

'Showers' Featured At Dance

"April Showers" was the appropriate theme for Delta Tau Gamma's spring formal dance in the Mirror room of the Marion hotel Friday night, and the fulfillment, gay spring flowers, predominated in the decoration scheme.

Miss Mary Helen Wilson was in general charge of the affair, and special guests were Mr. and Mrs. Roy S. Keene and Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Magee. Dancing was to the music of records.

Colorful flowered Hummel prints served as dance programs. A mixed bouquet of forsythia, spirea and flowering quince centered the refreshment table, accented by white tapers. Miss Hazel Wells was in charge of serving the punch and tiny cakes. Others planning the affair were the Misses Mary Lou Moore, Anna Ruth Leonard, Ina Monroe, June Downey, Elaine Bergquist, Eloise Ransom, Peggy Van Santen, Ina Mae Heinz, Mary Margaret Livesay and Doris Lee Anderson.

Christening at Home Ceremony

Philip Eugene Klaus, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick C. Klaus, was christened at a ceremony last Saturday at the Klaus home on North 19th street. Rev. George Quigley officiated at the ceremony. Col and Mrs. Alfred E. Clark were godparents.

The occasion was also the birthday of the boy's grandmother, Mrs. Freeman T. Phipps and the christening anniversary of his mother.

Guests at the Christening included Mr. and Mrs. Phipps, grandparents, Col. and Mrs. Alfred E. Clark of Portland, Mr. Henry Klopping, Mrs. U. G. Boyer, Miss Wilna Gessler, Mrs. Nelly Cudney, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Keck, Miss Ruth Bedford and Martha Marie, five-year-old daughter of the Klausens.

Abrams Avenue Women Meet

Members of Abrams avenue club held a business meeting Thursday at the home of Mrs. R. Burton. At the election of officers, Mrs. R. Flawn was chosen president and Mrs. J. Burton, secretary.

After the meeting Mrs. Burton served refreshments, assisted by Mrs. Flawn. Present were Mrs. Ed Fussell, Mrs. J. Schomburg, Mrs. C. Hagen, Mrs. J. W. Weekly, Mrs. H. Bell, Mrs. Burton, Mrs. Flawn and Mrs. Burton.

SCIO—Preceded by dinner, two tables of pinocle were in play Saturday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Keith Miller in South Scio.

Pattern

"There's no age OR size limit to charm!" says this frock for a matron, Pattern 4364 by Anne Adams. Every inch spells flattery, from the soft shirred shoulders to the clever front bodice treatment and the narrow side-front skirt panels. Use a flower print with lace trim.

Pattern 4364 is available only in women's sizes 36, 38, 40, 42, 44, 46, 48 and 50. Size 36 takes 3 1/2 yards 39 inch; 2 1/2 yards lace edging.

Send SIXTEEN CENTS in coin for this Anne Adams pattern. Write plainly SIZE, NAME, ADDRESS, STYLE NUMBER. TEN CENTS more brings you our Spring Patterns Book with 100 easy-to-make styles for everyone. Send your order to The Oregon Statesman, Pattern Department, Salem, Oregon.

WOMEN'S PAGE

SOCIETY MUSIC The HOME

CLUB CALENDAR

SATURDAY
DAR with Mrs. H. G. Smith, 1140 Center street, 2 p. m.

MONDAY
Hal Hibbard camp and auxiliary, 8 p. m.; drill team and officers, 7:15 p. m.
Alpha Psi Delta mothers club, chapter house, 1:30 p. m.

TUESDAY
Yonareo class, with Mrs. Roy Walz, 1:15 p. m.
Salem Central WCTU, hall 2 p. m.
Missouri club auxiliary, with Mrs. Wade Weekly, 1130 Spruce street.

WEDNESDAY
All Presbyterian church circles meet at 2 p. m., except No. 1 which meets at 1:15.
104th Division officers' wives, luncheon, 1 p. m., Golden Pheasant.

THURSDAY
WCS of the First Methodist church, Carrier room 2 p. m.

