Strawberry Crop SILVERTON HILLS - Farmers are busy here this week hoeing and cultivating strawberries. There will not be as many this year as usual as a number of the growers took out part of their acreage following last year's difficulty in obtaining pickers. Gordon Flemming, who has been working here as government trapper, has been transferred to Clackamas county. The Victor Howards will move to their home here in the very near future. Mr. Howard, who was government trapper?here before going into the army, has returned and will again cover this area.

Mrs. Violet Dick, who has been living in the Howard home while teaching at Mt. View, will move to the former Ed West home nearer
