap, Donna Kron, Katherine Singer, Patsy Moriarity, Sandra Gibson, Nadine Olson, Wallace Gibson, Donny Meyer, Wallace Bayer, LeRoy Banover and Billy Nelson; Gypsy dance, Jessie Green, Beth Wendt, Mitzi Patrick, Edna Harritt, Doris Smith, Betty Bayer; an old fashioned number, with Glenda McAllister taking the character part of Mary, when "Her name was Mary" was sung to the accompaniment of a soft shoe tap by Jerry Benson, Eugene Andrews, Amacy McCarty, Jimmy Benson, Billy Patrick, Jerry Payne; old-time number, "When you wore a tulip" and a tap strut by Donna Kron and Joan Olson; "The Winegar Works" by Joan Olson, Glenda McAllister, Elva Lough, Josephine Singer, Doris Smith, Mildred Nelson, Beth Wendt, Mitzi Patrick, Lucuene Frohlick; a buck rhythm tap by Elva Lough, Mildred Nelson, Doris Smith and Lucuene Frohlick.

Miss Muriel Kaster was responsible for the dance numbers and unique and artistic scenery and Miss Trula Grant accompanied all musical numbers and arranged the dialogue.

Thirty seven dollars was derived from the pie sale following the Dance Revue, which was in charge of the Brush College Helpers club.

Preparations were not made for so many and about half of those attending could not be served. The proceeds will be used to purchase windows for the playshed.

SILVERTON — Mrs. Gordon Van Cleave presided as worthy matron and Roy Skafie as worthy patron at the Tuesday night meeting of the Ramona chapter of Eastern Star.

Plans were made for the next meeting April 13, when the 45th anniversary of the chapter will be observed with a no-host dinner.

Ramona club will meet April 6 at the home of Mrs. L. C. Eastman with Mrs. James Hollingsworth as co-hostess.

Courtesy girls put on a degree honoring Mrs. R. A. Fish, who served when Mrs. Van Cleave was ill, and Mrs. Van Cleave presented her with a gift.

Cards and a social hour followed the regular meeting with Mrs. George Hubbs and Mrs. Byron Royce as hostesses.

Adjust a Menu to Meat

Now we'll simply have to make meat go a long way, and not just that, but we'll have to adjust our menus to the kind the market man has to offer.

We've found that planning has become very important, and that pencil and paper are as necessary in the kitchen as a good cookbook. For greatest wartime economy, plan before you shop. If you decide to have a roast beef dinner, for example, and your dealer hasn't any beef on hand, buy veal, lamb or pork shoulder, loin or leg roast instead. If you listed green peas as the vegetable, you could serve string beans, spinach, beet greens, broccoli, the possibilities are many. Alternates can easily be fitted into a well-balanced menu with no loss of nutritional essentials, if the alternates are properly selected.

Remember that all meats have high nutritive values regardless of kind or cut. Remember, too, that a wide variety of vegetable and fruit can be fitted into the daily pattern for right eating. Homemakers are all discovering culinary tricks that help to make the most of the food they buy—women are learning what a delicious kettle of soup can be made from a meat bone and bits of trimming, with a few vegetables and rice or barley added.

There are tricks, too, that make favorite dishes that use few ration coupons. Take mock chop suey, for instance.

MOCK CHOP SUEY
(6 servings)
2 cups thin strips of cooked heart, kidney or beef, pork or veal (1 pound before cooking)
1/4 cup flour
1/4 cup fat or oil
2 tablespoons soy sauce
1 cup thinly sliced onion
1/2 pound fresh mushrooms
1 cup thinly sliced celery
1 cup shredded cabbage
8 ounces noodles

Dredge heart strips in flour. Brown in 2 tablespoons fat in heavy fry pan. Add 2 cups boiling water to the soy sauce. Brown onion, sliced mushrooms and celery in 2 tablespoons lard. Add to heart. Cover. Simmer about 15 minutes. Boil cabbage 5 minutes. Drain. Add to chop suey. Serve on hot cooked noodles, toasted shredded wheat, or rice.

It's wiser to use rationed foods sparingly until we are used to the idea and can budget our total number of points for the period so they will be equally divided. But there are little tricks that will help to save precious points.

If your recipe for a meat loaf, for instance, calls for one cup of tomatoe juice, try mixing 2 or 3 tablespoons of catsup with one cup of water and using that in the loaf instead; or use water as the liquid and add a teaspoon each of mustard, horseradish and paprika. You'll like the flavor.

Miss Grace Giham, who retired after 17 years as a teller in the state treasurer's office, is in Salem for a few days, en route from Pasadena where she spent the winter, to Pilot Rock. She plans to spend some time at Pilot Rock.

The Salem Heights Woman's club will give the final benefit card party in a series tonight at 8 o'clock in the community hall. The party is to raise money for the club's war work.

It's PLANTING TIME in Oregon's SUGAR BOWL

GIVE OREGON'S BEET GROWERS A VOTE OF CONFIDENCE BY ASKING YOUR GROCER FOR OREGON SUGAR

Right now, as Oregon sugar beet growers are preparing to plant their 1943 crop you can help them make up their minds whether to grow more sugar beets or less than last year. Oregon sugar bought in the home market means more to the grower yet costs you nothing extra. When you use home-produced sugar you also spare ships, trains and trucks for important war work . . . so we all gain. Oregon sugar is the best you can buy . . . for every purpose. Ask your grocer . . . he has "White Satin" sugar or can get it.