CDA Group To Initiate

The Catholic Daughters of America held their spring initiation Wednesday at the Woman's club. The following joined the Salem court: Mrs. Florence E. Brennan, Mrs. Arme Klecker, Mrs. Loretta Hayes, Miss Gertrude Schies, Mrs. Alice Jonas, Miss Bernice Reuttgers, Mrs. Evelyn Scragg, Mrs. Hazelle C. Reed and Mrs. Sadie Talon. From Woodburn court were Mrs. Ludmilla Purdy; Mount Angel, Mrs. Margaret Annen, Mrs. Anna Dieker, Mrs. Anna Meyers, Mrs. Marie Palmer, Mrs. Mary Terhaar, Mrs. Thersa Wagner, Mrs. Susan Wrubbe and Miss Mary Wrubbe; Stayton, Mrs. Jessie Juel, Mrs. Rosella Kreitzer, Miss Eleanor Welter and Miss Matilda Eitel.

Mrs. Helen White, grand regent of the degree team, and her officers put on the initiation. Mrs. Edna McKay gave a violin selection accompanied by Selby Shunterman.

Supper chairman was Martha Coffey.

Mrs. Bernice LaDou acted as toastmaster for the program.

Mrs. Josephine Kenyon, grand regent, gave a welcome to the new members and Father Robert Neugebauer gave the main address. Betty Jean Merten sang two vocal selections, accompanied by Miss Gladys Edgar. Remarks were given by Mrs. Clare Brabec, state regent, Mrs. Kathleen Hale gave a reading, Elmo Innocenti and Robert Krechter sang two vocal selections accompanied by Keith Evans.

Other officers present were Miss Anne Erwert, grand regent of Mount Angel and Mrs. Rose Bell, grand regent of Stayton. Mrs. Rose Appleby of Mount Angel acted as district deputy.

LABISH CENTER—On Wednesday afternoon, Mrs. E. B. Klampe and Mrs. W. F. Klampe entertained the Ladies' aid society at the latter's home. It was voted that the club purchase a service flag which will be placed in the schoolhouse. The ladies finished work on one wool comforter for the Red Cross and started on another. Those present were Mrs. W. R. Daugherty, Mrs. Nathan Kurth, Mrs. Harvey Aker, Beverly Aker, Mrs. O. G. McClaughey, Mrs. Alice Jefferson, Mrs. Harlan Pearsall and Janet, Mrs. Myrtle Lovre, Mrs. Noble Ragland, Mrs. E. J. Weinman, Mrs. Clyde Leedy, Mrs. Willard Aker, Mrs. Horace Bibby, Mrs. Nick Kurth, Mrs. Frank Weinman, Mrs. Henry Harris, Mrs. Joe Burr, Mrs. Lillian Rasmussen, Mrs. Willard Harnschuch, Mrs. Harry Boehm, Mrs. W. A. Starker, Miss Arlene Klampe, and Mrs. W. F. Klampe, and Mrs. E. B. Klampe. Mrs. Joe Burr will entertain the club at her home at the April meeting.

STAYTON—Jake Schlies, on furlough from Camp Carson, Colorado and Isabelle Walls, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Walls of Lebanon were married on Friday at the courthouse in Albany, Judge Arnold reading the ceremony in the presence of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Harold, also of Albany.

The bride will remain in Albany where she is employed and Schlies returned to his army camp Wednesday. He operated the picture machines at the Star theater in Stayton for six years.

UNIONVALE—Mr. and Mrs. Howard Baker entertained with a card party at their home Tuesday. Attending were Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Abdill, Mr. and Mrs. Neil Davis of Dayton, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Zentner, Mr. and Mrs. Victor Geiger, Earl Fleming and Leta Fleming.

WAVES in Salem Next Week

Women who want to enlist in the WAVES or SPARS will have an opportunity to get all the information concerning these branches of the service Monday and Tuesday when Ensign Mary Elizabeth Harper of the WAVES visits Salem.

Ensign Harper's headquarters here will be at the local Navy Recruiting station, it is announced by Chief Fallon, recruiter-in-charge. Office hours will be 8 a. m. to 5 p. m. on both days.

Ensign Harper will explain the opportunities offered by the WAVES and SPARS and will receive applications from those who desire to enlist. She will be assisted by Yeoman Dorothy Duncan who is also from the Portland branch of the office of naval officer procurement.

Chief Fallon reports that more than 45 different jobs are open in the WAVES and SPARS and that one of Ensign Harper's purposes in coming here is to explain the connection between these jobs and civilian work.

Shower Given For Bride

Miss Carolyn Bates was hostess on Friday night at a shower given for Mrs. LeeRoy Hamilton, the former Bette Jean Wilson.

Attending the party for Mrs. Hamilton were Miss Corabelle Weeks, Miss Sarah Ann Ohling, Marilyn Claire, Jeanne Busick, Corinne Wade, Jean Hoffert, Marleuse Walerty, Jean Sechrist and Miss Bates.

LEBANON—Mrs. Clara Bobkowsky is announcing the marriage of her daughter Bernice, to Mr. Robert Shores. The marriage was solemnized earlier than planned in order to agree with changes in plans of Mr. Shores who reported for duty at Camp Roberts in California. Mr. Shores was a student at Oregon State college and Mrs. Shores in the Oregon College of Education in Monmouth.

Present at the meeting were Dr. Helen Pearce, Mrs. Rollin K. Page, Miss Bertha Kohlhaugen, Miss Dorothy Pearce, Miss Lillian McDonald, Miss Katherine Cartweh, Miss Agnes Booth, Miss Nellie Schwab, Mrs. Margaret Rosecranz, Miss Frances Clinton, Miss Anna Peters, Miss L. Mae Rauch, Miss Helen Yockey, Miss Genevieve Morgan, Mrs. Byron B. Herrick, Mrs. H. W. Winkler.

April Fool Dance At Delta Phi

An April Fool's dance will be given tonight by women of Delta Phi sorority at the chapter house. Members, pledges and guests will dance to recorded music, and decorations and refreshments will conform to the April Fool theme.

Plans for the affair were made by Miss Bette Burkhardt, chairman, Miss Kay Wilson, Miss Louise Wisley, Miss Sally McClelland, Miss Louise Stuyts and Miss Carol Young. Special guests will be Dr. and Mrs. Robert Lantz and Mrs. Frank James.

ANKENY—The Home Economics club and the Talbot Woman's club held a meeting at the grange hall this week to formulate plans for a Shelter station in time of emergency. Mrs. George Marlatt conducted the meeting; after a general discussion on this project the following committees were named and by motion their chairmen selected; Mrs. Edna Reeves general chairman, Mrs. Marlatt vice chairman, Mrs. C. F. Johnson, transportation, and Mrs. Ethel Blinston, food and provisions. John Finlay general helper when an emergency should arise.

STAYTON—The Women's club, at its last meeting entertained the teachers at supper, when over 60 club members and friends attended. Over $16 was contributed by the diners for the club's general treasury.

A program was given by Richard and David Easton with accordion and vocal selections, a reading by Blynn Humphreys, scenes from the junior class play by the cast, and a talk on the organization and functions of the rationing board by Harry Rowe, chairman.

AUMSVILLE—The Women's club held its annual guest day tea Thursday afternoon at the city hall. The rooms were decorated with spring flowers. Readings were given by Mrs. E. Klein and Mrs. Helen Simpkins. Mrs. Lamb sang. Group singing was enjoyed with Mrs. Simpkins accompanying the various musical numbers. Women of the Tillamook club were guest. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Bland Speen April 15 with Mrs. Helen Simpkins assisting as hostess.

When a friend comes to "spend the weekend" you'll be proud to show off your best linen embroidery. The stitches are varied and simple. Directions for the crochet edging are included. Pattern 564 contains a transfer pattern of a 7x20 1/2 and two 7x2 inch motifs; color schemes; stitches; list of materials.

Send ELEVEN CENTS in coin for this pattern to The Oregon Statesman, Needlecraft Dept., Salem, Ore. Write plainly PATTERN NUMBER, your NAME and ADDRESS.

There's no age OR size limit to charm!" says this frock for a matron, Pattern 4364 by Anne Adams. Every inch spells flattery, from the soft shirred shoulders to the clever front bodice treatment and the narrow side-front skirt panels. Use a flower print with lace trim.

Send your order to The Oregon Statesman, Pattern Department, Salem, Oregon.

Tea Today For Army Wives

Planned especially for the pleasure of the young wives of army officers now living in the city is the informal tea scheduled for Saturday afternoon at the home of Mrs. T. H. Hammond, 677 North Summer street, by members of the Salem Junior Women's club. Women between the ages of 18 and 35 who are eligible for club membership and who are interested in the club's activities are invited to the affair, with calling hours from 3 to 5 o'clock.

Greeting the guests at the door will be Mrs. T. H. Hammond, and assisting about the rooms will be the club members and officers. In charge of the dining room will be Mrs. Kenneth Dalton, and members of the club's war service and membership committees who arranged the tea, will assist in the serving and in greeting the callers. Invited to preside at the table are Mrs. James T. Brand and Mrs. Dwight Lear the latter a charter member of the Salem Junior Women's club. The table will be covered with an ivory linen cut-work cloth and centered with an arrangement of daffodils, forsythia, and yellow tapers in crystal holders. Bouquets of flowering quince and other spring blossoms will be used about the rooms.

Making arrangements for the tea are Mrs. Joseph B. Felton, Mrs. F. C. Gast, Mrs. Maurice W. Brennan, Mrs. Thorne H. Hammond, Mrs. Kenneth Dalton, Mrs. Delbert Schwabauer, Mrs. Mrs. H. Larky, Mrs. Ralph S. Nohlgen, Miss Hazel Shutt, Miss Maria Dare, and Miss Mabelle Frazer.

The tea originally was to have been held at the home of Mrs. Fred Gast but has been changed.

Miss Yockey Is Hostess

Miss Helen Yockey was hostess on Wednesday night to members of the Salem Zonta club at her home on South High street. Miss Genevieve Morgan presided at the business meeting.

Mr. Boyd Burnside, senior associate field director of the Red Cross, stationed at Camp Adair, gave a talk on the duties of the Red Cross in military camps.

Present at the meeting were Dr. Helen Pearce, Mrs. Rollin K. Page, Miss Bertha Kohlhaugen, Miss Dorothy Pearce, Miss Lillian McDonald, Miss Katherine Cartweh, Miss Agnes Booth, Miss Nellie Schwab, Mrs. Margaret Rosecranz, Miss Frances Clinton, Miss Anna Peters, Miss L. Mae Rauch, Miss Helen Yockey, Miss Genevieve Morgan, Mrs. Byron B. Herrick, Mrs. H. W. Winkler.

WEST SALEM—The Laurel social hour club will meet Tuesday April 6 at one o'clock at the home of Mrs. Warren Baker. The afternoon will be spent in sewing for the Red Cross. Mrs. Phillip Peterson is club president and Mrs. W. H. Zimmerman secretary.

WEST SALEM—The Laurel social hour club will meet Tuesday April 6 at one o'clock at the home of Mrs. Warren Baker. The afternoon will be spent in sewing for the Red Cross. Mrs. Phillip Peterson is club president and Mrs. W. H. Zimmerman secretary.

Today's Menu

The housewife will have to adjust the Sunday meat to what she can get, but here's a suggested list of menus for the week anyway.

TODAY
Crunchy vegetable salad
Sour cream dressing
Creamed codfish
Baked potatoes
Maple nut pudding

SUNDAY
Apple celery salad
Peanut butter dressing
Pot roast with
Carrots, onions, potatoes
Lemon chiffon pie

MONDAY
Stuffed celery
Relishes
Scalloped potatoes with Frankfurters
Frozen peas
Stewed fruit compote

Make regular scalloped potatoes, placing a Frankfurter for each serving on top, heat until frankers are thoroughly warmed through.

MAPLE NUT PUDDING
2 tablespoons sugar
1/4 cup flour
1/2 teaspoon salt
3/4 cup maple syrup
2 eggs, beaten
1 1/2 cups milk
1 tablespoon butter
1/2 teaspoon vanilla
1/2 cup broken nuts
Blend sugar with flour and salt. Add syrup and eggs. Beat well, add milk and cook slowly, stirring constantly, over low heat until mixture is thick and creamy add butter. Beat well. Cool, add vanilla, and pour into glass dish. Chill. Sprinkle with nuts and serve plain or with cream.

COLDS
Relieve misery, as most mothers do. Rub the throat, chest and back with time-tested

VICKS VAPORUB

Service Men

Where They Are—What They Are Doing

Second Lt. Louis C. Wampler, Oregon State college student who enlisted in the army air corps on May 13, 1942, is now in active service at Geiger field, Spokane, Wash. Lt. Wampler's home is at route three, box 336, Salem.

Pvt. Ed A. Burgess, 31, Salem, and Pvt. Kenneth Ray Luckey, 24, Hubbard, completed a photography course at Lowry field, Colo., last Saturday. Pvt. Luckey, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Orville E. Luckey, route one, box 394, Hubbard, served at Fort Lewis, Wash., and Sheppard field, Tex., before entering the army air force technical training command at Lowry field. Pvt. Burgess, former basketball and football player at Salem high school, is the husband of Mrs. Ruth Burgess, 140 Highway avenue, and the son of F. B. Burgess, 150 South Cottage street. Pvt. Burgess has served at Fort Lewis, Wash., and Atlantic City, N.J., in addition to Lowry field.

Sgt. Harrie E. Hoxie, jr., son of Lt. Col. and Mrs. Harrie E. Hoxie of Vancouver Barracks, visited his grandmother, Mrs. J. F. Baum of Salem, and his aunt, Mrs. Robert Duncan of Silverton, while returning to Keesler field, Miss., from a leave spent with his parents.

Enlisting March 30 in the marine corps at Portland was John Duane Rogers, son of John Kenneth Rogers, 234 North 24th street. Rogers returned to Salem on inactive status awaiting call to report to a training center.

Seventeen-year-olds who have enlisted in the navy through the Salem office as apprentice seamen and who are being sent to the naval training station at Camp Farragut for six weeks recruit training include: George William Hotchkiss and Robert William Hotchkiss, twins, 1315 Center street; Sydney Hudson Francisco, jr., route two; Neal LeVern Hagedorn, route four; Cecil Raymond Billings and William McMorris Austin, both of route three; Robert Malcolm Leffingwell, 25 Carleton way; Raymond Doyle Lockard, 2365 Rex avenue, all of Salem; Ralph Leroy Carver of Gervais and Harold Eugene Ensor of route one, Turner.

SCIO—Glenn Philippi of Portland took his physical examination at Albany Friday for armed service. He registered at Fairbanks, Alaska, two years ago.

Word from Jack Yeager, Scio US navy, is that he was well and glad to hear news from his home town. He is on sea duty most of the time.

Harold and Billy Hoagland still were at a middle west base a short time ago. Billy had returned to his unit following hospitalization for a month because of ear trouble which required minor surgery.

MT. ANGEL—Rev. Bertrand McLaughlin, OSB, of St. Benedict's abbey at Mt. Angel left Wednesday for Cambridge, Mass., for his month's training at the chaplain school at Harvard university.

Father Bertrand enlisted for chaplain duty last fall but did not receive his commission as first lieutenant until last Monday. He came to Mt. Angel from Nova Scotia in 1923 and entered the monastery in 1928. He was ordained to the priesthood in 1934 and was sent to the Benedictine mission on Vancouver island, B.C. He remained there until 1939 when he returned to Mt. Angel to take charge of the abbey farm.

Since last September he has been assisting at army camps, first at Tillamook and since Christmas at Camp Adair.

DALLAS—Derrill K. Allen, son of Mrs. William Hoff, is stationed near Alameda, Calif. He enlisted in December in the coast guard but has just been called.

Word has been received that Dr. Robert Hayler, son of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Hayler of Dal-

Assigned

Alvin Hansen, seaman first class, writes his parents that he is stationed temporarily in San Francisco awaiting return to sea duty. He has been on duty in the Pacific since completion of his basic training at San Diego a year ago. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Hansen and had spent a short leave with them in January before being called back to San Francisco.

las has been promoted from lieutenant, junior grade, to lieutenant. He is stationed at a naval hospital in Maryland.

Robert Hobson has been promoted from ensign to lieutenant, junior grade, according to word received by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hobson. Lt. Hobson is stationed at Cape Maline, N.J.

Ensign Joe Card has completed his training at the navy flying field at Corpus Christi, Texas, and has been transferred to Kansas City, where he will be an instructor.

Richard Riggs left Tuesday for Fort Douglas, Utah, to enter training as an air cadet. Richard is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Riggs and has been attending Oregon State college.

Jake Toevs, Dallas, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank D. Toevs, now stationed at Camp Adair in the medical corps, has been promoted to technical sergeant. He has been in the service about two years.

CLOVERDALE—Marvin Yeager, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. Yeager of Cloverdale, is visiting with his parents during a short leave from the US navy training station at Farragut, Idaho. He has 11 days before returning to a navy hospital for an operation on his foot.

NORTH HOWELL—Lt. Clarence R. Rickard, army air force, who was graduated from Luke Field, Ariz., on March 10, has been sent to Randolph Field, Texas, for a month of intensive training to become an instructor for advanced flying students. He will be stationed then at some army air field. He is the oldest son of Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Rickard. His wife and las has been promoted from lieutenant, junior grade, to lieutenant. He is stationed at a naval hospital in Maryland.

Awaits Duty

Robert Hobson has been promoted from ensign to lieutenant, junior grade, according to word received by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hobson. Lt. Hobson is stationed at Cape Maline, N.J.

Ensign Joe Card has completed his training at the navy flying field at Corpus Christi, Texas, and has been transferred to Kansas City, where he will be an instructor.

Richard Riggs left Tuesday for Fort Douglas, Utah, to enter training as an air cadet. Richard is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Riggs and has been attending Oregon State college.

Jake Toevs, Dallas, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank D. Toevs, now stationed at Camp Adair in the medical corps, has been promoted to technical sergeant. He has been in the service about two years.

CLOVERDALE—Marvin Yeager, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. Yeager of Cloverdale, is visiting with his parents during a short leave from the US navy training station at Farragut, Idaho. He has 11 days before returning to a navy hospital for an operation on his foot.

NORTH HOWELL—Lt. Clarence R. Rickard, army air force, who was graduated from Luke Field, Ariz., on March 10, has been sent to Randolph Field, Texas, for a month of intensive training to become an instructor for advanced flying students. He will be stationed then at some army air field. He is the oldest son of Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Rickard. His wife and baby son, John, live in Milwaukee. Lloyd Patterson, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Patterson, who was inducted into the army at Fort Lewis last week, has been sent to Camp White, Medford, for basic training.

LIBERTY—Bill Austin, Cecil Billings and Neal Hagedorn, a trio of 17-year-olds who passed their final physical examinations in Portland Wednesday, have been sworn into the US navy. They left Thursday for a training center. Austin is the second son of Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Austin to enter the service. Cecil is the second son of Mr. and Mrs. Luther Billings to enter the navy, Melvin having enlisted last year. The Austin's son, Staryl, is an aviation cadet in Texas.

George Cogswell US army, who has been stationed at the Fresno, Calif., replacement center, writes that he is being transferred to Amarillo, Texas.

Thirty Take Service Exam

Thirty young men at Willamette university took the nationwide qualifying examination for the army and navy college training program Friday at Collins hall under the direction of Dr. H. C. Hutchins and Dr. Robert Lantz. Applicants will be notified of results individually by mail by July 1.

The examination, open to men 17 to 22 years of age enrolled in accredited colleges and excluding men already in reserve programs, allowed listing of preferences for particular branches of service, and placements are expected to be made accordingly. The examination is not necessarily final.

Successful candidates will be sent to army or navy selected colleges for specialized training, but not necessarily Willamette. The period of training will vary with the type of training undertaken.

Board Sanctions Holbrook Parole

The state parole board has recommended parole for Ellery T. Holbrook, who was received at the state penitentiary June 1, 1935, under 20-year sentence for assault and robbery while armed with a dangerous weapon, in connection with the robbing of the Dairyman's bank at Redmond.

Holbrook assisted in the getaway of Frank Watson and Earl Davis, who committed the robbery, and concealed them in his home.

Watson and Davis—not their true names—remain in the penitentiary under 20-year sentences. They some time ago sought to confess a triple Texas killing, but Texas officers have not fully accepted their story.

Service Men

Where They Are—What They Are Doing

Second Lt. Louis C. Wampler, Oregon State college student who enlisted in the army air corps on May 13, 1942, is now in active service at Geiger field, Spokane, Wash. Lt. Wampler's home is at route three, box 336, Salem.

Pvt. Ed A. Burgess, 31, Salem, and Pvt. Kenneth Ray Luckey, 24, Hubbard, completed a photography course at Lowry field, Colo., last Saturday. Pvt. Luckey, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Orville E. Luckey, route one, box 394, Hubbard, served at Fort Lewis, Wash., and Sheppard field, Tex., before entering the army air force technical training command at Lowry field. Pvt. Burgess, former basketball and football player at Salem high school, is the husband of Mrs. Ruth Burgess, 140 Highway avenue, and the son of F. B. Burgess, 150 South Cottage street. Pvt. Burgess has served at Fort Lewis, Wash., and Atlantic City, N.J., in addition to Lowry field.

Sgt. Harrie E. Hoxie, jr., son of Lt. Col. and Mrs. Harrie E. Hoxie of Vancouver Barracks, visited his grandmother, Mrs. J. F. Baum of Salem, and his aunt, Mrs. Robert Duncan of Silverton, while returning to Keesler field, Miss., from a leave spent with his parents.

Enlisting March 30 in the marine corps at Portland was John Duane Rogers, son of John Kenneth Rogers, 234 North 24th street. Rogers returned to Salem on inactive status awaiting call to report to a training center.

Seventeen-year-olds who have enlisted in the navy through the Salem office as apprentice seamen and who are being sent to the naval training station at Camp Farragut for six weeks recruit training include: George William Hotchkiss and Robert William Hotchkiss, twins, 1315 Center street; Sydney Hudson Francisco, jr., route two; Neal LeVern Hagedorn, route four; Cecil Raymond Billings and William McMorris Austin, both of route three; Robert Malcolm Leffingwell, 25 Carleton way; Raymond Doyle Lockard, 2365 Rex avenue, all of Salem; Ralph Leroy Carver of Gervais and Harold Eugene Ensor of route one, Turner.

SCIO—Glenn Philippi of Portland took his physical examination at Albany Friday for armed service. He registered at Fairbanks, Alaska, two years ago.

Word from Jack Yeager, Scio US navy, is that he was well and glad to hear news from his home town. He is on sea duty most of the time.

Harold and Billy Hoagland still were at a middle west base a short time ago. Billy had returned to his unit following hospitalization for a month because of ear trouble which required minor surgery.

MT. ANGEL—Rev. Bertrand McLaughlin, OSB, of St. Benedict's abbey at Mt. Angel left Wednesday for Cambridge, Mass., for his month's training at the chaplain school at Harvard university.

Father Bertrand enlisted for chaplain duty last fall but did not receive his commission as first lieutenant until last Monday. He came to Mt. Angel from Nova Scotia in 1923 and entered the monastery in 1928. He was ordained to the priesthood in 1934 and was sent to the Benedictine mission on Vancouver island, B.C. He remained there until 1939 when he returned to Mt. Angel to take charge of the abbey farm.

Since last September he has been assisting at army camps, first at Tillamook and since Christmas at Camp Adair.

DALLAS—Derrill K. Allen, son of Mrs. William Hoff, is stationed near Alameda, Calif. He enlisted in December in the coast guard but has just been called.

Word has been received that Dr. Robert Hayler, son of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Hayler of Dal-

Assigned

Alvin Hansen, seaman first class, writes his parents that he is stationed temporarily in San Francisco awaiting return to sea duty. He has been on duty in the Pacific since completion of his basic training at San Diego a year ago. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Hansen and had spent a short leave with them in January before being called back to San Francisco.

las has been promoted from lieutenant, junior grade, to lieutenant. He is stationed at a naval hospital in Maryland.

Robert Hobson has been promoted from ensign to lieutenant, junior grade, according to word received by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hobson. Lt. Hobson is stationed at Cape Maline, N.J.

Ensign Joe Card has completed his training at the navy flying field at Corpus Christi, Texas, and has been transferred to Kansas City, where he will be an instructor.

Richard Riggs left Tuesday for Fort Douglas, Utah, to enter training as an air cadet. Richard is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Riggs and has been attending Oregon State college.

Jake Toevs, Dallas, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank D. Toevs, now stationed at Camp Adair in the medical corps, has been promoted to technical sergeant. He has been in the service about two years.

CLOVERDALE—Marvin Yeager, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. Yeager of Cloverdale, is visiting with his parents during a short leave from the US navy training station at Farragut, Idaho. He has 11 days before returning to a navy hospital for an operation on his foot.

NORTH HOWELL—Lt. Clarence R. Rickard, army air force, who was graduated from Luke Field, Ariz., on March 10, has been sent to Randolph Field, Texas, for a month of intensive training to become an instructor for advanced flying students. He will be stationed then at some army air field. He is the oldest son of Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Rickard. His wife and

JUST RECEIVED at Sears

Special purchase!

WHITE WITH RED TRIM

Triple-Coated ENAMELWARE

119

8 1/2 qt. size

Last Day Queen Sale
Pot With Cover

- Three coats of White Enamel
- Handles Welded for Strength
- Stain and Acid Resistant Finish
- Heavy Seamless Steel Base

Here's your chance to save! This sturdy 8 1/2 quart capacity pot has snug-fitting, non-boilover cover to keep flavor in! Cool knobs and easy